SAMUEL ANDREW HENNIS, JR. Grand Master, 1965-66

SAMUEL ANDREW HENNIS, JR.

The One Hundred Seventy-Eighth Annual Communication of The Grand Lodge of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons of North Carolina concluded its sessions in Raleigh, North Carolina, on the twentyfirst of April by installing in a public ceremony the one hundred twelfth Grand Master of Masons in North Carolina, Samuel Andrew Hennis, Jr. The ceremony of installation was a very impressive one with Most Worshipful Brother Eli Hand, Past Grand Master, as the Installing Officer, and Most Worshipful Brother William J. Bundy, Past Grand Master, as Installing Marshal. It was taped for a thirty-minute television program. Masons throughout the state anxiously looked forward to the installation of Sam Hennis as Grand Master of Masons in North Carolina, because they believe that in him they have all the elements and essential qualities of a great Grand Master. He possesses the essentials of greatness not only in his own Masonic achievements, but also in the mantle of Masonic glory thrown upon his shoulders by our late beloved Herbert Miles Foy, Past Grand Master of Masons and one of the greatest Masons this Grand Lodge has ever known. Most Worshipful Brother Foy was the father-in-law of our new Grand Master.

Our Grand Master is a very popular man. He is popular all over the state of North Carolina, and in many other Grand Jurisdictions which he has been privileged to visit. The popularity that he enjoys is the result of the confidence that the brethren have in him because of his Masonic ability, because of his fascinating personality, and intriguing way of inspiring the devotion and confidence of the brethren. This high degree of personality and popularity will be a marvelous asset to him during his year of service while he leads the Masons of North Carolina to greater achievements and to more active Masonic endeavors.

One of the outstanding projects to which Most Worshipful Brother Hennis will give his inspirational genius is that of completion of the campaign begun four years ago to provide North Carolina's contribution under the Pennsylvania Plan to the George Washington Masonic National Memorial in Alexandria. Four years ago North Carolina Masons agreed to enter this plan, hoping at that time that it would be completed within the suggested period of four years. This plan called for each lodge in North Carolina to contribute one dollar for each of its members; and at the conclusion of that program, the Grand Lodge itself would contribute a sum equal to ten dollars for each lodge in the state. This, then, would complete in perpetuity North Carolina's program of participation in this magnificent memorial to a great Master Mason. Unfortunately, however, the program was not fully completed during the four year period. There remains still a small amount of work to be done. With the inspiring manner in which our Grand Master usually elicits the support of Master Masons, there is no doubt but that our full share of responsibility in this program will be completed during the year. Then on February 22, 1966, it will be a thrilling experience to witness the five Grand Masters who have led this program proceed to the platform in the Memorial Auditorium in Alexandria and present a check representing North Carolina's full and complete participation. Our Grand Master has pledged himself to the completion of this goal, and we are more than confident that he will succeed.

Most Worshipful Brother Hennis was born June 27, 1917, when our country was engaged in its first worldwide conflict, World War I. Mount Airy, the Granite City of North Carolina, was the scene of his birth. He attended the public schools of Mount Airy and graduated from the Mount Airy High School in 1934. Five years later on November 22, 1939, he was married to the daughter of Most Worshipful Brother Herbert M. Foy, Past Grand Master of Masons in North Carolina, Miss Myrtle Hines Foy, popularly known as "Sis." They have three children-Sam A., III, who has made it possible for our Grand Master to be a grandfather; a daughter, Suzanne, and another daughter. Pamela Miles. The Hennis Freight Lines was started by the father and the brother of our Grand Master in 1927, thus providing him with an early opportunity for entrance into the business world. He continued in this work until 1945, at which time he entered the service of our country and served in the United States Army during 1945 and 1946. At that time the firm was sold.

In 1941 he and his brother, H. L., became co-partners in Town Tire Service in Mount Airy, and in 1943 they took on the distributorship of the Gulf Oil Corporation. Our Grand Master is an outstanding business man and has made an excellent name for himself in the business world. His profound knowledge of his product and his ability to compete successfully has made it possible for him to achieve a high rank of distinction in his chosen work.

Most Worshipful Brother Hennis could not have climbed the ladder of fame in the mystic circle of Masonry, however, had he not rendered distinctive service in many areas of life. Interestingly enough, he has given liberally of his time and ability to many avenues of service that make for better community living. For example, he has been very active in the church life of Mount Airy and especially in his own First Baptist Church of that City. For more than ten years he was a member of the Finance Committee of that church. He is a past president of the Lions Club, a director of the Mount Airy Chamber of Commerce, as well as a director of the Mount Airy Development Corporation. He has likewise exhibited an interest in the Salvation Army activities, and for more than three years he served as an Advisory Board member, in addition to serving two of those years as Chairman. He is a past director and past treasurer of Reeves Y.M.C.A. and was a member of the Mount Airy School Board for more than eight years, during which time he also served as Chairman for a period of two years. He is a director of Workmans Savings & Loan Association and is a past director of the Mount Airy Merchants Association.

Thus, it is quite obvious that our Grand Master's activities in the non-Masonic world have enabled him to achieve meritorious distinction and recognition. These are the qualities that active and wholesome Masonic interest can create in the inspired individual, and nowhere have these qualities been more prevalent than in the life of our Grand Master.

It is fitting that this short biographical sketch should conclude with a summary of the Masonic memberships and activities of our Grand Master.

He was initiated an Entered Apprentice April 30, 1940, passed to the Degree of Fellowcraft June 14, and raised to the Sublime Degree of Master Mason on August 9, 1940, in Granite Lodge No. 322,

Mount Airy. Ten years later he was Master of that lodge, and nine years after his term of service as Master, he was appointed to the Grand Lodge of A.F. & A.M. of North Carolina by Most Worshipful Brother W. Eli Hand of Wilmington. This was in 1959 when he began his climb from the position of Grand Steward up the ladder of fame to the exalted position he now occupies as the leader and guide and inspirer of the more than 64,000 Masons in North Carolina. He is the Grand Representative of Peru, South America, and he is the proud possessor of honorary memberships in seven or more Masonic lodges.

He is a Master of the Royal Secret, or Thirty-Second Degree Mason, with his membership in the Greensboro Scottish Rite Bodies.

The Grand Master is also a member of Mount Airy Chapter No. 18, Order of the Eastern Star.

In Capitular, or Royal Arch Masonry, he was the High Priest of Mount Airy Chapter R.A.M. in 1958. He is a member of the Order of High Priesthood and is Grand Representative of the Grand Chapter R.A.M. of Kentucky.

In Cryptic Masonry he holds his membership in the Blue Ridge Council No. 28 R. & S.M., serving as Illustrious Master in 1957. He is likewise a member of the Thrice Illustrious Masters' Council of North Carolina, Roanoke Council No. 1, R. & S.M.

In Chivalric Masonry he has likewise risen to the heights. This is Masonry of the Grand Commandery, and he holds his membership in the DeMolay Commandery No. 34, in which he served as Commander of the Knights Templar in 1951. Later in 1956 he was elected Grand Warden of the Grand Commandery, and in 1963-64 he was elevated to the exalted position of Grand Commander of the Grand Commandery of North Carolina. During this year he had the enjoyable distinction of visiting all of the Commanderies in North Carolina. This gave him a marvelous opportunity to meet with his brethren, to get to know them, and to inspire them with his incomparable genius, instilling a greater desire for more extensive activities in this field. He is Grand Representative of the Grand Commandery Knights Templar of West Virginia.

In Allied and Appendant Masonic organizations he has his membership in the Lily of the Valley Priory No. 1, Knights of the York Cross of Honour, Two Quadrants. He is also an honorary member of the Arizona Priory No. 34, as well as a member of the Saint Titus Conclave of the Red Cross of Constantine and served as Illustrious Sovereign of that organization. He is a member of the Holy Royal Arch Knight Templar Priests and of the Knight Masons of Ireland; a member of the Grand College of Rights, of the Triangular Council No. 45, Allied Masonic Degrees. He is also a member of the Oasis Temple of the A.A.O.N.M.S. and has served as Ambassador of this Temple.

Our Grand Master for many years has been a regular visitor to the Grand Masters' Conference of North America. During these years he has made many firm and lasting friendships, His ability was recognized long ago by those who have been occupying leading positions in the various organizations who hold their sessions in Washington during the week of the Grand Masters' Conference. These visits and these recognitions paid handsome dividends during the most recent session of the Grand Masters' Conference when Most Worhipful Brother Hennis was elected chairman of the Grand Masters' Conference ence Committee for the ensuing year and was also appointed to a six year membership on the Committee on Information for Recognition. This is quite a distinction indeed, one that North Carolina is more than proud to have bestowed upon one of its most honored and distinctive Masons.

Masons in North Carolina therefore look to the new year with a great deal of pride, satisfaction, confidence and hope. They are sure that it is going to be one of the best Masonic years the Grand Lodge of North Carolina has never experienced, and under the able leadership of our new Grand Master, it is indeed easy to predict that the accomplishments and achievements of this year will go down in Masonic history as majestic highlights of a glorious era of Masonry in the Tar Heel State.

ADDRESS OF M. W. BROTHER WALTER A. PORTER GRAND MASTER OF MASONS IN VIRGINIA

The Grand Master recognized M. W. Brother Walter A. Porter, Grand Master of Masons in Virginia, who responded with a brief address in behalf of the out-of-state distinguished guests:

Most Worshipful Grand Master, Officers and Brethren of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina and Distinguished Guests:

I feel very humble in being asked to respond for this distinguished group of Masons—men who could entertain you with their oratorical ability. Nevertheless, I am sure that they would have me express to you our thanks and appreciation for the great hospitality, the cordiality and the many courtesies that we have received while being in your midst. I appreciate the opportunity of responding for them.

I think that we, as Freemasons and Grand Lodges, are generally beset by the same problems. But, I say to you, that when an institution has existed through the ages longer than any other except the church, there can be very little wrong with our Order.

It is my considered opinion that if we admit through our West Gates men of quality without regard to numbers and teach them in addition to the ritualistic work the meaning of the philosophies for which we stand, endeavor to inculcate in them the qualities of leadership which we need and the observation of those principles and precepts for which we stand and are found in the Holy Writings which rest upon our Altars then, I feel, the Fraternity of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons is on solid ground. And if there be a lesson in my remarks, I would say to you, "Let us strive for greater leadership and I am sure then that we shall have a greater degree of fellowship."

Most Worshipful Grand Master, on behalf of your invited guests, I wish for you and this Grand Lodge a most prosperous and harmonious session and I thank you for the singular honor of saying these words to you and your brethren.

ADDRESS OF THE GRAND ORATOR

The Grand Master recognized and presented W. Brother Jesse W. Helms, Grand Orator of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina, who delivered the following oration:

Most Worshipful Grand Master and Brethren:

It has occurred to me on many occasions in recent weeks that there must inescapably have been a fearful moment that rushed in upon every man honored by the assignment tendered me for this occasion by the Most Worshipful Grand Master. Certainly it is at once both distress and joy—the distress of inadequacy and the joy of trying. Still there is the happy satisfaction on this day and at this hour, of being a part of something worthy and durable that has spanned centuries of mankind's struggle with both hope and reality.

Masonry is more than a fraternity of men welded together to share the nobility of faith and hope and charity. It is a state of mind, an uplifting of the soul, for those who are willing to comprehend its meaning and acknowledge its blessings. It is faith in God. It is compassion. It is a search for the meaning of life. It is a roadsign disclosing not merely the way but the distance to the destiny of mankind.

This is the genesis of the soul-searching that surely must have descended upon every Brother who before me has undertaken this honor and this task. It is a matter of obvious historical fact that I stand at this end of a long line of far more distinguished and esteemed and wise men than I. Their noble works have illuminated and nourished, not merely Masonry, but all of society as well. They truly have been Grand Orators.

I readily confess, then, that my own credentials are not those of a Grand Orator by definition, but by title graciously conferred upon me, and gratefully accepted by me. Still, I am not an orator, and certainly not a grand one. I am simply a Free Mason, mindful of a bountiful heritage far beyond my due, standing humbly before an assembly of his Brothers, pretending no wisdom but offering sincerity and assuring little except the honest convictions of one who is honored to stand before you.

I think we are living in a time when some decisions cry out to be made, again, about things that deserve to survive. I say "again" because men at every bend in the river of history have confronted the challenges of freedom and responsibility and, yes, tyranny. It is a paradox of human nature that mankind seems often to invite subjugation while pleading for freedom. But it is not really so. It is merely a frailty of man to succumb to the lure of the non-involvement that constantly beckons from the banks of this river of history. It is easier to sit out a struggle than to partcipate in it.

I came not here this afternoon to talk politics. But neither did I come to pretend to be non-partisan. For I am partisan in many things and in many ways and, as long as there is breath in me, I intend to continue to be strongly partisan in the belief that there are some absolutes in this world. Do not misunderstand me: I intend no piety. I rank my own sense of values over no other man's. I simply wish to plead that it be considered. I know my weaknesses and I confess them to a Providence who has been kind to me. So when I speak of the frailties of man, I do not exclude my own. To the contrary, they head the list of my regrets. I think that what I really want to do is shake America and all of her institutions—including, if you will, Masonry—and cry: Wake up and heed the warnings of history!

There are, I say to you, my Brothers, some absolutes in this world. Say nay, and you say that there really is no spiritual foundation for the civilization we claim to be building. Yes indeed, there are absolutes hovering all around us, pleading to be recognized and cherished and respected again.

There is, for example, the absolute to be found in the difference between right and wrong. No man who passes the tests of Masonry, as each of us has, can ever again plead that he knows not this difference. To the extent that we practice what we know is the unfailing, true measurement of our fidelity to the pledges that we have made to ourselves, to this great Fellowship, and to our Maker when we first gave and received a token. Were these pledges made lightly, or in the earnestness expected of us? Each Brother must answer for himself.

And then there is the absolute represented in the difference between responsible freedom and unrelenting bondage. There are clandestine "medicine men" all around us, imploring us to yield our freedoms, to mix them with disguised tyranny. They sell us comforts and pleasures in our own time, asking only that we mortgage the liberties of not only ourselves but those of our children and their children after them.

And, oh, it is a splendid show, complete with slogans and promises and the tinkle of something-for-nothing. Travel now, pay later, into a magic land, they say. All we have to lose is our destiny!

How can we believe that these Pied Pipers are playing a new melody? Our brothers in history—Jefferson and Washington and Patrick Henry—closed their ears to the medicine men and opened their hearts to God. They appealed to their Creator to give them wisdom to forge out of a wilderness a land of opportunity. And unless we today wish to contend that they were merely lucky romanticists, who accidentally fell upon the formula for freedom, we are bound to acknowledge that the Supreme Architect provided the guidance that our forefathers so carefully followed.

It was no accident, my Brothers! A God who lets no sparrow fall without His notice is unlikely to have been an idle spectator as a new nation was born in His name. In God we trusted, because there was—and is—an absolute that separated right from wrong. Forevermore there was to be one King of Kings and only one, and the free people of this land were to grow in His name and with His blessings. And there was to be no other king before Him.

It lasted for a century and a half, and a little longer. And then, beset by troubles of our own making, we began to look for easy answers. We ceased to use the yardstick of right and wrong that had been our greatest heritage. We played with words, and tampered with ideals. We became more interested in bartering our freedoms than in preserving them. We demanded a credit card for comfort, a charge account for ease. And to relieve our consciences and disguise our responsibilities, we began to demand another king. We began to make a God of Government. And we began to forget the government of God!

What kind of infirmity grips a nation that would discard its most priceless treasure? We talk about democracy but smite its very principles. We talk about freedom but clamor for regimentation. We talk about peace but we ignore the Prince of Peace and all of His teachings. We talk about equality, but submit to a false equality that seeks to be a leveller of men; that seeks to debase and divide rather that to uplift and unite.

It cannot be said that history has not given us fair warning. The very foundations of our government are admonishments of what to expect if very clear principles are not preserved and respected. But do we not today live in an America, intoxicated by subsidies and slogans and promises and indifference, that is too busy having a binge to care? We tell ourselves that debt doesn't matter, that personal responsibility doesn't count, that human relationships are too complex to be settled by established due process. By our own apathy, by our own indifference, we have invited the deluge of laws and rules and regulations. I reiterate: We have made a god of government.

The tragedy is that most Americans, instinctively if not always intellectually, have an awareness of the only real source of strength, the only real hope of survival, of their land. But they are afraid to follow the recipe of 1776. We demand prosperity without perspiration. We want security instead of opportunity.

I would ask: What, really, was the miracle of America? Wasn't it, when all is said and done, simply a recognition of the potential of a land which would dare to unlock the genius and productivity of free men? So, our founding fathers sought merely a means of limiting the power of the powerful and of protecting the rights of the weak. Equality cannot be bestowed by government without confronting the question: equal to what?

The kind of equality which I believe our forefathers envisioned was designed to help men meet their responsibilties, not to encourage them to shirk their duties. Certainly there was no design to deliver the processes of government into the hands of those who can raise the biggest crowd and voice the loudest demands. Pontius Pilate proved the folly of this. It is difficult to believe that there could ever have been the contemplation that crowd-pleasing expedience would be an honorable political substitute for dedication to principle.

Let us not compound our mistakes by refusing to think about them: Those who seek to solve the problems of our society through the impositions of socialism, rather than through the process of democracy within the free enterprise system, are heading down a road that leads to darkness. And here, my Brothers, I seek not to be political, but I again confess to being partisan; strongly partisan in apprehension at every effort which encourages men to envy, to covet, to foster class conflict, to be class conscious, or to ease the nation's conscience about the breakdown of morality which now engulfs us. When we as Masons, or churchmen, or business men, or educators, or government officials, or as the Supreme Court, encourage people to use force wrongfully, to flout the law, to misrepresent truth, or to provoke bitterness—then we are not merely throwing dirt upon our heritage; we are selling our souls. It is a disease that this republic cannot survive.

So what, my Brothers, am I saying? I am saying that by what we do, or fail to do, we are casting our shadows upon history for all time. We are living in a crucial era, and confronting some of the greatest opportunities ever known. But the deafening question roaring in our ears is: are we ignoring these opportunities? If we are sensitive only to the expediencies of the hour, we will easily dissipate a heritage that was forged out of the agonies and blood of men who, when they were tested, did not hesitate to meet their challenges.

Within the next few weeks, the commencement season will be upon us. Young men and women will hear messages of hope and inspiration. Over and over again they will be told, in effect, "Here is the world, take it". There is the uncomfortable feeling that if these young people were to take a good look at this present they're being handed—this mess we've made of the world—they might hand it back. Truly, it may not be much of a graduation gift, after all.

I wonder if we can really be proud of our record of preserving the things that have a right to survive? We talk of immortality, but do we really comprehend its meaning? We talk of God as if He were some abstract being with whom we can play "trick or treat". When we pray, we ask not always for the strength and the faith to do what we know we ought to do. We more often propose a swap with God: "If You'll do this for me, God, I'll do that for You".

And then we have the audacity to wring our hands and ask, "What is the world coming to?". What we really mean—isn't it?—is: When is the world coming to?

When will we get back to defining things the way they are instead of the way we might conveniently like for them to be? When will we have the moral courage to reject the platitudes of those who would destroy freedom in the name of freedom? When will we have the stamina to challenge those who would strip from our public life the spiritual allegiance upon which this nation was founded? When, my Brothers, will we protest the fraud which is being perpetrated in the name of "freedom of religion".

Can it be that even Master Masons fail to understand the difference between freedom of religion and freedom from religion? If our minds can be boggled on that point, then charlatans will never have difficulty in confusing our senses with succeeding travesties that lead to decay of principle and destruction of justice and mercy and morality. We will be easy prey for mobs which would nail personal responsibility to the cross of sing-song semantics which tamper with the soul of America's fundamental liberties. We will be easy targets for deception. We will be willing volunteers for subjugation.

I think better of mankind than this. We have to hope. We have to struggle. We have to pray and fight and defend, not merely our personal liberty, but certainly our personal honor. A wise man once said that in the constant contest for decency the Lord does not require us to win, but He does expect us to try.

And try, my Brothers, we must. Our principal tool will not and cannot be the dogma of political philosophy but in those immutable precepts which underly the Ten Commandments.

This is easy, to say and difficult to do. On the Day of Reckoning the question will not be how hard was the task, but how hard did we try? Our duty is to do all that we can, as best we can. Nothing less will suffice; nothing less is right. If the world is to have a change of heart, then mankind must have a change of direction. It will not be done by government and laws, because these are simply the reflections of the standards of people. If we fail to understand this, then we fail to understand our duty.

As I have acknowledged earlier, I have not felt secure in this declaration which is, in all honesty, a confession of my own frailty. In my own defense, I can say only that I constantly struggle to see my duty. And every man's performance of his duty is a matter to be resolved only between his conscience and his God.

I fear that I have presumed upon your time for too long already, and I shall make haste to conclude. I did not casually choose to voice these lamentations. I have done so as a concerned Brother, and if I have inflicted upon you a jeremiad, it is because of my awareness of your dedication to the majesty of Masonry and all for which Masonry stands.

My prayer this afternoon is that we shall all understand that we lack the luxury of centuries to be spent in leisurely and comfortable moral decay. What we do now matters now. There is an enemy, now, which is counting on us to be indifferent, counting on us to be blind to the lessons of history, of America, and certainly of Masonry. What will it be, my Brothers? It is a decision that must not be longer delayed.

"The Moving Finger writes," said Omar the Tentmaker, "and, having writ, Moves on; nor all thy Piety nor Wit Shall lure it back to cancel half a Line, Nor all thy tears wash out a Word of it."

My prayer is that we shall be men at this time when men are needed, and that we shall undertake our duty as God has given us the light by which we may discern that duty.

So mote it be, my Brothers. So mote it be.

APPRECIATION

The past year has been another eventful year in the Grand Secretary's office, and I am deeply indebted again to a large number of people for their help and advice. I am sincerely grateful to the several Past Grand Masters and other friends who have been so helpful.

To the fine group of people in this office I am most deeply indebted. When we were forced to reduce the size of our staff nearly a year ago those who are left accepted the new duties and the longer hours without complaint, and although it is hard for me to understand how they got the job done, this is exactly what they did, and I am most sincerely grateful. They are truly an outstanding group and I appreciate their loyalty and their support.

Respectfully submitted, CHARLES A. HARRIS Grand Secretary

FIRST SUPPLEMENT TO THE REPORT OF THE CODE COMMISSION

The following proposals to revise and amend THE CODE of 1948, as revised and amended in 1957, were received by the Code Commission after we had filed a report with our Grand Secretary on March 1, 1965, and they are in addition to the proposals offered in the printed report issued by the Code Commission on December 7, 1964, two copies of which were mailed to each lodge and one copy to each Grand Lodge Officer, Past Grand Master, District Deputy Grand Master and each member of the Grand Lodge as set out in SECTION 3-01 of THE CODE.

The proposals were received and referred to the Committee on Masonic Jurisprudence.

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

Mr. Charles B. Newcomb, P.G.M., Chairman

The Code Commission

P. O. Box 451

Wilmington, North Carolina

Dear Brother Newcomb:

With reference to your request that all suggestions for amendments or revision to the report of December 7, 1964 be filed with the Code Commission before March 15, 1965, we wish to offer the following:

SEC. 3-07 Amend this section to read as follows:

"The Grand Lodge shall not hereafter create honorary officers or members except as provided in Regulation 89-11."

REG. 47-07 (1) We wish to add a new subdivision to this regulation, reading as follows:

"If a lodge rejects the petition for the degrees of a profane on whom a waiver of jurisdiction had been granted by another lodge in this Grand Jurisdiction, the lodge which granted the waiver immediately regains jurisdiction; provided, that the petitioner has continued to reside within the jurisdiction of the lodge which granted the waiver. (47-10.)

REG. 60-05 Amend this regulation as follows:

"No lodge shall admit to membership any brother who is a member of another lodge in this Grand Jurisdiction, except as hereinafter provided, but may accept his application for affiliation accompanied by a Certificate of Good Standing, and enroll him as a member upon his election and as provided in regulation 83-22 (6). Provided, however, that a member of a lodge, in this Grand Jurisdiction, or a member of a lodge in another Grand Jurisdiction which does not forbid dual membership, may sign a petition for a dispensation to form a new lodge, and may become a member thereof at the time the said new lodge is instituted, without having to relinquish his membership in his mother lodge.

"A member of a lodge in another Grand Jurisdiction which does not forbid dual membership may affiliate with a lodge in North Carolina without having to relinquish his membership in his mother lodge.

"A member of a lodge in North Carolina may request a Certificate of Masonic Status for the purpose of transferring his membership to a lodge in another Grand Jurisdiction on a continuous membership basis, or for applying for dual membership in a lodge in another Grand Jurisdiction which does not forbid dual membership.

"The membership of a dual member in a North Carolina lodge shall not be affected by his demission from the other lodge, but if he is excluded, suspended, or expelled for cause by the other lodge or Grand Lodge, his membership in a lodge in North Carolina shall terminate immediately upon receipt of notice duly certified by the other lodge."

"Plural membership is prohibited."

- REG. 60-06 The last word in the last line of this regulation should be corrected. The word now shown is "charter," and it should be "character."
- REG. 61-02 (4) Amend subdivision (4) of this regulation to read:

  "Acting as Warden of a lodge under dispensation does not make a brother eligible to the office of Master in a chartered lodge, but a brother nominated in the charter of a lodge and regularly installed, who serves from the date of the charter to the annual communication of the lodge in December, and who has also served as Warden while the lodge was under dispensation, thereby becomes eligible to the office of Master."
- REG. 62-02 (1) Amend subdivision (1) of this regulation to read:
  "Provided, however, that a lodge in its by-laws may provide for the election of both Deacons and/or both Stewards, but not one only of each group; and in the absence of such by-law, the said officers shall be appointed."
- REG. 73-14 Amend this regulation to omit notices of elections, rejections, restorations, etc., and to read as follows:
  - "When there are two or more lodges in the same city or having concurrent jurisdiction, notice of all petitions for the degrees shall be furnished by the other lodge or lodges, in such city or concurrent jurisdiction, by the Secretary of the lodge petitioned within ten days after they are read in his lodge."
- REG. 74-02 This is the new regulation which was adopted at the Annual Communication in April, 1964, and which we now propose be amended to read as follows:

"If a petition for the degrees is presented to a lodge by a petitioner whose physical defects prevent him from conforming literally to the requirements of the three degrees of Ancient Craft Masonry with the use of any necessary artificial appliances and/or aids, the petition shall be forwarded within five days to the Grand Master, and if he approves the same, the lodge may then receive the petition."

REG. 77-02 We propose that the provision "in time of war," be eliminated from Item 2 of the Proposed Amendments on page 9.

We think we are being unfair to our service men by this provision.

REG. 81-08 This is the same as Regulation 77-02 except that it concerns Entered Apprentices and Fellow Crafts. Eliminate "in time of war" from this regulation.

REG. 83-01 Dual Membership. Duplicate proposed amendment to Reg. 60-05.

REG. 83-16 We feel that this regulation should be repealed in its entirety, and that the new Regulation 73-14 should be sufficient information to impart to other Secretaries in the concurrent jurisdiction.

REG. 84-01 Amend this regulation to include a Certificate of Masonic Status, as follows:

"To demit is to withdraw from a lodge."

(1) "No lodge in this state shall issue a provisional or conditional demit, but it may issue a Certificate of Good Standing on N. C. Official Form 9 to a member who wishes to transfer to another lodge in this state.

(2) "A member of a lodge in this state may request a Certificate of Masonic Status for transfer to a lodge in another state. The lodge Secretary shall notify the Grand Secretary of the request and shall furnish the name of the said member, the name, number and location of the lodge to which he wishes to transfer, and the date to which dues have been paid. The Grand Secretary will issue the certificate on N. C. Official Form GS 35-A and will notify the Secretary after the election in the other lodge."

(3) "Neither a Certificate of Good Standing, or a Certificate of Masonic Status, nor a demit shall be issued to an Honorary member, etc."

REG. 85-34 (3) This subdivision (3) should be amended to read:
"....but in no event shall an extension be given beyond the last stated communication in August in the year next following the date of the Official Notice of Delinquency."

REG. 87-01 We propose that this regulation be amended to read:

"A lodge may make a member a life member for outstanding and meritorious service to Masonry, and the lodge shall not be exempt from the payment of dues and assessments to the Grand Lodge on such life members. A lodge may also make a member a life member if he has qualified for either the 50-Year Award or the 60-Year Award, but the lodge shall be exempt from the payment of dues and assessments to the Grand Lodge on such life members."

REG. 88-01 Amend this regulation to read as follows:

"The Grand Lodge has heretofore established a medal or emblem to be known as the 'Joseph Montfort Medal' to be presented by the Grand Master to any Master Mason in good standing and recognized by this Grand Lodge, who in the opinion of the Grand Master is deserving thereof because of distinguished Masonic service or achievement. Not more than three Joseph Montfort Medals shall be presented in any one term of a Grand Master. The cost of the medal shall be borne by the Grand Lodge, and no duplicate shall be provided at the expense of the Grand Lodge."

REG. 89-11 Amend this regulation to read as follows:

"The Grand Master may confer the title of 'Honorary Past Grand Master' upon any Master Mason in good standing in a lodge in another Grand Jurisdiction recognized by this Grand Lodge, who in the opinion of the Grand Master is deserving thereof because of outstanding and meritorious service to Masonry. Not more than two certificates bearing this honorary title shall be presented in any one term of a Grand Master."

REG. 90-03 Amend this regulation to read as follows:

"All Masonic burials must be by the Grand Lodge or by a subordinate lodge. The Grand Lodge may perform the ceremonies for any deceased grand officer or past grand officer, or for any Master Mason upon approval by the Grand Master or the Grand Lodge. A subordinate lodge opened as a Master Masons' lodge, or as hereinafter provided, shall conduct all other funeral rites, and the ceremonies should be under the general direction of the Master; no dispensation is required."

(1) "The Master may, as soon after the installation as practicable, open a Lodge of Sorrow for the purpose of conducting Masonic Rites; and the said Lodge of Sorrow shall remain open during his term of office, Regulation 51-28 notwithstanding. When Masonic Rites have been requested, the brethren should assemble at the lodge, or at the place where the services are to be conducted, or at the place of interment; according to notice or call for the meeting. The Master shall state briefly the purpose of the meeting and shall declare the Lodge of Sorrow at Labor for that purpose. At the conclusion of the services the Master shall declare the Lodge of Sorrow at Recess."

"Minutes shall be kept by the Secretary of the lodge, and they shall be read in the same manner as the minutes of an emergent communication at the next stated communication for correction and approval."

It will be appreciated if you will prepare these suggestions for presentation to the Committee on Masonic Jurisprudence for their meeting on April 19, 1965.

Sincerely and fraternally yours, CHARLES A. HARRIS

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE OXFORD ORPHANAGE, INC. FOR THE YEAR 1964

(Docket No. 9)

The Board of Directors of Oxford Orphanage presented the following report, which was read by M. W. William J. Bundy, P.G.M., received, entered on the record, and referred to the Committee on Finance:

To the Grand Lodge of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons of North Carolina:

The Board of Directors of Oxford Orphanage herewith submits its report to the Grand Lodge of North Carolina, which includes a detailed report of the Superintendent and the Departments of the Orphanage.

The Board of Directors held its regular meetings throughout the year and harmoniously administered all the affairs of the Orphanage. The Executive Committee and the Local Advisory Board held their meetings and made full reports to the Board of Directors.

We express our supreme gratitude to the Masons of our jurisdiction for the love they manifest to our Orphanage. Through the combined efforts of the Orphanage Committees, officers and members, the lodges made the largest contribution in our history, and we were enabled to complete our year free from all debt. We rejoice that the analysis made by Duke Endowment Corporation again places our Orphanage first among the similar institutions of the Carolinas in economical operation. We highly praise our officers and staff for their efficiency in operating our beloved Orphanage.

Because of the generosity of our Masonic brethren, we were able to begin the erection of new cottages in our long range building program. We completed the first of twelve proposed cottages and named it in honor of our Superintendent, A. D. Leon Gray. We began construction of the second new cottage which will be a memorial to Brother R. L. Brown, who served as Superintendent from 1910 to 1928. We now face a most serious building crisis because of the structural difficulties of our Printing Department. It has become economically expedient to break into our cottage building program and erect a Vocational Building. This building will be erected when funds are available without incurring any debt. All the existing buildings are adequately covered by insurance.

During the year our Orphanage was filled to capacity. We closed the year with an enrollment of 318 children. These children came from fifty-five counties, of which only six percent are from Masonic parents and thirty percent have Masonic relationship.

Again we urge each Mason to visit Oxford Orphanage and share the joy in the glorious beauty of our family of children as they grow into productive citizenship.

We recommend that the Grand Lodge appropriate the same amount for the support of Oxford Orphanage for the year 1965.

Respectfully submitted,

G. DUDLEY HUMPHREY, Grand Master and Chairman

(NOTE: Appropriation approved and budgeted under Item 101. See report of Committee on Finance, Docket No. 46 on Page 171 of these Proceedings.)

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CHARITY

(Docket No. 10)

The Committee on Charity presented the following report which was entered on the record and referred to the Committee on Finance:

REPORT OF THE REPRESENTATIVE TO THE MASONIC SERVICE ASSOCIATION OF THE UNITED STATES

(Docket No. 11)

M.'.W.'.Robert L Pugh, P.G.M., Representative to the Masonic Service Association of the United States, presented the following report, which was read and entered on the record. The recommendation that the Grand Lodge continue its membership in the Masonic Service Association of the United States for the ensuing year was adopted unanimously, and the matter of finances referred to the Committee on Finance.

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

The Forty-sixth Annual Meeting of the Masonic Service Association of the United States met in the Diplomat Room of the Shoreham Hotel on February 25, 1965, at nine-thirty o'clock in Washington, D.C. The call to order was extended by Most Worshipful William P. Sturtz, P.G.M., who is the chairman of the Executive Commission. After the invocation by the Reverend Edward G. Latch, Grand Chaplain of the District of Columbia, the brethren were led in the singing of America by the Benjamin B. French No. 15 Quartet. The usual routine business was transacted, with the major feature of the meeting, as usual, being the report of the Executive Commission, which was presented by the Chairman of the Commission. Forty-two Grand Lodges were present for the meeting, representing the largest membership in its history.

The report included a statement of the distribution of the printed materials during the year. There were twelve SHORT TALK BULLETINS that had been published, making a total of 504 now in print. These bulletins deal with topics of especial Masonic interest and have been quite instrumental in providing program material for lodges. During the year the Association had also printed several DIGESTS of interest to Masons throughout the country.

Since the release of the first talking picture in 1956, the many prints of pictures now available through the Association have been in almost constant circulation. There are four of these inspirational addresses on film which require a 16mm. sound projector, and each one runs approximately thirty minutes. They have become a very popular source of program material in the constituent lodges of the member Grand Lodges, as well as elsewhere.

The second part of the report dealt with the inspiring program of hospital visitation. Our Masonic Hospital Visitors, both at head-quarters and in the field, have made an earnest effort to extend Masonic service to meet the increasing need of the Masonic patients in the Veterans Hospitals. Some of these Field Agents have provided services at personal sacrifices to themselves, because insufficient financial support for this great and good work requires drastic budgetary limitations on local activities. No significant expansion of the Hospital Visitation Program was made in 1964. A determined effort is being made to increase service to patients by enlisting the help of brethren and others who are willing to do voluntary work under the direction of a trained Field Agent. Over 2,000 volunteers now work under the banner of the Masonic Service Association in government hospitals. Many of these young people have been led to dedicate themselves to a life of service because of such voluntary hospital work.

Nevertheless, requests for Hospital Visitation Programs in V.A. hospitals and other areas have had to be turned down because of the lack of funds. Freemasonry service to hospitalized veterans is definitely wanted. This public relations program doesn't have to be "sold" or artificially stimulated. These requests have not come only from brother Masons, but also from hospital administrators and even from patients who, having met the Field Agents elsewhere, feel the need of the Hospital Masonic Visitor where they are at the moment. An answer to these requests can come only from increased support for the Hospital Visitation Program.

In North Carolina we have Hospital Visitation Programs implemented at Camp Lejeune, Fayetteville, Fort Bragg, Oteen, and a Voluntary Program at Salisbury. In all of these hospitals in North Carolina, approximately 12,000 bedside visits were made to new patients, and approximately 7,000 visits made to Masonic brethren who are patients in these hospitals.

It is recommended that the Grand Lodge of North Carolina continue its membership in the Masonic Service Association with a payment of dues which has been in the amount of approximately $1,550, and that we furthermore continue our participation in the Hospital Visitation Program, allocating the sum of $3,000 for this purpose in the budget for the coming year. Both of these items are the same amount that was provided in our budget for the preceding year.

Respectfully submitted, ROBERT L. PUGH, Representative

(NOTE: Appropriation approved and budgeted under Items 301 and 306. See Report of Committee on Finance, Docket No. 46, Page 171 of these Proceedings.)

THE REPORT OF THE REPRESENTATIVE TO THE GEORGE WASHINGTON MASONIC NATIONAL MEMORIAL

(Docket No. 12)

M. W. Robert L. Pugh, P.G.M., Representative to the George Washington Masonic National Memorial Association, presented the following report, which was adopted. The portion of the report having to do with finance was referred to the Committee on Finance.

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

The Fifty-fifth Annual Convention of the George Washington Masonic National Memorial Association was called to order in the Amphitheater of the beautiful Memorial at Alexandria, February 22, 1965, with the President, Most Worshipful Brother John H. Hessey, Past Grand Master of Maryland, presiding. After the customary welcome and response, the distinguished guests, who had come from almost all over the free world, were recognized.

The President then made his report on the financial condition of the Memorial and on the progress that had been made to increase the Endowment Fund by encouraging the adoption of the various member states of what has become known as the "Pennsylvania Plan."

The President reported that the Scottish Rite Bodies of both the Northern and Southern Jurisdictions had assumed the responsibility of dedicating the fourth floor of the Memorial to the Scottish Rite, and that this floor was to be equipped appropriate to the dedication. It was anticipated that a program for this purpose would be completed by February, 1966.

The President also reported that the family of George Washington, now represented by Miss Hattie and Miss Ann Washington, descendants of our distinguished First President, had contributed to the Memorial the family Bible. The President took some time to elaborate upon the importance of this gift and its value, stating that responsible authorities had placed a financial value of $25,000 on the Bible. The family also stated that other books and portraits belonging to the family of Washington would be contributed later.

North Carolina has been participating in this program, having adopted in 1961 the "Pennsylvania Plan." Under this plan, it was anticipated that each lodge in North Carolina would contribute one dollar for each of its members, and that at the conclusion of this campaign, the Grand Lodge itself would appropriate and would contribute ten dollars for each member lodge in North Carolina. The Grand Masters who have served in North Carolina during the intervening period have extended themselves in efforts to make this program a complete success, and their achievement has been nothing short of phenomenal. Nevertheless, it still lacks a few thousand dollars of completion. As of this writing, we fall short of the goal by about $7,000. This represents a tremendous effort on the part of a lot of people in this State.

It is reasonably sure that the goal can be achieved next year, and when the Association meets in Alexandria on February 22, 1966, it is fully expected that our Grand Master at that time will be able to present to the President of the Association a check representing North Carolina's full 100% contribution to the Memorial. That will be a great day in the history of Masonry in North Carolina.

Since the resolution under which our plan has been operating expires December 31, 1965, it is therefore necessary that an additional resolution be approved in order that the efforts might be extended for an additional year. For that purpose, therefore, the following resolution is presented:

WHEREAS, The Grand Lodge of North Carolina in 1961 gave its approval to participation in the "Pennsylvania Plan," under which the Grand Lodge was pledging its efforts to have each member lodge in North Carolina contribute one dollar for each of its members, and at the conclusion of which the Grand Lodge itself would allocate ten dollars for each member lodge in this State; and

WHEREAS, After four years of extended effort to achieve the goal, it now becomes apparent that total and complete success in the required period of time will not be possible; and

WHEREAS, There remains but a small amount of money to be raised to complete the desired goal, the amount approximating $7,000; therefore

BE IT RESOLVED, By the Grand Lodge of A.F. & A.M. of North Carolina in session in Raleigh on April 20, 1965:

First, That we hereby approve the extension of all provisions as stated in the original resolution for period of one year, thus allowing a total of five years for the completion of the project;

Second, That we pledge to the incoming Grand Master every effort to the end that the plan shall be completed successfully during the ensuing Masonic year.

A large number of lodges in this State have completed their 100% quota during the past year—so many, in fact, that the presentation of Certificates of Merit to each of them at this session would require too much time and would present quite a number of complications. To avoid this, then, the office of the Grand Secretary has mailed to each of the lodges achieving this goal a Certificate of Merit, and along with it a letter from the Grand Master congratulating them on the efforts they have expended. A letter has also been forwarded to the District Deputy Grand Master of each District that has achieved its goal.

It is expected that the names of the lodges and districts thus involved will be read to the Grand Lodge Wednesday morning.

Contributions at the present time total $58,714.38. We are fortunate indeed that the incoming Grand Master has already pledged himself to utilize his tremendous energies to the end that this program shall be brought to a successful conclusion. The four Grand Masters who have worked on this project have done a marvelous job in supporting the program during the years of their administration, and we look forward to the next year under the leadership of a new Grand Master, during whose administration we feel sincerely that this marvelous project will be completed in North Carolina.

Thus far we have presented many Certificates of Merit. We now confidently look forward to the time when each lodge will be in possession of its certificate.

Until such time as the "Pennsylvania Plan" has been completed in North Carolina, we recommend the allocation of the usual amount to the Memorial Association.

Respectfully submitted,
ROBERT L. PUGH, Representative

(NOTE: See Docket No. 43 on Pages 165-166 for the listing of the lodges that have participated 100% during the year 1964-65 in our George Washington Memorial Fund.)

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF MASONIC AND EASTERN STAR HOME OF NORTH CAROLINA, INC.

(Docket No. 13)

The report of the Board of Directors of the Masonic and Eastern Star Home of North Carolina, Incorporated, was read by M. W. Brother Charles A. Harris, P.G.M., Grand Secretary, entered on the record and unanimously adopted:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

A Chinese Philosopher once said: "Anyone can give bread but a welcome can only come from the lips of friendship." In the true sense of the word, the Masons and Eastern Stars of North Carolina have given a warm welcome to five hundred and ninety-seven Guests to our Home in Greensboro. For half a century your Home has been a haven to those in need even as a lighthouse has been a relief to the mariners of the sea.

Another year of service is ended. We have done well but we might have done better. At this writing, we have thirty-four approved applicants on our waiting list. These deserving people cannot come in until equally as many have changed their address. At the close of the year, we had one hundred and ten Guests in the Home but our average enrollment for the year was one hundred and three Guests. During the year we admitted twenty-two new Guests and lost thirteen, twelve by death and one person voluntarily withdrew from the Home. Your Board of Directors authorized the increased enrollment from one hundred to one hundred and ten at its October meeting.

Our total operating expense for the year was $181,307.49 and our per capita cost was $1,755.15 or $4.80 per day. Receipts from the Lodges in our Jurisdiction for the year exceeded that of any previous year. In fact, the $123,314.02 received during 1964 is more than double the amount received from the same source during 1958. After paying all operating expense, our total assets increased $16,000.00 over 1963.

A ten-year expansion plan has been approved by your Board of Directors. The first phase of this program was begun in the fall when contracts were let for the construction of a new heating plant. The second phase of our expansion program calls for the construction of a new kitchen and dining room with a basement laundry room. Work will begin on this project in April, 1965.

Following is a report on our operating income and disbursements for 1964:

OPERATING INCOME

The state of the s
Grand Lodge, Subordinate Lodges and Masonic Sources Grand Chapter of North Carolina, O.E.S Guests in the Home All Other Income	55,004.82
Due from Grand Chapter	$213,867.39 12,110.76
DISBURSEMENTS	$225,978.15
DISBURSEMENTS
Administrative and General Expense	125,754.16 22,863.99 2,030.00
	225,978.15

The York Rite Masons have increased their annual gift to our Carson York Rite Fund for which we are greatful. Books, magazines and newspapers from over the State are furnished for the enjoyment of our Guests from this source of income.

More and more of our friends are contributing to the Sunshine Fund from which we are able to provide those little extras such as downtown transportation, party refreshments and special outside activities.

Without exception, each member of your Board of Directors considers it a pleasure indeed to serve in such a position and recognizes the privilege of serving as one of inestimable value. We commend the members of our Grand Lodge Jurisdiction and our Grand Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star for everything they have done to make 1964 our very best year at our Home.

Fraternally yours, RORERT N. BASS, JR., President

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE MASONIC AND EASTERN STAR HOME OF NORTH CAROLINA, INC.

(Docket No. 15)

The following report of the Committee on the Masonic and Eastern Star Home of North Carolina, Incorporated, was received, entered on the record, and referred to the Special Committee on Publications, the Committee on Finance and the Board of General Purposes:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

In company with Brother Julian W. Helms and Brother Coy Jackson Huff, I made an official visit to the Masonic and Eastern Star Home on Tuesday, February 9, 1965. The other two members of the committee on Masonic and Eastern Star Home, Brothers Charles Bradley Willis and Neil W. Freeman, were unavoidably prohibited from meeting with the committee.

We were met by Brother Troy G. Robbins, Superintendent of the Home, and were conducted on a tour of inspection of the buildings and grounds. On the basis of your committee's visit, and inspection, we make the following report and recommendation:

The Superintendent of the Home, in particular, and all of the members of his staff are to be highly commended for the very outstanding job that they have been, and are now doing.

Work is now in progress and it is hoped that it will be finished by Christmas 1965. This includes a new heating plant, laundry, kitchen, and dining room, which is badly needed to replace antiquated and inadequate facilities.

It is also hoped that the new three story dormitory will soon be a reality, at which time the Home will be able to care for 150 guests, and is estimated to cost approximately $375,000.00. As there are now 111 guests at the Home, there are NO vacant rooms at present, with 34 persons on the waiting list at present, (with an average waiting period of 1½ years.)

The Home has 2 registered nurses, 15 nurses aides, with an average enrollment in the infirmary of 29. Your committee feels that this speaks well for the care and attention, and home-like atmosphere that prevails at the Home, taking in consideration that the average age of the Guests is 83 years of age, with the oldest being 98; together with the amazing fact that the cost per day per guest is only $4.80, which incidentally is no higher than it was 15 years ago.

The cemetery is in the process of being doubled in size, this being a direct result that more of the deceased guests are being buried at the Home than formerly.

There are religious services in the chapel every Sunday morning and afternoon for the guests' spiritual needs, and in addition, Brother Robbins is available at all times. We also were impressed with the fact that hearing aids have been installed in the pews for the benefit of those whose hearing is impaired.

Your committee (along with many others) feels that special emphasis should be put into effect as soon as possible with the view in mind of increasing the amount of donations for the Home (but certainly not at the expense of any funds being diverted from Oxford Orphanage) and your committee respectfully requests that the Grand Lodge consider the advisability of putting into effect the following suggestions:

- 1. That the Grand Lodge adopt an official publication with an attractive format and that this publication be sent to every Mason who is a member of a subordinate Lodge in N. C.
- 2. Consider the advisability of the Grand Lodge increasing the Grand Lodge per-capita tax to $3.00 instead of (for a long period of time) $2.50 to offset the cost of the suggested publication.

3. Inject competitive spirit among Blue Lodges and Masonic Districts. Records prove that this has more than doubled the amount of donations where put into effect.

Your committee feels that this is an important, and much needed means of reaching and acquainting Masons with the facts and needs of our institutions, and stimulating interest of our members who rarely attend lodge meetings.

The main asset of the Home is its home-like atmosphere, and no greater pleasure or satisfaction can be desired than to realize that we, as Masons, have had a part in providing for the comfort and security of those of our number who are in their declining years.

EVENING

As we grow older, and the shadows begin to lengthen, and the leaves which seem so thick in youth above our heads grow thin and show the sky beyond, as those in the ranks in front drop away and we come in sight, as we all must, of the eternal rifle pits beyond, a man begins to feel that among the really important and precious things of life, more lasting and more substantial than many of the objects of ambition here, is the love of those (he loves) and the friendship of those whose friendship he prizes.

Remembering that the TRUE MASON must be, and he must have a right to be, content with himself, and he can be so only when he lives, not for himself alone, but for those who need his assistance and have a claim upon his sympathy.

Respectfully submitted,
JAMES I, REYNOLDS, Chairman

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MASONIC CEREMONIES AND MISCELLANEOUS PUBLICATIONS

(Docket No. 17)

The following report of the Committee on Masonic Ceremonies and Miscellaneous Publications was read, entered on the record and referred to the Committee on Finance:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

Your Committee on Masonic Ceremonies and Miscellaneous Publications reports that no matters requiring its attention and consideration have been laid before them. As the activities and needs of this committee are correlated to the actions of other committees and the Grand Lodge, it is possible that a financial need may occur ofter the Grand Lodge is closed.

We, therefore, request that the usual sum of $400.00 be appropriated and budgeted for the use of this committee as its needs may require.

Respectfully submitted, Norwood P. Parker, P.M., C.L., Chairman

(NOTE: Appropriation approved and budgeted under Item 605. See Report of Committee on Finance on Page 172, Docket No. 46 of these Proceedings.)

SPECIAL REPORT OF THE BOARD OF GENERAL PURPOSES

(Docket No. 18)

The following special report of the Board of General Purposes was read by M.'.W.'.Brother William J. Bundy, P.G.M., entered on the record, adopted by sections as to policy, then adopted as a whole and referred to the Committee on Fraternal Correspondence, The Committee on Masonic Jurisprudence and the Committee on Finance:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

We recommend that this Grand Lodge extend fraternal recognition to the Grand Lodge of Luxembourg.

We recommend that this Grand Lodge approve the adoption of a Twenty-Five Year Lapel Button to be presented hereafter to all members who become eligible therefor.

We recommend that the annual salary of the Grand Secretary be increased to the sum of twelve thousand dollars ($12,000.00).

(NOTE: The recommendation pertaining to Luxembourg was adopted. See Report of the Committee on Fraternal Correspondence on Page 97, Docket No. 19 of these Proceedings.)

(NOTE: The recommendation pertaining to the Twenty-Five Year Lapel Button was adopted. See report of the Committee on Masonic Jurisprudence on Page 155, Docket No. 41 of these Proceedings.)

(NOTE: The recommendation pertaining to the salary of the Grand Secretary was adopted. See report of the Committee on Finance on Page 171, Docket No. 46, Item No. 201 of these Proceedings.)

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FRATERNAL CORRESPONDENCE

(Docket No. 19)

The following report of the Committee on Fraternal Correspondence was received, entered on the record, adopted by sections and then adopted as a whole:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

We herewith submit our fourth annual report as Fraternal Correspondent of this Grand Jurisdiction.

We have received a larger number of letters, explanations and inquiries during the last year than at any like period since our first report.

A severe attack of Influenza prevented your Correspondent from attending the Grand Masters Conference in Washington in February, and consequently prevented us from attending or discussing Foreign Affairs with "The Commission on Information and Recognition" with those more familiar with the Status on Foreign Grand Jurisdictions.

However, our very efficient and ever alert Grand Secretary did consult Dr. Thomas S. Roy, Secretary of the Commission, and much of this report is the result of his efforts at that time.

Before proceeding further with this report, we wish to inform the Craft in North Carolina that our beloved Deputy Grand Master, Brother Samuel A. Hennis, who will be Grand Master of Masons in North Carolina after Wednesday evening, was elected a member of the Commission on Information of the Conference of Grand Masters of Masons in North America, for a term ending in 1971. It is needless to say that the Grand Lodge of North Carolina is proud of this recognition of this distinguished Mason, and because of this of the recognition of our Grand Lodge.

LUXEMBOURG

We have received a request for the recognition of the Grand Lodge of Luxembourg. After thorough investigation and inquiry regarding the forms, ceremonies and beliefs of this group, and upon the suggestion of our Grand Secretary, Brother Charles A. Harris, and on the advice of Dr. Roy, Secretary of the Commission, and being reliably informed that they meet all the requirements we demand of them, I recommend the recognition of Luxembourg as a Sovereign Masonic Body, and that we extend to them full formal fraternal recognition, and recommend the exchange of Representatives.

CUBA

Two years ago we recommended that the recognition of the Grand Lodge of Cuba in Cuba; and the recognition of the Grand Lodge of Cuba in Exile in the State of Florida, and the visitation of its members in the Grand Lodge of North Carolina, be referred to the incoming Grand Master for his action. This was adopted. Last year, Grand Master Burrier issued an Edict covering this entire situation. His Edict provided:

First, That the recognition of the Grand Lodge of Cuba (in Cuba) by the Grand Lodge of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons of North Carolina be, and the same hereby is, withdrawn until further notice; and Second, That until further notice no Lodge in this Grand Jurisdiction of North Carolina, Ancient, Free, and Accepted Masons, nor any of its Masters, Wardens, and brethren recognize and admit, or permit, visitations into such lodge by a brother claiming membership through a lodge of Cuba, except and unless such brother present a CERTIFICATE FOR VISITATION approving such brother, issued by the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons of North Carolina, bearing the Great Seal of the Grand Lodge of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons of North Carolina, and the signature of the Grand Secretary thereof, as well as bearing the Great Seal of the Grand Lodge of Cuba in Exile in Florida, and the signature of Dr. Juan Jose Tarajano, the last duly-elected Grand Master of Masons of Cuba.

There are certain other conditions included in this Edict that must be met before a certificate for visitation can be issued.

The co-operation of Dr. Tarajano has not been entirely satisfacory. It has been difficult to receive any answer to correspondence sent to him, and at the most it is usually indefinite.

Under these conditions we recommend that the relations between the Grand Lodge of Cuba in Cuba, and the Grand Lodge of North Carolina, and the conditions imposed by the Edict of The Grand Master in regard to the relations between the Grand Lodge of Cuba in exile in Florida and the Grand Lodge of North Carolina remain as they are at present.

FRANCE

The Masonic situation in France has worsened during the year. Considering all the facts, it would seem that the National Grand Lodge of France continues to be the only duly constituted, regular Freemasonry now working in France.

Respectfully submitted,

CHARLES H. PUGH, Foreign Correspondent and Grand Reviewer

(Docket No. 25)

M.'.W.'.Brother G. Dudley Humphrey, Grand Master of Masons in North Carolina, delivered the following report, which was referred to the Board of General Purposes.

(SEE Page 132, Docket No. 26, of these Proceedings for the distribution of the report.):

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

Brethren:

Again we have returned to Raleigh, our Capital City, for the Annual Communication of The Grand Lodge of North Carolina. On behalf of the Grand Lodge I wish to express our sincere appreciation to the Grand Secretary, his assistant, and to the many Raleigh brethren who have served on committees, for the very capable manner in which they have planned for this Communication.

I welcome you to our One Hundred Seventy-Eighth Annual Communication. We are honored to have with us distinguished guests from other Grand Jurisdictions. To them we extend a hearty welcome and express the hope that their visit with us will be pleasant and profitable, and that they will carry back to their respective jurisdictions the brotherly love and friendship of the Masons of North Carolina.

Pursuant to the provisions of The Code I now present to you a report setting forth all of my acts as Grand Master and the general condition of Masonry within this jurisdiction and will recommend such legislation and action as I may deem necessary.

UNOFFICIAL OPINIONS

Unofficial Opinion No. 1

A Brother of our Advance Lodge No. 710 asked to be advised: "If Advance Lodge No. 710 can support a unit (team) of the Davie County Pony baseball league, a league for boys age 13 to 15 years old, by contributing an amount of money which would not be too large, for the purchase of baseball equipment, including uniforms, gloves, bats and balls.

"Or, if the above is prohibited; may we purchase the baseball equipment and lend the equipment to the boys for the season, the equipment to remain the property of the lodge and be returned to the lodge at the end of the season."

The Brother also stated that he believed that a project of this nature would stimulate interest among the Brethren and certainly would not harm the prestige of the lodge in the community. He also believed that by contributing at a level where the foundation for good citizens is being formed that we would be contributing to the improvements of mankind.

The answer to the first question posed was decided by the Grand Lodge at its Annual Communication in 1949 and may be found on Page 53 of the Proceedings of that Communication. It was held that it would be inappropriate to consider horse racing, dog racing, baseball, or any of the multitude of sports as being proper Masonic activities for our Lodges.

The answer to the second question may be found in the Proceedings of 1953, at Page 64, where the Grand Lodge approved the opinion of Grand Master White that:

"The purchase of uniforms for a school band is not a proper Masonic objective, it is no part of Masonic work, it is not a necessity, nor is it charity, relief of poverty, or distress, illness or human need, nor is it a necessary or essential element in education that could justify its approval as a Masonic objective or purpose. I think it would be just as reasonable to consider uniforms for football teams, basketball teams, junior traffic squads, or for other similar organizations as being in the same class."

I, therefore, advised the Brother that Advance Lodge No. 710 has no right or authority to spend any of the Lodge Funds for the purposes outlined in his letter.

Unofficial Opinion No. 2

On November 6, 1964, the Secretary of Yadkin Falls Lodge No. 637 wrote our Grand Secretary as follows:

"Regulation 59-05, Page 135, of the Grand Lodge Code provides that '....; no visitor shall be admitted whose dues are not paid or remitted to within one year of such date except in the discretion of the Master as provided in Regulation 59-06.' It would appear that occasions might arise in which there would be some conflict between this and Regulation 85-34, that is, a member might have been excluded for non-payment of dues in his own lodge at the first stated communication in November, but, holding a valid dues card for the previous year, he might innocently be admitted as a visitor to another lodge through December 31 of that year. True, he would not be in good standing and should not be admitted according to Regulation 58-10 but this throws the burden of proof other than a paid-up dues card on the lodge being visited. Is there not a sort of anomaly here?"

The Grand Secretary forwarded the Brother's letter to me for my attention and I advised him as follows:

"The question you ask is a hypothetical question and as far as I know does not involve the right of any particular individual to visit your Lodge and, therefore, your question cannot have an official answer.

"It may appear that there is a conflict or an ambiguity concerning Regulations 59-06 and 85-34, but we must always bear in mind that The Code is not intended to spell out in detail everything required of a Master of a Lodge, for if this were true it would be so voluminous that the Craft might well be afraid of it.

"One must always remember that the final responsibility for admitting a visitor to the Lodge rests upon the Master of the Lodge and, of course, he would be entitled to rely upon the past years dues card and the Tyler's Oath, and if the visitor perjures himself under the Tyler's Oath he is subject to expulsion for un-Masonic conduct.

"Another reason why the dues card cannot be solely relied upon is that a visitor may have a current dues card and yet may have been suspended or expelled subsequent to the time the dues card was issued."

I advised the Brother that if he or any of the members of his Lodge felt that The Code should be amended in this respect, they should prepare the proposed amendments to The Code and submit it to The Code Commission for its consideration immediately.

OFFICIAL OPINIONS

Note: All Official Opinions approved except Nos. 5, 8, and 14 which were neither approved nor disapproved by Grand Lodge because no official opinion as to physical disability is required. SEE Report of Committee on Masonic Jurisprudence on Page 154, Docket No. 41 of these Proceedings.

Opinion No. 1

On October 17, 1963, Worth Caldwell Sherrill was regularly dimitted from NOR-. I Lodge No. 253 of Miami, Florida, and the said demit, having the seel and duly certified by the Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of the State of Florida, was read in our Blue Ridge Lodge No. 435 on December 6, 1963. Without complying in any respects with the provisions of Regulation 83-09 and witnout following The Code, Blue Ridge Lodge proceeded to elect Brother Sherrill to membership at its Stated Communication held January 17, 1964, and so reported to our Grand Secretary under its usual "Report Of Doings." Our Grand Secretary questioned the action of the Lodge, and on April 20, 1964, received an application for affiliation made by Brother Sherrill to Blue Ridge Lodge No. 435, which had been read in the Lodge on April 18, 1964, although the Stated Communication of the Lodge was or should have been held on April 17, 1964. The Grand Secretary has requested a decision in the matter.

Inasmuch as Brother Worth Caldwell Sherrill on January 17, 1964, had not filed a written application on the prescribed form and filed the same with Blue Ridge Lodge No. 435, nor had he given the name, number, and location of the Lodge of which he was last a member, nor had he given the name, number, and location of each Lodge of which he has ever been a member, beginning with the one in which he received the degrees, showing as nearly as possible the years of such membership in said Lodge, nor had he given the date and place of his birth, nor stated his occupations specifically, nor stated his place and residence by name and number of street and city or town, nor stated the place of his business by number and name of street or building, and city or town, nor given the name, number and location of a Lodge which may have rejected his application for membership with the date of such rejection; and furthermore, inasmuch as said application for affiliation did not show the names of two members of Blue Ridge Lodge who recommended him for membership therein, and inasmuch as no committee of investigation had been appointed for report on the application for affiliation of the said Brother Sherrill, and inasmuch as the application for affiliation had not been forwarded to the Grand Secretary as described by The Code, I declared that the purported election of Brother Sherrill to membership in Blue Ridge Lodge No. 435 on January 17, 1964 was in violation of the expressed provisions of Chapter 83 of The Code, and that said election was null and void.

I further ordered that when it had been made to appear that the said application had been regularly received by Blue Ridge Lodge No. 435 at a Stated Communication, the said Lodge was authorized and empowered to process the application in accordance with our law in the same manner and extent as if the action taken by said Lodge in December of 1963 and January of 1964 had not occurred.

For the gross negligence of the Master and Secretary of Blue Ridge Lodge No. 435 in failing to observe and comply with the clear cut provisions of our Code pertaining to applications for affiliation, I severely reprimanded each of them for their misconduct.

Opinion No. 2

The Petition of Mr. Albert Theodore Anderson, Jr., dated March 1, 1964 was read in our Cary Lodge No. 198, on March 2, 1964. The Petitioner was elected to receive the degrees on April 6, 1964, and on April 11, 1964, was initiated an Entered Apprentice. The Petition was not forwarded to the Grand Secretary's Office until May 4, 1964. The Report Of Doings of Cary Lodge No. 198 on Official Form 49 for April 6, 1964, showed the election of Brother Anderson and said report for April 20, 1964, showed his initiation. The filing of these reports revealed the irregularity of Brother Anderson's initiation.

Since the Brother was not responsible for this irregularity, and since he has received the degree of Entered Apprentice, he is not at fault and the degree cannot be taken from him. I, therefore, ordered that the Petition forwarded to the Grand Secretary's Office on May 4, 1964, if otherwise found to be in order, be certified by the Grand Secretary and returned to Cary Lodge No. 198, after making notation on his certificate to explain the delay in making the return.

I also ruled that the status of this Brother is in all respects that of a regularly initiated Entered Apprentice of Cary Lodge No. 198 and that it was not necessary to heal him.

Regulations 73-12; 73-13; and 76-01 of The Code are designed as a safeguard and protection of the Craft and have been in the present Code since its adoption in 1948.

For the gross negligence of the Master and Secretary in failing to comply with these provisions of The Code, I severely reprimanded them.

Opinion No. 3

On April 30, 1964, Saint Andrew Lodge No. 702, addressed a lecter to the Grand Secretary reading in part as follows:

".. We are desirious of having a benefit fish fry for the purpose of raising money for Oxford Orphanage, but are not certain as to whether means of this kind are permissible or not,"

and asked for my opinion in this matter.

The raising of money for Oxford Orphanage has always been considered a laudable purpose and numerous types of benefits have been had in the past, and I believe that they included fish fries.

I advised the Lodge that I could see no reason why it could not participate in a fish fry for the benefit of Oxford Orphanage. However, I called its attention to the fact that food would be served and warned them that in the event any tainted food is served that the Lodge would probably be responsible in damages for any person so damaged, and that the Lodge would certainly want to be amply protected by insurance before entering upon any such benefit fish fry.

Opinion No. 4

On March 16, 1964, the Master of our Lodge No. 344 requested the Reference Committee of said Lodge to investigate "On the continued worthiness of Brother B to receive the degrees in Masonry", and that on April 8, 1964, the said Committee reported that "it is the opinion of this Committee that Brother B should not be permitted to receive any further coaching or any other Degrees in Masonry." The Reference Committee also recommended that Brother B be disqualified under the provisions of Regulation 79-07 of The Code until such time as he may again prove himself worthy, and also recommended that under the circumstances the fee for the degrees be returned to Brother B. The Reference Committee also recommended that "If and when Brother B is again qualified, and an application for advancement is approved by the Lodge, the fee would then become due and payable before any degree could be conferred."

The Grand Secretary requested me to advise him in this matter. The information contained in the Report of the Reference Committee and the letter of the Secretary was not sufficient for me to determine the unworthiness of Brother B and the question arose as to whether his unworthiness was caused by a mental condition or bad morals. I ruled that if Brother B's unworthiness is of a mental nature, that is, if he is non compos mentis, then Regulation 79-07; 58-05, and 99-05 apply and for the Lodge to govern itself accordingly. I also ruled that if Brother B's unworthiness is of a moral nature, then charges of un-Masonic conduct should be preferred against him and the matter settled.

I also ruled that since Brother B received the Entered Apprentice Degree, the Lodge had earned the fees and he has no legal right to the same. However, if the reason for his not obtaining the Master Mason's Degree is because he is non compos mentis, the Lodge may, if it so desired, return the fees to him.

Opinion No. 5

Mr. E. M. B., Jr., filed a Petition dated May 11, 1964, with our Horse Creek Lodge No. 719, which said Petition showed that the Petitioner had a physical disability, to-wit: "That he had a nub back of the place where the knuckle on the first finger of his right hand use to be." This Petition was sent to me for my approval as authorized by the action of the Grand Lodge in April of 1964 when they repealed certain parts of Chapter 74.

The Grand Lodge on April 22, 1964 repealed Regulations 74-01 (10), 74-02, 74-03 and 74-04, and adopted a new Regulation No. 74-02, which reads as follows:

"If a petition for the degrees is presented to a lodge by a petitioner, who is physically defective for any reason, the petition shall be forwarded within five days to the Grand Master, and if he approves the same, the Lodge may then receive the petition."

It also appears from the records in the Office of the Grand Secretary that the petitioner had made a previous petition which had been disapproved by a former Grand Master, and I was being asked to permit something to be done that my predecessor in office refused to do. This I was unwilling to do unless the laws of the Grand Lodge had been changed in such manner as to authorize it and this brought me to a consideration of the effect of the above action taken by the Grand Lodge. I was of the opinion that Regulations 74-01 (10) and 74-04 were either explanatory of, or a Modification of the Constitutions, Ancient Usages and Established Customs of the Fraternity and that when the same were repealed the law reverted to what it was prior to their enactment, which in effect makes the Doctrine of the Perfect Youth the present law of this Grand Jurisdiction.

The Grand Lodge in April of 1964 did not enact any law repealing the Doctrine of the Perfect Youth, and I could only interpret the law as I considered it to be.

I therefore refused to approve the reception of the petition.

Opinion No. 6

Mr. A. J. Q. filed his Petition for the Degrees of Masonry with our State Line Lodge No. 375, on April 13, 1964, and said Petition was read in the Lodge at its Stated Communication held on April 14, 1964. Mr. Q. was elected to receive the Degrees at the Stated Communication held on May 12, 1964. The Secretary failed to send the Petition to the Grand Secretary until after the Petitioner had been elected to receive the Degrees. Mr. Q. has not yet been initiated.

Regulation 73-13 provides that "No lodge shall ballot on any petition for the degrees until the reports of the Grand Secretary and the Committee of Investigation thereon have been received by it." Therefore the said election was void and of no effect.

I ordered that a reballot be had on said petition after it had been certified by the Grand Secretary as required by law.

I further reprimanded the Master and Secretary of State Line Lodge No. 375 for their failure to comply with the express provisions of Regulation 73-13.

Opinion No. 7

Brother Kimball Winburn Johnson, a member of our Walnut Cove Lodge No. 629, was excluded for non-payment of his 1961 dues on December 5, 1961.

Brother Johnson paid his 1961 dues in November, 1962, and paid his 1962 dues on November 6, 1962, and received from Wm. F. Marshall, Jr., Secretary of Walnut Cove Lodge No. 629, official dues card No. 112.

The records of Walnut Cove Lodge show that the lodge has received all dues from Brother Johnson for the years 1961, 1962, 1963 and 1964, but the membership roll of said lodge has not carried Brother Johnson's name for the years ending December 31, 1961, 1962 or 1963.

The Grand Secretary asked for my opinion in this matter, and I ruled as follows:

"When Brother Johnson paid his 1961 and 1962 dues in November 1962, he was automatically restored to membership as of the date of payment (Reg. 86-01) and the failure of the Secretary to note this fact on the record and on the minutes of the next stated communication does not affect the rights of the brother.

"Let the records of the office of the Grand Secretary and those of Walnut Cove Lodge No. 629 be made to conform to this opinion. The Grand Secretary will issue such directives as may be necessary to carry out this opinion and to settle any financial matters involved."

Opinion No 8

On July 16, 1964, the Secretary of our State Line Lodge No. 375 forwarded to the Grand Secretary the Petition of Mr. C. F. H., III, for the Degrees in Masonry. The Petition revealed that Mr. H. had a physical disability to-wit: "Polio: I am confined to a wheelchair and do not have any use of my legs and limited use of my left arm. I have full use of my right arm." The Secretary of State Line Lodge also stated that "By using his portable lifts I feel sure he can be put in any position that he should be in the Lodge. He can also stand with his braces, but he can not walk."

I ruled that under the Constitutions, Ancient Usages, Established Customs, and the law of this Grand Lodge now in effect, Mr. H. was not physically qualified to receive the degrees in Masonry, and therefore ordered that his petition be returned to him.

Opinion No. 9

On July 16, 1964, our Revolution Lodge No. 552 elected Mr. George Terry Stewart to receive the degrees in Masonry and at the same stated communication conferred the first degree on him in violation of Regulation 79-30 (2).

This was a serious violation of Regulation 79-02 which states in part: "Should any subordinate lodge confer any of the degrees, out of time . . . it would be highly irregular and would constitute a serious Masonic Offense."

It appeared to me that this irregularity was due to ignorance of The Code and was not premeditated. It also appeared that the candidate was not in any manner responsible for this irregularity.

I, therefore, ordered that:

1. Revolution Lodge No. 552 heal Entered Apprentice George Terry Stewart at the first stated communication after the receipt of this order as provided in Regulation 94-05, and that it should be sufficient, only to re-obligate the candidate in the First Degree, which must be done in a Lodge on the First Degree; and I also ruled that after the healing, the candidate may be advanced when prepared as required in Regulation 80-01.

2. I severely reprimanded the Officers of Revolution Lodge No. 552 for their misconduct in this matter.

Opinion No. 10

The Secretary of our Lodge No. 262 advised that "He had called the attention of the newspaper in Lenoir, whose publisher is a member of the Fraternity, to the fact that Regulations 97-02 (44 and 45) of The Code forbid the publishing of the information that a candidate for political office is a Mason," and asked that I advise the Brother concerning the same.

The Regulations mentioned above prohibit a brother from using Masonry in any connection for secular business or political purposes, but my predecessors have held that when someone who is not a Mason sponsors an advertisement for a political candidate and states that the candidate is a Mason, then such fact does not constitute a violation of the above mentioned Regulations—especially when the candidate, who is a Mason, has not had anything to do with the advertisement, and I so advised the Brother.

Opinion No. 11

The Grand Secretary asked my opinion as to what he should do when people connected with the DeMolay, Eastern Star, etc., ask for a directory of the subordinate lodges with the names and addresses of the Master and the Secretary, and I advised him as follows:

"Regulation 49-03 (7) states that 'No lodge shall permit the use of its roster of membership or any part thereof for business or political purposes, nor for any solicitation whatever that is not strictly Masonic.' The sale of any book purporting to be Masonic or to relate to Masonry, which has not been expressly approved by the Grand Lodge, is not such a purpose.

"I believe that one of the purposes of the above Regulation is to prevent the officers and members from having their zeal for the institution 'watered down' by activities which, however commendable they may be, are not strictly Masonic.

"DeMolay and The Order of Eastern Star are fine institutions, but they are not, never have been, and by their nature never can be classed as being Masonic.

"No part of our Constitution covers the question raised by you, but, I am of the opinion, and so rule, that what the Grand Lodge has prescribed for its subordinate lodges as a policy to be followed should be adhered to by the Grand Lodge itself, especially in the absence of any authorization or pronouncement to the contrary.

"You have no right to furnish the DeMolay or the Eastern Star, or any other non-Masonic entity with the roster of any lodge's membership, or any part thereof, nor with the directory of subordinate lodges in North Carolina prepared for your office."

Opinion No. 12

Brother George Miller Tomlins received the Entered Apprentice degree in our Phalanx Lodge No. 31 on May 12, 1953 and before he could be advanced, illness in his family forced him to move back to Pennsylvania in August, 1953.

The Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania inquired of our Grand Secretary if our Grand Lodge would object to Brother Tomlins' presenting a petition to a Pennsylvania Lodge for all three degrees.

Our Grand Secretary advised the Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania that by conferring the degree of Entered Apprentice upon Brother Tomlins, Phalanx Lodge No. 31 had acquired exclusive jurisdiction to advance him and retains it for all time (Reg. 47-13).

Our Grand Secretary forwarded me copies of the correspondence in the matter and requested my advice thereon.

I advised our Grand Secretary that he had correctly advised the Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, and that under our law Phalanx Lodge has and will retain jurisdiction over their Entered Apprentice George Miller Tomlins until he dies or until such time as he may be Passed and Raised after which he may affiliate with any Lodge desiring to take him.

I would like to advise the Craft, however, that our Grand Secretary, in his communication with the Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, advised him that "It appears to us that since your lodge is in McKeesport and is located not very far away from both West Virginia and Ohio lodges, that Brother Tomlins could find someone in his home town to teach him the catechism, which is permissible as far as we are concerned, and then take the remaining degrees in a lodge in one of those nearby towns of his own choice. We will be very glad to go along with him in requesting someone to do the coaching and some lodge to confer the degrees, if you will so advise us. We wish our law permitted doing otherwise, as you have suggested, and we are sorry not to be able to oblige."

Opinion No. 13

On April 27, 1964, the Marshville, North Carolina branch of the Piedmont Area Development Association asked for the wholehearted co-operation and assistance in the entire program of the said Development Association from Beaver Dam Lodge No. 276 at Marshville, North Carolina. It appears that the Piedmont Area Development Association is sponsored by various business enterprises throughout a sixteen-county area, comprising five border counties in South Carolina, end eleven Piedmont counties surrounding a center located in Charlotte, N. C. The Master of Beaver Dam Lodge No. 276 forwarded the request to the Grand Secretary, who forwarded it to me for my opinion thereon.

There are four propositions outlined in the proposed cooperative agreement and plan of operation of the Piedmont Development Association, and I will consider them separately:

I. The Executive Committee of the Marshville PADA requests that each local Civic Organization appoint a Contact Person to serve upon the Central Executive Committee, whose duty it will be to attend each meeting of the Executive Committee and to act as both the contact person and the prime mover in their respective organizations for the objectives and the projects of the Association.

The Grand Lodge of North Carolina has never deemed a subordinate lodge a civic organization, and it has frowned upon cooperative undertakings even between Lodges and organizations, the membership of which is supposed to be composed only of Masons, and under the proposed plan the representative of a Masonic Lodge would be serving as a member of an Executive Committee and, therefore, the same will not be permitted.

II. The Executive Committee of the Piedmont Area Development Association requests the various civic clubs to have a vital part in the programs of the PADA in Marshville by making an initial contribution of $10.00 from the Club Treasury.

Although the aims and objectivies of the PADA may be laudable, they are not for a Masonic purpose, and, therefore, no Lodge funds can be used for such a program.

III. It appears that PADA intends "To notify the various clubs and business establishments of Marshville that the project is a two-fold one, beautification of the City proper by cleaning up, removing unsightly objects, cutting the grass and planting suitable plants on vacant lots and plots in and around the city, and the urging of all home owners and business establishments, where feasible, to consider the planting of shrubs and flowers to beautify their premises."

This seems to be praise worthy and may be all right for civic clubs and organizations of like kind to participate in, but it is not one of the purposes for which Beaver Dam Lodge No. 276 was chartered and is not to be considered an objective of a Masonic Lodge. I believe that the teachings of Masonry would tend to cause its members as individuals to promote the things set out above because we certainly encourage civic pride and personal responsibility.

IV. The Lodge was requested "To appoint a Contact Person to attend meetings of the Executive Committee of the Piedmont Area Development Association", but for the reasons set forth above it was not permitted to do so.

Opinion No. 14

Mr. D. C. B. filed his petition dated April 13, 1964, for the Degrees in Masonry with Robbinsville Lodge No. 672, and inasmuch as said petition showed a physical disability, it was sent to the Grand Master for his approval.

Upon inquiry, I found that B. is confined to a wheelchair or chair when not in bed, and that he can drive an automobile and do other things for a man with this physical disability; also the person advised me that in his opinion Mr. B. could not perform the candidate's part in the three degrees without assistance. The petition stated "I am in a wheelchair because of service incurred injury, which caused multiple sclerosis."

I notified the Lodge that "No person in a wheelchair can take the Candidate's part in the conferring of the Degrees of Entered Apprentice, Fellow craft and Master Mason, and, I am of the opinion that the Ancient Usage, Established Customs and the laws of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina now in effect do not permit a Degree to be comm nicated to a Candidate nor does it permit any one to act as plon for the Candidate in the conferring of the Degrees," and for this reason, I disapproved the petition of Mr. B. and returned the same to the Grand Secretary's Office.

Opinion No. 15

Under date of January 19, 1965, the Grand Secretary received the petition of Mr. B. F. B. from Troy Lodge No. 718, along with Reports of Doings for the stated communications of November 27, 1964, and January 12, 1965. The petition has not yet been certified, nor was the rejection reported on the Report of Doings for January 12, 1965, although it was reported at the top of the petition itself. Our Grand Secretary wrote to the Secretary of Troy Lodge No. 718 on January 20th for an explanation of this action and received a telephone call from the Master stating that the Lodge did ballot on this petition in error, and that the petitioner was rejected. The Grand Secretary has requested a ruling in this matter, and I have advised him as follows:

"Your letter of January 22, 1965, shows that on January 12, 1965, at a stated communication of our Troy Lodge No. 718, the petition of B. F. B. was balloted on and rejected even though the Lodge had not received the report of the Grand Secretary as required in Regulation 76-01. The ballot taken was an illegal ballot, but it also appears that there was no mistake on the part of the Lodge in the identity of petitioner. Therefore, under Regulation 76-16, I do not have the power to grant a dispensation authorizing another ballot on this petition."

This is another instance in which the very simple procedures to be followed in balloting upon a petition have been ignored or disregarded, even though every procedure is designed to protect the Craft.

Opinion No. 16

On July 27, 1964, our Lodge No. 690 elected Mr. B. R. J. to receive the degrees and at the same communication conferred the Entered Apprentice Degree on him in violation of Regulation 79-30 (1). The said Lodge passed B. R. J. on August 10, and raised him on August 24, 1964. The Grand Secretary reported this to me and asked for a ruling. The conferring of any degree out of time is highly irregular and constitutes a serious Masonic offense (Reg. 79-02), but the Candidate is not responsible for this irregularity. I ordered B. R. J. to be healed by re-obligating him (a) in the Entered Apprentice Degree in a Lodge on the First Degree of Masonry, (b) in the Fellow craft Degree in a Lodge on the Second Degree of Masonry, and, (c) in the Master Mason's Degree in a Master Masons' Lodge. I also severely reprimanded the officers of our Lodge No. 690 and ordered the full opinion to be read at the first Stated Communication following its receipt, and recorded in the minutes.

Opinion No. 17

At a Stated Communication of our Lodge No. 146 held on March 2, 1964, the Lodge received an Application for Affiliation from Brother W. F. E., and without complying in any respect with the provisions of Regulations 83-11 and 83-14, and in violation of Regulation 83-15, the Lodge proceeded to elect Brother W. F. E. to membership at the same communication at which it was received. I declared the election null and void. The application was afterwards duly processed through the office of the Grand Secretary, and I ordered a reballot on the application. I severely reprimanded the Master and Secretary of said Lodge for their gross negligence in failing to observe and comply with the clear-cut provisions of our Code pertaining to Applications for Affiliation, and ordered that the full opinion be read at the first Stated Communication following its receipt and recorded in the minutes.

Opinion No. 18

Our Lodge No. 32 requested waivers of jurisdiction on Mr. V. E. H. from our Lodges Nos. 695 and 626, both being located in the same City. On October 15, 1964, our Lodge No. 695 acted on said request and denied the same. Our Lodge No. 626 took action on the request for waiver on October 20, 1964 and granted the same.

I was requested to rule on this matter and inasmuch as our Lodge No. 32 elected to request waiver from two Lodges having joint jurisdiction over Mr. V. E. H., I held that the Lodge which acted first in the matter, to-wit: our Lodge No. 695, acquired jurisdiction over the request for waiver and its action in refusing to grant the waiver must be adhered to by our Lodge No. 32.

ORDERS

Eleven members of M. Lodge without permission of the Lodge Service Commission, or any other Grand Lodge authority formed a corporation having as its main purpose the construction of a Masonic Temple, or Temples, in the City of L. The Master of M. Lodge notified me that his lodge intended to enter into an agreement with the aforesaid corporation pertaining to the construction and use of a Temple for M. Lodge. Regulation 60-07 reads as follows: "The members of a lodge individually or as a group shall not, as Masons, do those things the lodge is prohibited from doing." Because this corporation, chartered for Masonic purposes, was created in violation of Masonic law, I served notice on all of the members of the corporation to immediately dissolve the corporation.

Worshipful George W. Welton, Master of our Lodge No. 92, moved out of the State of North Carolina and established a residence in the State of Virginia. I declared a vacancy in the office of Master of the lodge and authorized the Senior Warden to act as Master for the remainder of the Masonic year.

Complaints were received that our F. Lodge was meeting in a building, in which for some years past, activities had been carried on in violation of THE CODE in that:

- 1. The building in which they were meeting had been systematically used for private and public dances.
- 2. Numerous card parties have been held in the building.

3. Strong drinks and other alcoholic beverages have been served and consumed in the building, and empty whiskey bottles have been left on the premises and even in the lodge room which had been used by a non-Masonic group.

I ordered the Master, Wardens and members of our F. Lodge to take whatever steps that may be necessary for the lodge to get control of its lodge premises to eliminate such abuses, or for it to obtain another Lodge Hall.

FRATERNAL DEAD

The Circle of Grand Lodge Officers and Past Grand Masters has escaped the angel of death, but we have lost four members from our Boards or Committees:

Sigmund Sternberger, P.M. (552), Committee on Finance.

Allie J. Humphrey, P.M. (1), Committee on Finance,

G. Bland Church, P.M., C.L. (118), Board of Custodians,

Armon E. Baggett, P.M. (1), Committee on Necrology and Committee on Masonic Ceremonies and Miscellaneous Publications.

In addition to these, many Masons, good and true, who have wrought well in their particular fields of action in the subordinate lodges, have laid aside the working tools of life and passed into the Great Beyond. I ask you to stand and reverently join me in silent tribute to them.

The Committee on Necrology will later fittingly memorialize those good men and true whom we have loved and lost, but will again see.

EMERGENT COMMUNICATIONS

I called twelve Emergent Communications of the Grand Lodge during my term. Four were called for the purpose of laying cornerstones, and eight for the purpose of dedicating new Temples.

John Huske Anderson Lodge No. 731, Fayetteville, N. C., on Saturday, May 2, 1964, at 7:30 P.M.

LODGES INSTITUTED

During the year it was my privilege to grant dispensation to and to institute the following new lodges:

May 8, 1964 to 30 brethren for the establishment of Stump Sound Lodge, U. D., at Sneads Ferry, Onslow County.

December 16, 1964 to 24 brethren for the establishment of William Pitt Lodge, U.D., at Greenville, Pitt County.

OXFORD ORPHANAGE

I attended all of the meetings of the Directors of the Oxford Orphanage. During the three years that I have been on the Board of Directors I have been impressed with the competence and efficiency of the Superintendent and his staff of co-workers. The work is well planned and carried out in all departments, and I believe their chief concern is always "What is best for the children." A report of the year's work and the needs of the institution for the coming year will be presented to you from the proper sources. I am sure you will commend the one and grant the other.

MASONIC & EASTERN STAR HOME

The Masonic & Eastern Star Home at Greensboro, North Carolina is the only joint enterprise in which this Grand Lodge is engaged. Since 1912 the Masons and Eastern Stars have maintained this Home for those of our brothers and their mothers, wives, widows and sisters who due to adversity, were unable to care for themselves.

This Home is owned and controlled by the Grand Lodge in the ratio of sixty-forty. There are twenty persons on the Board of Directors, twelve of whom are selected by the Grand Lodge and eight who are selected by the Grand Chapter of the Order of Eastern Star.

I have been on the Board since April, 1962, and am glad to report that Superintendent Robbins and his staff have ably and efficiently operated this Home. We are all indebted to them for their devoted and loving service.

Though improvements have been made during the past year on the physical properties of our Masonic & Eastern Star Home, the greatest achievement by far is that of increasing the enrollment from one hundred to one hundred and ten guests. Ten brother Master Masons or their widows are now at home because of the love and generosity of the brethren of this jurisdiction. A new heating plant has been erected a good distance from the main buildings on the grounds at the cost of $55,202.00. With a daily average of 103 guests $181.307.49 was paid out for operating expense resulting in the per capita cost of $1,755.15. It is with pride and appreciation that I point out this figure to you since there are several homes of other Grand Lodge jurisdictions which operated last year on a per capita cost of $3,500.00. I must be bold to say that the twelve brethren who represent us on the Board of Directors of our Home are the very personification of real brotherliness. I am confident that these dedicated servants together with the eight ladies from the Eastern Star will expedite the program of expansion at the home so that we may one day be able to aid and assist ALL distressed, worthy brother Master Masons and their wives, widows, and sisters, and I believe that in this great work they will have your whole-hearted support.

ALASKAN RELIEF

On April 29, 1964 the Masonic Service Association of the United States notified all Grand Lodges of the United States of the tragic and disastrous results of the Alaskan earthquake. The Grand Lodge of Washington has 16 subordinate lodges in Alaska, and our brethren there suffered great losses.

After consultation with the Board of General Purposes, the Grand Lodge of North Carolina sent $2,500.00 to the Grand Lodge of Washington as its contribution to Alaska Disaster Relief Fund.

DISTRICT DEPUTY GRAND MASTERS' CONFERENCE

I held two Conferences of District Deputy Grand Masters, one for the eastern part of the State and the other for the western part. The first of these was held in Goldsboro, North Carolina, on Saturday, May 16, 1964 and the second in Morganton, North Carolina, on Saturday, May 23, 1964. The District Deputy Grand Masters were urged to bring with them the District Deputy Grand Lecturers of their district and I am glad to report that we had an excellent attendance.

DISTRICT MEETINGS

Inasmuch as the Grand Master's Program included an appeal to the lodges to make their full contribution this year under the Pennsylvania Plan for maintaining the Endowment Fund for the George Washington Masonic National Memorial, I wanted to complete my District Meetings not later than September 30th. To do this I at times had three districts holding a District Meeting, and I must say they were well attended. All District Meetings were completed by September 26, 1964, except for meeting at Tarboro, N.C., which was held on October 10, 1964. The Tarboro meeting originally scheduled for June 27 was changed so as not to conflict with the second primary in the State elections.

The brethren, who took part in the afternoon sessions of the District Meetings, had almost always prepared their talks and delivered them in an impressive manner. I wish to extend my thanks and appreciation to all who took part in the work of the Meetings.

DISTRICT DEPUTY GRAND MASTERS

My sincere thanks and appreciation goes to a fine group of working Master Masons who have served me and the Grand Lodge, in the capacity of District Deputy Grand Masters. They have answered every call made upon them and they have filled their office with honor and dignity.

HONORARY TITLE OF PAST DISTRICT DEPUTY GRAND MASTER

I recommend that the Grand Lodge grant the honorary title of Past District Deputy Grand Master to the following brethren, each of whom is qualified therefor in accordance with the provision of Regulation 12-05 of The Code:

CERTIFIED LECTURERS

I desire at this time to express my sincere appreciation for the services that have been rendered to the Craft generally by the Certified Lecturers and the District Deputy Grand Lecturers. Our Certified Lecturer system was instituted in Nineteen Hundred and Forty and today there are more than five hundred of our brethren on the roll of Certified Lecturers and Instructors. It not only takes time and effort to pass the examination but one must be re-examined every five years in order to hold his certificate.

PHYSICAL DISABILITY

Thirty-six petitions showing disability were referred to me for my approval under Regulation 74-02 of The Code, as amended on April 22, 1964. I approved 30 of them and disapproved 6. Of the 30 approved 28 were a type that our Grand Lodge has been waiving for a long number of years. The other 2 which I approved each dealt with epilepsy and in each of these cases the petitioner had been and was taking medication which effectively controlled the disease. Neither of the petitioners had had a seizure in more than three years.

The six I did not approve involved disabilities as follows:

- 1. Middle and ring finger and knuckles missing from right hand.
- 2. Two petitioners whose index finger and knuckles were missing from right hand.

- 3. Inability to raise left arm.
- 4. Confined to a wheelchair and does not have any use of legs and limited use of left arm.
- 5. Confined to a wheelchair when not in bed.

My Brethren, this Grand Lodge on April 22, 1964 repealed Regulations 74-01 (10), 74-02, 74-03, and 74-04 and adopted Regulation 74-02 reading as follows: "If a petition for the degrees is presented to a lodge by a petitioner who is physically defective for any reason, the petition shall be forwarded within five days to the Grand Master, and if he approves the same, the lodge may then receive the petition." What is the legal effect of the action taken on April 22, 1964?

I am of the opinion that any profane has a right to petition for the degrees in Masonry and that the lodge's right to receive the petition involves a question of Masonic Law. In order to bring this question before the Grand Lodge I entered Official Opinions Numbers 5, 8 and 14 which are set out in this report.

I am of the opinion that Regulations 74-01.10 and 74-04 were explanatory of, or a modification of the Constitution, Ancient Usages and Established Customs of the Fraternity and that when they were repealed the law reverted to what it was prior to their enactment, which in effect makes the Doctrine of the Perfect Youth the present law of this Grand Jurisdiction.

If the requirement of physical fitness is to be relaxed to such an extent that instead of the age-old custom of conferring degrees on candidates, we allow a candidate to sit on the sidelines and see, or hear, a degree communicated; then in all honesty, has the time not come, my Brethren, when we should consider changing our ritual, and catechism to meet the situation. I cannot recommend that this done.

DISPENSATIONS

During the year I granted dispensations as follows:

- 1. A dispensation to our Elise Lodge No. 555 to hold the annual election of officers at the second stated communication (December 15, 1964). The lodge did not meet on December 1, 1964, which was the time fixed for the election, for lack of a quorum caused by bad weather.
- 2. Because of poor and unsafe condition of the Lodge Hall of Williams Lodge No. 538 at Cornelius, N. C., and it being made to appear that Mecklenburg Lodge No. 176 located at Davidson, N.C., a distance of two miles, had offered their Lodge Hall facilities to said Williams Lodge No.

538, I granted Williams Lodge No. 538 full power and authority to hold its communications, stated and emergent, in the Town of Davidson, North Carolina, through the thirtieth day of April. One Thousand Nine Hundred and Sixty-Five; provided, however, that the territorial Jurisdiction of said Williams Lodge No. 538 should not in anywise be changed on account of its temporary removal to Davidson, North Carolina, but should be the same as if it were located in Cornelius, North Carolina; and I required that due and proper notice of the change of meeting place be given to the entire membership of said Williams Lodge.

3. Because of regulations pertaining to the use of Fort Bragg Reservation, the Brethren of Fort Bragg Lodge No. 667 deemed it proper to construct their Lodge Building in Spring Lake, North Carolina, and has with the permission of the Lodge Service Commission of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina, constructed its Lodge Hall in Spring Lake, North Carolina, outside the Fort Bragg Reservation; prior to the annual communication of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina in April of 1964, it held its meetings in its Lodge Hall at Spring Lake under authority of a dispensation from the Grand Master of Masons in North Carolina; it was made to appear that by Resolution dated April 10, 1964, the said Fort Bragg Lodge No. 667 petitioned the Grand Lodge of North Carolina for permission to permanently move its location from Fort Bragg to Spring Lake, North Carolina, but the Grand Lodge at said annual communication did not act upon said Resolution. Being of the opinion that the cause of Masonry would be promoted by granting a dispensation for Fort Bragg Lodge No. 667 to continue to meet in its quarters at Spring Lake until the next annual Communication of the Grand Lodge, I therefore, granted Fort Bragg Lodge No. 667 full power, and authority to holds its communications, stated and emergent, in its Lodge Hall at Spring Lake, North Carolina, through the annual communication of the Grand Lodge to be held in Raleigh, North Carolina, in April of 1965. I also provided that the territorial jurisdiction of said Fort Bragg Lodge No. 667 should not in anywise be changed because of its removal to Spring Lake, North Carolina, but should be the same as it was when it was holding its communications at Fort Bragg Reservation.

4. Four requests were received for dispensations for groups of brethren of other Grand Jurisdictions to confer one or more degrees according to their ritual in our lodges. The four requests were granted upon the condition that brethren from other Grand Jurisdictions would be visitors in the North Carolina Lodges, and that our lodges would be open for the work.

- 5. A request was received from members of our Waynes-ville Lodge No. 259 to visit New Providence Lodge No. 128 at Maryville, Tennessee, and confer the Master Mason's Degree upon the Tennessee candidate according to the ritual of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina. I granted this request to the brethren as individuals, but not as a Lodge, and also required the approval of the Grand Master of Masons in Tennessee.
- 6. Fifteen dispensations for Lodges to elect officers because of death, removal from the State or resignations were granted during the year.
- 7. Elkin Lodge No. 454 requested that they be permitted to confer the Third Degree in their new Temple. The lodge room had been completed but the entire building was not yet ready for occupancy. I granted the dispensation.
- 8. Hamlet Lodge No. 532 requested permission to hold the communications of August 13th and 24th, 1964 in the banquet hall in the basement of its Temple, due to repairs being made in its lodge room. On being assured that the proposed meeting place could be properly tiled, I granted the dispensation.

DISPENSATIONS DENIED

- 1. One lodge advised that they were unable to hold its stated communication on Monday, February 1st, 1965 because the snow and ice did not allow enough members to attend to constitute a quorum, and requested a dispensation to hold a "delayed" communication on Saturday, February 13th, 1965. I denied the request.
- 2. A lodge requested a "special dispensation to move the Charter and furniture of the lodge" to the new lodge building. I denied the request and advised that the lodge must amend its by-laws to provide for its new meeting place.

ONE STORY LODGE BUILDINGS

Two requests were presented during the year to erect a one-story lodge building. After examining the building plans, I granted permission to Ayden Lodge No. 498 at Ayden, N.C., and Fairview Lodge No. 339 at Kings Mountain, N.C., to construct a one-story lodge building, but I cautioned each lodge that what is done Masonically in one part of a building, or Temple, should not be capable of being seen or overheard in other parts of the building and I also advised them that the lodge must at all times have Lodge Quarters that are properly secured as to sound as well as to sight and this responsibility always rests upon the subordinate lodge.

LODGES NOT REPRESENTED

Two lodges have not been represented in the Grand Lodge for the past two years as required by Regulation 49-02 (12). I have notified each of them to be represented at this Annual Communication.

GEORGE WASHINGTON MASONIC NATIONAL MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION MASONIC SERVICE ASSOCIATION

The 55th Annual Convention of The George Washington Masonic National Memorial Association was held in the auditorium of the Memorial at Alexandria, Virginia, Monday, February 22, 1965, and the Masonic Service Association met in the Shoreham Hotel, Washington, D.C., on Thursday, February 25, 1965.

M. W. Robert L. Pugh, our elected representative to the Masonic Memorial Association and the Masonic Service Association, was unable to attend these meetings because of illness in his family. He was represented by M.:

W.:.W. J. Bundy.

I regret that we were unable to complete our project for the Endowment Fund for the George Washington Masonic National Memorial Association and I urge all lodges that have not made their contribution in full to do so as soon as possible.

I recommend that the Grand Lodge contribute $1,000.00 to the George Washington Masonic National Memorial Association and $3,000.00 to the Masonic Service Association for hospital visitation. Those are the same amounts contributed in 1964 tributed in 1964.

CONFERENCE OF GRAND MASTERS OF MASONS IN NORTH AMERICA

The Conference of Grand Masters of Masons in North America was called to order in the Shoreham Hotel, Washington, D. C., at 9:30 A.M., Tuesday, February 23, 1965 and was adjourned Wednesday afternoon, February 24, 1965.

In addition to your Grand Master, the following were in attendance from this Grand Jurisdiction.

R.'.W.'.Sam A. Hennis, Jr., Deputy Grand Master, R.'. W.'.Arnold J. Koonce, Senior Grand Warden, R.'.W.'.Alfred A. Kafer, Junior Grand Warden; M.'.W.'.James W. Brewer, Grand Treasurer; M.'.W.'.Charles A. Harris, Grand Secretary; M.'.W.'.W. J. Bundy, Past Grand Master; M.'.W.'. Harvey W. Smith; Past Grand Master M.'.W.'. Charles C. Ricker, Past Grand Master; M.'.W.'.W. Edward Burrier, Past Grand Master; W.'.Robert N. Bass, Senior Grand Deacon; W.'.W. W. Mims, Jr., Grand Steward; W.'. Berl M. Kahn, Grand Steward and W.'.R. Pete Dudley, Assistant to the Grand Secretary.

OFFICE OF THE GRAND SECRETARY

To the Grand Secretary and to each and every member of the Grand Secretary's office, I wish to express my sincere appreciation for the capable and efficient services rendered to the Grand Lodge, and I extend to them my hearty thanks for their assistance to me during my term of office.

SOUTHEASTERN MASONIC CONFERENCE

Since 1960 the Southeastern Masonic Conference has been meeting in regular annual meetings, and Grand Master Brewer in his Report of 1962 Proceedings, Page 160, stated:

"The objectives of these movements, to promote Masonic Education and Research, are, of course, highly commendable; however, we are not assured that there is an opportunity for such groups to consciously or unconsciously reach out into fields other than Masonic Education and Masonic Research without the possibility of creating serious problems for the Grand Lodges represented in such groups; therefore, after careful thought and consideration of the information before me, I do not recommend at this time that we accept membership in, or sponsorship of, these conferences; at least not until such time as it has been made very definite and clear that the rules, procedures and general activities of such conferences are such as do not conflict with our customs, Constitution and Regulations, particularly Chapter 31 of our CODE, nor that any such conference tends in the least manner to become a 'super grand lodge,' or to issue directives to, or impose obligations on, other Grand Lodges."

Grand Master Burrier in his report of 1964 Proceedings Page 125, recommended:

"That we affiliate with the Southeastern Masonic Conference and that we invite them to hold their annual session in North Carolina in 1965. This Conference is doing a great work as evidenced by the report of our distinguished representatives."

The report referred to was not presented to the Grand Lodge by the representatives to the Conference, and I do not know what the report contained.

Inasmuch as the Grand Lodge did not take any action on the recommendation of Grand Master Burrier, we have before us conflicting recommendations of previous Grand Masters as to our affiliation with the Southeastern Masonic Conference.

Permit me to go into some detail to explain my position in this matter.

The Southeastern Masonic Conference was organized November 10, 1960, at Pascagoula, Mississippi, and reported at that time that it had eight member Grand Lodges: Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina and Tennessee. M.'.W.'.Edwin T. Howard, P.G.M., represented our Grand Master at the 1960 Conference, and M.'.W.'.W. Eli Hand, P.G.M., was our observer at the 1961 Conference at Jacksonville, Florida.

There is no record of our Grand Lodge that shows its acceptance of membership in the Southeastern Masonic Conference; therefore, it is not a member, and our representatives have been present only as observers without authority to commit us in any way to the program of the Conference.

The By-laws of The Southeastern Masonic Conference show that the Conference has been set up as a permanent organization. Article 1, Section 1, of the By-laws state that:

"The name of this association shall be THE SOUTHEAST-ERN MASONIC CONFERENCE. Its objects shall be to uphold the ideals, objectives and principles of Freemasonry as set forth in the Declaration of Principles formulated in February, 1939, by the Grand Masters' Conference at Washington, D.C., and adopted by the several Grand Lodges forming this conference; to foster research and study of Freemasonry and to disseminate to the Craft a wider knowledge thereof; to strive for peace and harmony within and without the Craft; and, avoiding all innovations in the body of Masonry, to promote the general good of society, to cultivate the social virtues, and to propagate the knowledge of the mystic art."

This By-law is objectionable because the Declaration of Masonic Principles mentioned therein is not the same in every Grand Lodge; e.g. our Declaration is not the same as the Declaration of Georgia and Louisiana. The remainder of this By-law is a re-hashing of what every Grand Lodge now claims to be its duties, but to be carried out in its Grand Jurisdiction in its own way, and not as interpreted or applied by other organizations over which it has no control.

Article 11, Section 1, of the proposed By-laws, reads as follows:

"The Grand Master, the Deputy Grand Master, the Senior Grand Warden, the Junior Grand Warden, the Grand Treasurer, the Grand Secretary, and any Past Master, of the Grand Lodges of Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Tennessee and of any other Grand Masonic Jurisdiction hereafter admitted to the Conference by resolution thereof shall be eligible to membership in the Conference."

I believe this By-law to be objectionable for at least two reasons: First, this section restricts membership in the Conference to the select group as therein described. It appears that each member Grand Lodge is denied the right to designate its representatives, but that the Conference makes the choice. Suppose our Grand Lodge desired to name as its representative the Chairman of its Committee on Masonic Education, or its Grand Historian, or any other of its members not qualified as set out in this section—how would we proceed? Second, the Grand Master of North Carolina, when the Grand Lodge is not in session, represents the Grand Lodge of North Carolina, and is the only person authorized to speak on behalf of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina. Although the select group of Grand Lodge Officials and Past Grand Masters are supposed to be members of this Conference, and their wisdom and experience would be greatly appreciated, yet it is the Grand Master's duty and prerogative to speak for the Grand Lodge of North Carolina on all matters Masonic when the Grand Lodge is not in Session.

Article II, Section 2, of the By-laws reads as follows:

"Any matter for determination by the Conference shall be by majority vote of those present; provided, the representatives from each jurisdiction shall not have more than four votes, the same to be determined by the representatives present on any basis satisfactory to themselves."

Just what do the organizers of this Conference have in mind? What matters should it consider and determine by a vote? Suppose our Grand Lodge, for any reason, objects to the consideration by this Conference of a specific subject, and the Conference decides by vote to carry out its decision in opposition to our view of the matter. What would be our status then, and how would we proceed? This section is objectionable from almost any view because the Conference cannot, nor should it attempt to, do anything that each member Grand Lodge cannot, or will not, do in its own jurisdiction. The purpose of a Conference is to consult to disseminate information and then for each member Grand Lodge to act as it sees fit, and the Conference should not have the right to speak for this Grand Jurisdiction.

Article 11, Section 3, of the supposed By-laws read as follows:

"Any Master Mason, not a member of the Conference, at his own expense, may attend meetings of the Conference after sufficient prior notice."

To me this section is totally unacceptable because it is contrary to the custom and usage of Masonry in the Grand Lodge of North Carolina; we have always held and insisted that any Master Mason in good standing in a regular and recognized lodge has every right of access to the business and the teaching of Symbolic Masonry; and no exception is made for any special group by whatever name it may be designated. What will be considered "sufficient prior notice" that must be given by a Master Mason before he can attend and observe the proceedings of the Conference?

Article IV of the By-laws deal with the Board of Directors and states that:

"There shall be a Board of Directors of the Conference consisting of the Grand Master and Junior Past Grand Master present from each constituent jurisdiction. In the absence of the Grand Master the Deputy Grand Master shall serve. In the absence of the Deputy Grand Master, the Senior Grand Warden shall serve and in his absence the Junior Grand Warden shall serve," and states that the Power of the Board of Directors is as follows:

"Subject in all respects to the authority and discretion of the Conference when in session, and between its meetings, the Board of Directors shall be the administrative board of the Conference and shall have power and authority to do and perform all acts and functions which the Conference itself might do or perform, not inconsistent with these by-laws or any action taken by the Conference."

These sections are not acceptable because too much authority is placed in the Directors; and membership on the Board is restricted to certain Grand Officers and Past Grand Officers, as described therein, excluding Master Masons by omission. It may be possible that a mere Master Macon could contribute to Masonic Education and other programs of the Conference as much, even more, real Masonic knowledge than many in the preferred class named in the section. Educational programs must be made to benefit the Master Mason and not a preferred group.

Article VI, Section 5, states that:

"The Chairman with the consent of the Board shall name an executive committee if deemed advisable to perform such duties and have such authority as may be delegated to it by the Board of Directors."

This By-law is certainly a By-law of a permanent organization and gives too much authority to the Directors. Just what matters may not be discussed or considered under this rule? They should be spelled out in detail because there is no limit in this rule on those subjects.

Article VII, Section 1, Sub-section d, states that there shall be a standing committee by the Conference on the "Liaison Committee between the Masonic Fraternity and the Ministry," and Sub-section d. of Section 2 of said Article states that:

"The Committee on Liaison between the Masonic Fraternity and the Ministry shall provide such literature and other evidence as may be needed in conferring with ministers of the gospel in the several churches who have an erroneous idea that Masonry is in competition with their church or churches in order that misunderstanding between the fraternity and the ministers and promoters of true religion may be dispelled and accord reached between our order and them."

Here we risk becoming involved with religious creeds. This rule is particularly objectionable. Our Grand Lodge does not permit discussion of religion in its lodges; therefore, the Conference, as far as we are concerned, cannot do what the Grand Lodge forbids within its own jurisdiction. What "Ministry" is under observation for treatment by the Conference at this time and what religious organization now promotes "true religion?" Who decides these matters and by what rules? What sharp differences of opinion may be developed by debate on the subject?

Article VII, Section 2, Sub-section c. of the said Bylaws states that:

"It shall be the duty of the Finance Committee to determine and fix the budget; assess fees, registration fees; and handle all matters with reference to the financial operation of the Conference at its meetings from time to time. The Finance Committee shall have the authority to fix the wages of the secretary and to pay the expense of his office.

What system will be used for assessing the members for fees, dues and other income, and what is the limit on the power to tax the members and the Grand Lodges?

Perhaps it would not be amiss to mention here the purposes of the Organization of the Grand Masters' Conference held every year in February. It is a Conference of Grand Masters, not of Grand Lodges. The individual delegates speak for themselves, to present information, to exchange opinions, to impart light. Each Conference is a temporary association which expires at the conclusion of its meetings. It has no legislative, executive, or judicial powers which can be exercised on behalf of free-masonry in general or any Masonic Organization in particular. From the beginning of the Conferences it has been clearly understood that "Any action taken, by vote or otherwise, is not binding on any Grand Jurisdiction, but is merely for its information." Votes taken by the Conference and Grand Masters, therefore, are generally limited to the election of officers, rules of procedure, determination of time and place of the next meeting, the appointment of special committees to bring in special studies for information only, and the passing of resolutions of appreciation, sorrow, etc.

Resolutions which define Masonic principles or advocate policies for Masonic action cannot be adopted by the Conference of Grand Masters. To do so would infringe on the sovereignty of Independent Grand Lodges. Such resolutions can only be accepted as information to be submitted to the individual Grand Lodges. That was the disposition made by the famous "Declaration of Principles" for Freemasonry introduced by a special committee at the 1939 conference.

We should not affiliate with any organization that assumes the right to vote on any matter properly belonging exclusively to our Grand Lodge, or to levy any assessment on it, or to exclude a Master Mason from free and full membership without the necessity of becoming a suppliant for this right; nor should we, with others, form a permanent organization that moves in the direction of a super-Grand Lodge, or an exclusive club. I believe such action would be a violation of our Regulation 31-01.

We can very well say to our Brethren of the Southeast ern Masonic Conference that we have not yet affiliated with any conference, and that we do not look with favor upon a plan for a permanent organization with so many rules and regulations.

FINANCES

For the past eighteen months the income from the Permanent Fund has ben transferred to the General Fund and used to pay part of our appropriations to the Oxford Orphanage and the Masonic & Eastern Star Home, but it is hoped that by the end of the current year there will be sufficient funds available so that most of these funds can be repaid to the Permanent Fund. The funds now in the Permanent Fund are the result of the excellent business management and the frugal, but wise, spending policies of our brethren of yester-year.

Many of our Past Grand Masters and even more of our "grass roots" brethren have expressed their concern about Grand Lodge finances. One brother wrote: "As other Masons are, especially some in the Grand Lodge circle who are advertent to the recent trend, I am much concerned about Grand Lodge finances. It is easy to spend someone else's money. However, I am one who thinks that when you have money in trust it should be expended with more care than when one spends his own." He also wrote that it was none of his business except that as a Mason and a past officer he was interested and concerned. He suggested that the Committee on Finance, especially now, should be selected with extreme care.

Travel is broadening. Visiting out of the State can be and is a joyful experience. We have traditional ties with some Grand Jurisdictions that should be maintained and fostered, but I believe the determining factor in all visitations should be the benefit to be derived therefrom by the "grass-root" Masons throughout this Grand Jurisdiction.

It has not been too many years since disbursements made were reported to the Grand Lodge in detail, even itemizing expenditures of less than one dollar. One would not expect such a small item to be reported in detail today, but if the brethren are to know how and for what their money is being spent, then my Brethren the reported disbursements should not contain such huge amounts as:

Misc. office expense	$4,186.86
Guests and Misc. Annual Communication
Contingent	4.624.69

There is no criticism of anyone intended by citing the above figures, for I have no reason to believe that they were not all properly made. However, the brethren of this Grand Jurisdiction should have the detailed expenditures made during the past year before them in order that they may intelligently act on any proposed budget.

STATE OF THE CRAFT

During the past five or ten years several Masons have beset their brethren in this, as well as other Grand Jurisdictions with the many supposed ills of our Craft, and have proposed changes that should be made if we expect better attendance at our lodge meetings, and a better reputation among the profane, or should I say non-Masons. We have been told that we must catch up with twentieth century methods, even though these methods may be contrary to the Ancient Usages and Established Customs of the Fraternity. In short they have been trying to tell us what is wrong with Freemasonry. Brethren, there is nothing wrong with Freemasonry, though there are many things wrong with some, yes all too many, Freemasons.

Our Grand Jurisdiction has been more fortunate than some of our sister jurisdictions for that our total membership continues to show steady gains. We should do what is proper to enlighten and to encourage the Craft. The members of our lodges should select for their line officers men who are capable of performing the duties of their office and becoming real MASTERS of their lodge. This involves hard work and devotion, but have we not always been told that Masonry is WORK?

Permit me to give you some of the observations of M.'. W.'.Dwight L. Smith, Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of Indiana:

"Why should there be confusion in the temple? Why are we in search of bright ideas and prescriptions? Freemasonry has one mission on this earth and only one. Let him who asks what that mission is pause to reflect that in asking the question he confesses that he has missed the point of it all.

"The mission of our gentle Craft is not to be another service club, or another civic league, or another pseudo-political pressure group. It is not to be another flag waving society of superpatriots, or another agency to alleviate the physical ills of the human race, or another co-educational Friendly Neighbors Circle devoted to cozy and inane 'togetherness'. The woods in these parts are filled with such organizations. They are a dime a dozen. They are doing the work for which they were formed and doing very well.

"Why can not Freemasons do likewise? Why can not we content ourselves with simply doing the work of our Craft? No other organized society on the face of the earth can do the work of Freemasonry except Freemasonry. Why do we not stick to our knitting?

"The reason, I believe, is that we have become victims of a kind of brainwashing which protests that our ways are too slow, too quiet, too old-fashioned..... Unless we are increasing in members and material wealth we are on the decline; we must have the last word in temples and institutions; we must make a big noise to call attention to ourselves and get people to talking about us; we must devise means whereby we can do things the quick way, the easy way, and get on to something else.

"But there is no quick way and no easy way to erect temples within the hearts of men. There are no mass production methods, no huge conveyor belt on which men may be loaded to have the roughness chipped away and the smooth and perfect ashlar emerge therefrom. Someone has observed that 'When God walks, His steps are oftentimes centuries apart.' The making of a Mason is a process almost that deliberate; the work of our gentle Craft is an effort that must be pursued slowly and with limitless patience—and it must be done the hard way, for there is no other way to execute the designs on our trestleboard.

"There simply is no effortless way for Freemasons to do the work of Freemasonry. When we are performing the noble task to which we have obligated ourselves our job is never easy, never popular, never fashionable, and we are never in the majority. The reason is plain: The work of a Mason must be done the hard way or it avails nothing."

"I have no PAT ANSWERS AND NO SURE-CURE PRESCRIPTIONS to remedy all these ills, but I propose only that we do the work of Freemasonry and that we do it in the manner of Freemasons. That means, among other things, an agonizing reappraisal of our worship of bigness and wealth and material things, our passion for efficiency and know-how and quick results and public acclaim. The philosophy of Freemasonry properly applied is a power that works as slowly, as quietly, and as irresistably as a grain of seed sprouting in the earth.

As Freemasons "it is time we were making up our minds what it is we came here to do." If we are here for the noble purpose we once proclaimed so readily, then we must face the sobering fact that our assignment is the improvement of ourselves—not Freemasonry.

Last April after the jewel of my office had been placed upon my shoulders I asked you to join with me in rededicating ourselves to the work of Freemasonry. We are now one year closer to that "House not made with hands, eternal in the Heavens" and again I urge each and every one of us who has love, respect and devotion to this Fraternity to dedicate himself to the principles of the Order, and to engage in the hard work of Masonic business.

RECOMMENDATIONS

I recommend that:

- 1. This Grand Lodge make its usual contribution to the support of the Oxford Orphanage and the Masonic and Eastern Star Home.
- 2. This Grand Lodge make known to the Southeastern Masonic Conference that it has not affiliated with said Conference.

(NOTE: The above recommendations involving finances were approved by the Committee on Finance and budgeted under the proper items, See Docket No. 46 on Page 169 of these Proceedings.)

CONCLUSION

On July 12, 1949, I was appointed Judge Advocate of this Grand Lodge and since then you have honored me far beyond anything I could ever deserve. Little did I think on October 26, 1928, when I was presented my lambskin in Piedmont Lodge No. 447, F. & A. M., in Atlanta, Georgia, that the purple of the Fraternity of my native State would rest upon my shoulders. To preside over this Grand Lodge is the greatest joy that can come to a Mason, and for that opportunity I am sincerely grateful to you.

I should like to acknowledge with sincere appreciation the sacrifices my wife and family have made during my years of service.

I am particularly grateful for the encouragement and wise counsel given me by our Past Grand Masters, and especially M.'.W.'.Brother Charles Bailey Newcomb, and M.'.W.'.Brother Watson N. Sherrod. I also express my deep appreciation for the splendid cooperation and assistance of our Grand Secretary, the other Grand Lodge line officers, the District Deputy Grand Masters, District Deputy Grand Lecturers, Grand Lecturer, the Masters, Wardens and brethren throughout the State who have worked so faithfully to help carry out my program.

I am deeply grateful to the officers and members of the lodges in Wilmington, North Carolina, for their many courtesies, the reception given in my honor and the beautiful silver service given to Mrs. Humphrey and me; and to those lodges that have honored me by conferring Honorary Membership on me.

I shall never cease to be grateful for the privilege of serving you as Grand Master, and I hope the experiences of this year have prepared me to be of some service to the Craft in the future.

REPORT OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON DUAL AND PLURAL MEMBERSHIP

(Docket No. 27)

The following report of the Special Committee on Dual and Plural Membership was deferred until the Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge in 1966:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

Your Special Committee appointed by M. .: W. .: George Dudley Humphrey, Grand Master, to ascertain the merits and/or demerits of dual and plural membership by members of subordinate lodges of this Grand Lodge or by members of lodges subordinate to other Grand Lodges residing within the territorial boundaries of this Grand Jurisdiction, as authorized and directed by the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge at its 1964 Annual Communication, recommends that this Grand Lodge withhold action on any proposal which will permit dual and/or plural membership in its subordinate lodges and that it cling steadfastly to the traditional primary membership as the only permissible Symbolic Masonic affiliation recognized by this Grand Lodge. It is not the purpose of this Committee to suggest that this Grand Lodge should be a prisoner of precedent; rather, it is the belief that need should be the father cf change. The necessity for requisite amendments to THE CODE OF JURISPRUDENCE of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina to permit dual and/or plural membership has not been demonstrated, either by demand, survey or analysis.

If, by refusal to adopt regulations permitting dual and/or plural membership, this Grand Lodge were denying Symbolic Masonry to anyone, the matter would then have to be considered in the light of that fact. Such, however, is not the case. A Master Mason is a Master Mason in every sense of the word and he enjoys all the rights and privileges as such, wherever he may be located. His are the philosophical teachings of our fraternity; his is the right of suffrage; his is the right to hold office; his is the right to enjoy all privileges extended to him by law and custom of the Craft. His will to participate in propositions and proposals before a lodge, his desire to hold office, his inclination to participate freely in the affairs of a lodge may be exercised under existing regulations. If his sentimental attachment to his mother lodge—his primary membership— is so strong that he desires not to break it then any function which he may wish to perform in any other lodge is secondary to that attachment. The responsibility is his to satisfy his will, his desire and his inclination, and it is not the function of this Grand Lodge to abandon tradition, to amend its laws or to change its method of operation to make available to him any right or privilege that to him is secondary in his attitude toward his Masonic affiliation.

The laws of eligibility vary materially from one Grand Jurisdiction to the next. The laws of physical fitness are not uniform in their requirements or in their application. The laws of many Grand Lodges are silent on matters which are definitely defined in the CONSTITUTION AND CODE of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina. Shall this Grand Lodge waive its rules of eligibility for rules of lesser degree imposed by another Grand Lodge? Shall this Grand Lodge waive its physical fitness requirements and admit for membership those who are physically fit under the laws of another Grand Lodge but not of this? Shall this Grand Lodge assent in silence to the membership of one Initiated, Passed and Raised in conformity to a law of another Grand Jurisdiction though that member by our law would have been debarred for reasons of residence, physical fitness, moral uprightness, or for other reasons defined by our law? In these matters this Grand Lodge should not acquiesce.

It is the firm belief of this Committee that the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina is sovereign unto itself; that it does not recognize as binding upon it the laws of any other Masonic body or entity; that it does not intend that the laws enacted by it for its own government or for the government of the lodges under its jurisdiction shall in any manner be imposed upon any other Masonic body or entity; and that the enactment of legislation permitting dual and/or plural membership, either by members of its own subordinate lodges or by members of lodges subordinate to other Grand Lodges residing within the territorial boundaries of the State of North Carolina, would be in violation of the sovereignty of this Grand Lodge and of the sovereignty of other Grand Lodges recognized by it.

It is the further feeling of your Committee that:

- 1. No definitive advantage attaches to such membership, except in isolated cases of sojourners who may wish for sentimental reasons to retain their primary membership elsewhere.
- 2. The number of sojourners inclined voluntarily to apply for or to accept dual or plural membership in this Grand Jurisdiction is relatively small.
- 3. A minor percentage of the Grand Lodges of continental United States permits plural membership; many Grand Lodges prohibit dual membership in any degree, thus reducing further the number of sojourners who might be legally induced to apply for or to accept membership in a subordinate lodge of this Grand Lodge were permissive regulations adopted.
- 4. Regulations permitting dual and/or plural memberships vary widely in the several Grand Jurisdictions; conflicting regulations relating thereto exist. There is no uniformity in regulations permitting such membership—no central point around which all Grand Lodges agree to permit and control such memberships.
- 5. Present regulations of this Grand Lodge provide adequately for worthy sojourners through the right and privilege of honorary membership in our subordinate lodges. Any sojourner desiring a greater franchise than that granted by this regulation should exercise that prerogative by applying for and, if found worthy, obtaining a primary membership in a subordinate lodge of this Grand Jurisdiction.
- 6. Unfamiliarity with seldom used and infrequently referred to governing regulations of other Grand Lodges would create obstacles for our subordinate lodge secretaries. If and when rare application for such membership is made, interminable delays, much correspondence and violations of laws of other Grand Lodges would likely be the result. The need for such permissive legislation does not justify the means to attain it.
- 7. The office of Secretary is often difficult to fill competently. The multiplicity of duties and forms even now causes able men to shun the office. The addition of unjustified and unnecessary examination of little known regulations of other Grand Jurisdictions would tend to make the office still less attractive. Again, the need for such permissive legislation does not justify the means to attain it.

- 8. Additionally, such permissive regulations would frequently multiply the likelihood of errors in returns required of our oft-times harassed subordinate lodge secretaries and would certainly produce inaccuracies in statistics.
- 9. In like manner, no favorable argument can be advanced for dual or plural membership of a member of a lodge subordinate to this Grand Lodge residing elsewhere, for certainly no advantage attaches to this Grand Lodge by virtue of such an interchange of membership.
- 10. Economics is a matter of grave concern when legislation of this nature is considered. Few of the younger Master Masons recall with any degree of exactitude the chaotic conditions which existed in our subordinate lodges from 1930 to 1938 or 1939. It is the belief of this Committee that ability to maintain a current status in a single lodge through inclement weather and fair far outweighs the dubious honor of carrying two or more lodge dues cards.
- 11. Any action on this proposition by this Grand Lodge, other than unfavorable, will require advance determination of the matters enumerated as follows:
  - (a) This Grand Lodge's attitude toward the laws of other Grand Lodges, bearing in mind that the regulations of other Grand Jurisdictions vary widely in their application, that dual or plural membership may be extensive and that a member of one of our lodges may have any number of such memberships. This is to say that the laws of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina must be made to conform to the weakest law of other Grand Jurisdictions relating to physical disability, residence, etc. To do otherwise would be to waive the requirements of THE CODE for the benefit of non-resident applicants for dual or plural membership while denying that right to residents of this Grand Jurisdiction petitioning for primary membership.
  - (b) Means of obtaining such membership. Should any Master Mason seeking a dual or plural membership be proposed or should he be required to apply? Should
    - I. A Committee of Investigation be appointed?
    - II. A unanimous secret ballot be required.
    - III. The applicant be required to pay an initiation fee? An affiliation fee? Annual dues?
  - (c) Automatic suspension or exclusion from one or more lodges. If yes, by what nomenclature? By what means is such dual and/or plural membership to be determined and by what means is each interested lodge to be notified of suspension or expulsion?
  - (d) Rights, duties, and privileges of members whose primary memberships are in lodges subordinate to this Grand Lodge. Shall such members be permitted to hold office in two or more lodges simultaneously? Shall such officers be prohibited from holding the office of Master of a subordinate lodge of this Grand Jurisdiction while serving in that capacity in a subordinate lodge of another Grand Jurisdiction? A farfetched projection, possibly, but certainly not an impossible one, therefore one which would have to be anticipated and one for which regulation would have to be provided, for few men are capable of thus serving Masonry satisfactorily.

- (e) Rights, duties, and privileges of members whose primary memberships are elsewhere. Shall they be permitted to:
  - I. Vote on any and all propositions before a lodge?
  - II. Serve as officers?
  - III. If the answer to item number II immediately preceding is yes, shall it be in two or more lodges within or without the state at the same time? How and to what extent shall they be controlled?
- (f) Eligibility. Shall the regulations of this Grand Lodge establishing residence, physical and moral qualifications for petitioners for primary membership in lodges under the jurisdiction of this Grand Lodge apply? Requirements cannot be made less, for to do so would work an injustice on residents of this state. Hence, regulations would have to be amended to make present requirements applicable to applicants and petitioners alike, for this Committee envisions instances of Master Masons, once eligible, becoming not qualified through accident, malady or infirmity.
  - (g) Qualification for
    - I. Our awards for continuous membership.
    - II. Our charity and relief.
    - III. Our burial services.
  - IV. Admission to our Masonic and Eastern Star Home.
- (h) If action is taken to qualify such members to share in the benefits enumerated under (g) above, what is the responsibility of the lodge where the primary membership of such a member rests? How shall that responsibility be established or imposed by our Grand Lodge over the sovereignty of another Grand Lodge?

The matter of dual and/or plural membership has been brought up for consideration before the Grand Lodge of North Carolina many times in the past. In each year in which the proposal has been before the Grand Lodge negative action has resulted. Your Committee invites your attention to the Proceedings of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina for the years 1863 (page 17), 1870 (page 37), 1911 (page 22), 1916 (page 27), 1926 (page 34), 1929 (page 60), 1937 (page 38), 1945 (page 46), 1949 (page 67), 1959 (page 106), 1960 (page 101). Conditions and circumstances have changed little with the passing of the years; the principles underlying dual and/or plural membership remain unchanged.

It is the opinion of this Committee that the advantages to be gained by permitting dual and/or plural membership in lodges subordinate to this Grand Lodge or by members of lodges subordinate to this Grand Lodge residing under the jurisdiction of other Grand Lodges are negligible in contrast to the discernible conflicting interests inherent in such an interchange of membership rights; that the need for such intercourse does not justify the means to attain it; and that the danger of confusion, error and violation of sovereignty far outweighs the minor advantage to be gained by such recognition. It is, therefore, the recommendation of this Committee that the matter of dual and/or plural membership, either by members of the subordinate lodges of this Grand Lodge or by members of lodges subordinate to other Grand Lodges residing within this Grand Jurisdiction be given unfavorable consideration by this Grand Lodge.

Respectfully submitted,
JAMES G. JOHNSTON, P.G.M., Chairman

REPORT OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON PUBLICATIONS

(Docket No. 28)

The following report of the Special Committee on Publications was deferred until the Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge in 1966:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

The Committee appointed under Docket No. 54 on Page 156 of the Proceedings of 1964, to consider the above subject, has undertaken to investigate the advisability of providing an official publication of The Grand Lodge, and we find so many problems and ramifications involved that we are not in a position to make a clear and satisfactory report. We believe, from what we have considered, that the program is feasible; provided, that the details can be worked out satisfactorily to the Grand Lodge.

We therefore recommend that this Committee be continued to make further investigation and report.

Respectfully submitted,
WATSON N. SHERROD, P.G.M., Chairman

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON OXFORD ORPHANAGE

(Docket No. 30)

The following report of the Committee on Oxford Orphanage was presented by Worshipful Cecil W. Henderson, Chairman, entered on the record and referred to the Committee on Finance:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

Your Committee on Oxford Orphanage has visited Oxford Orphanage and inspected the conditions of its property, management of its business, and examined the reports of its officers and directors.

We found the property, plant and equipment in good condition. It is evident from reviewing the reports of the officers and directors, that the business affairs have been efficiently conducted.

We report with pride that we found those enrolled displaying a joyous life for the most part, resulting from a lovely atmosphere promoted by consecrated, God-fearing servants. We can continue to participate in this restoration program for the good of our children by our regular support.

Your Committee commends all concerned for their efficient manner of operating our orphanage.

We recommend that this Grand Lodge make its usual contribution to the support of Oxford Orphanage for the year 1965.

Respectfully submitted,

CECIL W. HENDERSON, P.M., P.D.D.G.M., Chairman

REPORT OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON THE GRAND LODGE LIBRARY

(Docket No. 31)

The following report of the Special Committee on Grand Lodge Library was presented and entered on the record:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

The Grand Lodge Special Library Committee appointed by the Most Worshipful Grand Master is pleased to submit the following report:

We have examined the books and records in the library and find that since some work has been done in rearranging some shelving and thereby providing space for books and records heretofore not readily accessible to the Craft, the library is in a much improved condition.

We most heartily recommend to the many members of the Craft throughout the State that when in Raleigh they take time to visit their Grand Lodge Library, which is located in the Grand Lodge Building in Raleigh, and make use of the many valuable and interesting books, records and documents available to them.

Respectfully submitted, HIRAM J. CASEBOLT, P.M., Chairman

REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF THE MASONIC AND EASTERN STAR HOME OF NORTH CAROLINA, INC.

(Docket No. 32)

Brother Troy G. Robbins, Superintendent of the Masonic and Eastern Star Home of North Carolina, Inc., presented the following report which was received and entered on the record:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

One hundred and ten Guests are presently enrolled at the Masonic and Eastern Star Home though 597 names appear on the permanent register. It would be amiss to say that all 110 Guests are well and enjoying the best of health. Without contradiction, however, it is a fact that their health is better by their being here and having constant medical attention.

There are 22 permanent infirmary Guests, the remaining seven beds therein are occupied by temporary patients. The average daily infirmary enrollment for 1964 was 29 Guests. Seventy-three Guests spent as much as three days in the infirmary. Twelve Guests were admitted to Moses H. Cone Memorial Hospital for an aggregate of 141 days and ten of them underwent surgery. Two Guests had cataract operations on both eyes. We made 22 admissions during the year but only lost 12 by death and one left the Home voluntarily.

Our 1964 per capita cost was $1,765.50 which is only $15.00 more per Guest than for the previous year. This means that the increase in per capita cost for 1964 over 1963 was only $.04 per day. During the past seven years we have increased our enrollment from 75 to 110, which is a 46% increase. Even with our larger family we have 34 approved applicants on our waiting list.

From January 1st through December 31, 1964, we received a total of $213,867.39 for operating income and during the same period we paid out $225,978.15. The fact that $12,110.76 was not received from the Grand Chapter, O.E.S. before the last day of the year accounts for this apparent discrepancy. For the first time in the history of the Home, receipts from the Blue Lodges went over the one hundred thousand dollar mark. $102,314.02 was received from the Lodges in this North Carolina jurisdiction which was 27% more than for the previous year.

A word of deserving praise is certainly due our competent and dedicated employees. It is my pleasure and real joy to work with them. Unseen by the infrequent visitor is the senile decline and derangement of physical functions of many of our Guests. The attentive staffer can easily detect frustration, anxiety or depression and render the necessary treatment since this is an every day occurence in the Home. Second only to love, patience is a most needed virtue for all our employees as they must always display calm and uncomplaining endurance. We are fortunate to have such capable and compassionate people working here.

I am happy to report that attendance at the regular and called meetings of the Board of Directors surpasses by far that of prior years. Last year the average attendance at these meetings was 16 out of a Board membership of 20. All five meetings of the year were characterized by an important agenda, deliberate study and planning and unanimous agreement on all matters treated. Both Grand Bodies can be justly proud of their elected members representing them on the Board of Directors.

The first phase of our long range plans for increased facilities is well under way in that the new heating plant has been completed. The kitchen and dining room space designed for 65 Guests is still being used to handle our increased enrollment. It is hoped that within the next few weeks construction can be started on our new kitchen-dining room building. The next move will be the construction of additional living quarters to care for at least a portion of those who are in desperate need and on our waiting list.

On behalf of the members of the staff and especially the deserving men and women who are recipients of the generosity of Masons and Eastern Stars, I want to say thank you. I trust that our deserving Brothers and Sisters will rightly continue to feel that they are in the hands of friends upon whose fidelity they may confidently rely.

Respectfully submitted, REV. TROY G. ROBBINS Superintendent

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF GENERAL PURPOSES ON THE MEETING PLACE FOR THE ANNUAL COMMUNICATION IN 1966

(Docket No. 33)

Invitations were received by the Board of General Purposes to meet in the cities of Winston-Salem and Durham for the Annual Communication in 1966, and after careful consideration the Board voted to recommend to this Annual Communication that the invitation from Winston-Salem be accepted.

(A motion was made, seconded and carried unanimously, that the 1966 Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge be held in Winston-Salem.)

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CHARTERS AND DISPENSATIONS

(Docket No. 34)

The following report of the Committee on Charters and Dispensations was read and adopted by sections, then adopted as a whole:

To The Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

The Committee on Charters and Dispensations met on April 20, 1965, and examined the Petitions for Charters and other documents of Stump Sound Lodge U. D., Sneads Ferry, North Carolina and William Pitt Lodge U. D., Greenville, North Carolina.

Officers of these lodges under dispensation talked with the Committee and we were satisfied that they met the requirments of THE CODE relating to chartering new lodges.

We, therefore, recommend that these lodges be granted charters to work under the Grand Lodge of A. F. &. A. M. of North Carolina.

We also recommend that Stump Sound Lodge be given the number 733, and that William Pitt Lodge be given the number 734.

This Committee recommends that the members listed below he named as the principal officers of these lodges:

Stump Sound No. 733

David Woodrow Owens, Master Washington Winfield King, Senior Warden Andrew Stanley Cain, Junior Warden

William Pitt No. 734
Walter Herman Nobles, Master
William Hoke Smith, Senior Warden
Roy Adkins McKeithan, Junior Warden

We wish to take this opportunity to commend the members and officers of these lodges, the District Deputy Grand Masters and the District Deputy Grand Lecturers for the very fine work they have exhibited in the formation of these new lodges.

Your Committee also examined the petition and other documents of Fort Bragg Lodge No. 667 to move its meeting place from Fort Bragg, North Carolina to Spring Lake, North Carolina, and we recommend their request be granted.

Respectfully submitted, BERL M. KAHN

REPORT OF THE GRAND LECTURER

(Docket No. 35)

The following report of the Grand Lecturer was received and entered on the record:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

First, I wish to express my appreciation to all of those who have accorded me the privilege of serving as Grand Lecturer. My association with such a group of dedicated men who have unselfishly devoted themselves to the love of their fellowman and the Principles of Freemasonry has been a rewarding experience.

The year 1964 has been a very successful one and one in which considerable progress was made in the field of ritualistic proficency and Masonic Education. To the various Grand Lodge Officers and others who have given generously of their time and wise counsel goes the credit for whatever achievement has been accomplished.

To M.'.W.'.Grand Master G. Dudley Humphrey, I am indeed thankful for his valuable cooperation whenever called upon in all the programs but especially in the field of ritualistic proficiency.

For their guidance and wise counsel I shall always be grateful to M.'.W.'.Charles Newcomb, Past Grand Master, Past Grand Secretary, and Secretary, Board of Custodians, and many others for their valuable service and ever-ready willingness to help where needed. The job of Grand Lecturer would have been too difficult had I not had their assistance. I am particularly indebted to M.'.W.'.Charles A. Harris, Past Grand Master and Grand Secretary for his assistance, guidance, cooperation, as well as the facilities of his office at my disposal throughout the year. To the members of the Board of Custodians, I express sincere thanks for their kind advice, support and courteous cooperation.

I would like to pay special tribute to the fine dedicated group of District Deputy Grand Lecturers. These brethren have labored hard and given unreservedly of their time and talents in the fulfillment of their tasks. To them belong the credit for any achievement reported herewith. It is encouraging to note the extent to which the District Deputy Grand Masters have cooperated with the District Deputy Grand Lecturers in carrying out their various assignments and I am glad to take this means to thank them for their wonderful cooperation.

I am grateful for the many kind invitations to visit your Schools of Instruction, your District Meetings, your communications, etc., and I apologize that I could accept so few of them, however, I have spent practically all of my available time on administrative details of the important task of Grand Lecturer.

To committee members on revising the O. S. W. I wish to thank you for your generous time, hard work and cooperation on this piece of fine work.

REPLACEMENT OF DISTRICT DEPUTY GRAND LECTURERS

There have been two replacements during the year 1964-65. W. William H. Hurdle, P.M., C. L., District Deputy Grand Lecturer, appointed for the third Masonic District resigned in early August because he was moving to Littleton, N. C. Brother Ephey B. Priest was appointed in September to fill the unexpired term. W. Raymond A. Petty, C.L., District Deputy Grand Lecturer for the Sixth Masonic District, resigned June 30, 1964, because he was being transferred by his company to California. On September 12, Brother Melvin Oliver was appointed to fill the unexpired term.

We were saddened by the death of Brother Clifton Forbes Williams, who was District Deputy Grand Lecturer of the first Masonic District. Brother Williams passed away on December 29, 1964. He had completed his work and done an outstanding job for the year. Brother Williams had forwarded completed reports prior to his death therefore his unexpired term has not been filled.

LECTURE SERVICE

It is my pleasure to report that all lodges in this Grand Jurisdiction are current as to Lecture Service for the year 1964. This is the eighth consecutive year in which this perfect goal has been attained. Thanks to the District Deputy Grand Lecturers and Certified Lecturers for making this possible.

REPORT ON RITUALISTIC WORK AND ACTIVITIES

Of the fifty-seven Masonic Districts in the state, fifty-six have filed a report on conditions and activities of the lodges in their districts as required by THE CODE, one having failed to report. Forty three Districts report that two or more Schools of Instruction were held, ten had only one school, three had no school and one District failed to report.

MASONIC EDUCATION

The Lodge System of Masonic Education, which has been stressed and promoted by the Board of Custodians, is being used extensively throughout the jurisdiction. The reports indicate 346 lodges are now using this system. Six lodges state that it is not being used and no information on this subject is available from nine lodges in the forty-fourth District. It is hoped that during the coming year that every lodge in this state will use this important tool and make 1965 the first year we have 100% coverage.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON NECROLOGY

(Docket No. 38)

The following report of the Committee on Necrology was delivered by W. Brother Berl M. Kahn, Grand Steward, and entered on the record:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

Each year as we gather at this Annual Communication, it is most appropriate that we should pause for a moment to pay tribute to the memory of our Masonic brethren who have been called, by the Supreme Grand Master of the Universe to the higher lodge above. Day by day the all devouring scythe of time continues to take its accustomed toll, and many of the familiar faces of our beloved brethren are with us no more. We are deeply saddened by this great loss, and we realize that the chain of our masonic circle has been weakened. Nevertheless, we should be grateful that they were numbered among us, and we should be thankful to God that He gave them to us, if only for a short while. Life is but a span in length, and the days of our pilgrimage upon earth are few. Death summons away, in the midst of his day and usefulness, many a beloved brother of our craft. We behold his sun at meridian, and we rejoice at its brightness. But alas, it soon sets and the evening shades of earthly existence close around him forever.

We have no way of knowing the amount of influence that our departed brethren exerted day by day for the good and for the honor of our ancient craft. "No man liveth to himself and no man dieth to himself." The influence of one man, whose life is guided by the light of masonry, is far beyond estimation. One may build a mansion, may spend uncounted sums in raising its walls of marble and storing within it every element of beauty. Yet, he may pass from this mortal realm having accomplished but little. While another, never having built anything save a mansion of character, may leave a priceless legacy. However, the invisible stones were laid around his own spiritual temple. He may have left little save influence for good, but that influence exerted day by day falls into sensible souls. This influence shapes, molds, and directs the course of life, and it reveals the truth to countless others. A wise man of old has said, "It is because today seeks wisdom from yesterday that it can transmit wisdom to tomorrow." He also might have added that it is only as today seeks guidance and inspiration from yesterday that it can offer guidance and inspiration to the future. Thus, we are in a sense saying to our departed brethren, to those who have gone before us, look down upon us who seek to carry the torch that you kindled. That we may complete the designs that you placed upon the trestleboard, lighten our darkness; guide our stumbling feet; fire our fainting hearts; strengthen our trembling hands. In this way, we may well serve our generation and we are aided in our desire to leave a heritage that will be of value to those who come after us.

The last tributes offered to the dead are only useful as lectures to the living. We have rightfully inherited the responsibility, and to us, it should be a challenge to pick up the working tools of life that have dropped from the nerveless grasp of our beloved brethren. To carry on their unfinished labors should be a privilege as well as a responsibility.

"It is given to every man but once to die." The psalmist reminds us of this universal fact. In the midst of life we are in death, and none knows what a day may bring forth. The true Mason believes that there is that within us that shall never die. We are taught to believe that the soul is essentially immortal and that it is immortally blessed. The thought of immortality awakens us to a realization of life's true purpose and of our destiny. It bids us to be mindful of the supreme hour that will call us to eternal rest.

Our faith in immortality causes us to believe that there is life for us somewhere, and we ask not where. We can wait God's good time for that. Somewhere in this great universe, we shall surely join our brethren and be with them evermore.

> By faith, a steady course we steer Through ruffling storms and swelling seas; By faith, we pass the vale of tears Safe and secure, though oft distressed; By faith, subdue the king of fears, And go rejoicing to our rest.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON APPEALS

(Docket No. 39)

The Committee on appeals presented the following report, which was read, and upon motion, duly seconded, was adopted by sections and then adopted as a whole:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

The Committee on Appeals respectfully submits the following report:

- 1. Although no action was required by this Committee, and no report to the Grand Lodge is required, we have carefully reviewed all cases completed since the Annual Communication in 1964, in all of which the punishment imposed by the Trial Commissions was reprimand or suspension for a definite period of time, and find that the proceeding in this case, there being only one in number, was regular in all respects.
- 2. We have reviewed the record in all cases which have been completed since the Annual Communication in 1964, and now pending before the Committee, wherein the accused has been expelled under the provisions of Regulation 99-22. We particularly directed our attention to the strict compliance with the Regulation, and in each of the following cases we recommend that the decision of the Judge Advocate be affirmed by the Grand Lodge.

TRIAL DOCKET NO. 221: In the matter of charges preferred against a Master Mason of Monroe Lodge No. 244, A.F. & A.M.

Expelled: March 15, 1965.

3. We have reviewed the record in all cases which have been completed since the Annual Communication in 1964, and now pending before the Committee, in all of which the punishment imposed was expulsion, and in none of which the accused appealed from the decision of the Trial Commission. We directed our attention to the validity of the appointment of the Trial Commissioners, the services of notices upon the accused, the competency and weight of the evidence presented at the trial, and the decision of the Commission, all in accordance with the Regulations of this Grand Lodge as contained in Chapters 98 to 106, inclusive, of THE CODE of 1948, as amended. Your Committee approves the decision of the Trial Commission in the following cases, and recommends that the judgment of the Trial Commission in the cases be affirmed by the Grand Lodge.

APPLICATIONS FOR RESTORATION

- 1. In the matter of the restoration of Lee Howard Norris to Masonic Rights and Privileges. The application was filed with the Grand Secretary more than thirty days before this Annual Communication. This applicant was dismembered on May 1, 1955 (Trial Docket No. 77). A true copy of the application with statement of grounds upon which the petitioner seeks restoration was served on Neill S. Stewart Lodge No. 556, A.F. & A.M. in accordance with Chapter 109 of THE COPE of 1948, as amended, on December 29, 1964, more than ninety days before the Annual Communication. Said Lodge has not taken any official action recommending the approval of this application or opposing such. The petitioner appeared in person before this Committee and convinced the Committee of the sincerity of his repentance and rehabilitation. After carefully examining the record in this matter, this Committee recommends that the Grand Lodge restore Lee Howard Norris to all the Rights and Privileges of a non-affiliated Mason.
- 2. In the matter of application for restoration of C.G.F. to Masonic Rights and Privileges. The application was filed with the Grand Secretary more than thirty (30) days before this Annual Communication. This applicant was dismembered on the 3rd day of March, 1953 (Trial Docket No. 53). A true copy of application with statement of the grounds upon which the applicant seeks restoration was served on Fuquay Lodge No. 258, A.F. & A.M., in accordance with Chapter 109 of THE CODE as amended, on January 8, 1965, more than ninety days before this Annual Communication. Said Lodge has not taken official action recommending the approval of this application or opposing same. This Committee is of the opinion that the seriousness of the charges for which the petition was dismembered were such that he is not entitled to restoration at this time. For this reason this Committee recommends that the Grand Lodge deny such Application for Restoration.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM J. BUNDY, P.G.M., Chm. NORWOOD P. PARKER, P.M. CLARENCE B. SHULENBURGER, P.M. THOMAS G. SLATE, P.M. CARL W. POTEAT, P.M.

RESOLUTION OF THANKS TO RALEIGH

(Docket No. 40)

M. W. Brother W. Edward Burrier, P.G.M., presented the following resolution of thanks to the brethren of Raleigh, and it was adopted:

In truth, must one admit surely was clairvoyance so much farther advanced in earlier civilization than today for a couple of millennia ago the oft quoted Confucius was the originator (or did he use it as a cliche from still earlier generations?) "The truest flattery one can give one's host is to return to abide again."

What more appropriate object of that gem of wisdom than the lovely Capital of our State, the gracious City of Raleigh, since for our 178th Annual Communication, the Grand Lodge of North Carolina returned for the 147th time.

And what makes of a Metropolis a friendly City? The citizens, of course, hence, after a splendid accomplishment of a magnificent planning of localites headed by our genial brethren, R.W.Brother Robert Bass, Jr., M.W.Brother Charles A. Harris, W.Brother Robert P. Dudley, W.Brother Hiram Casebolt, W.Brother Hamil Swift, and their almost endless retinue of workers, we gratefully conclude that the clairvoyance of Confucius was even more extensive since obviously he foresaw the existence of these gregarious and hospitable brethren.

While we may not have the same powers of foresight, prognostication or view of the future, we do declare that we can be exceeded by no group, past, present or future in our gratitude to Perfect Hosts for a never to be excelled welcome and hospitality.

We leave you good brethren in Raleigh with a heartful of thanks and a promise to once more come again—and soon!

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON MASONIC JURISPRUDENCE

(Docket No. 41)

PRELIMINARY REPORT OF THE BOARD OF GENERAL PURPOSES

(Docket No. 44)

The following special report of the Board of General Purposes was read by M. W. Brother Charles A. Harris, P.G.M., Grand Secretary, and adopted by sections, then adopted as a whole:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

- 1. The Board of General Purposes unanimously recommends that publication of The Code be withheld, since action on a number of the proposed amendments has been postponed for a year and it would, therefore, be unwise and impractical to republish The Code, as has been ordered.
- 2. The Board of General Purposes unanimously recommends that the Grand Master's recommendation relative to notifying the Southeastern Masonic Conference that we have not affiliated with the said Conference be disapproved, such notification being deemed unnecessary.
- 3. The Board of General Purposes unanimously recommends the adoption of the resolution (Docket No. 29) presented by M.W. Brother Robert L. Pugh, P.G.M., endorsing application of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina for immediate membership in the Southeastern Masonic Conference and extending an invitation to the said Conference to hold its annual meeting of 1966 in North Carolina.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FINANCE

(Docket No. 46)

The following report of the Committee on Finance was read and adopted:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

Your Finance Committee reports that they have checked the report of the Grand Secretary and the audit of the Auditor, and find that the Grand Secretary's Office received the following amounts from the sources tabulated and in parallel columns shown the estimates in 1964.

Item I Actual	Budget
1. From lodges, per capita tax, Initiation fees, and other charges $182,795.00 2. North Carolina Masonic Foundation 21,900.00 3. Drewry's Memorial Gr. Sec. Fund 1,861.31 4. Interest earned 3,967.37 5. Sale of books and manuals 3,051.70 6. Expense Refund 700.00 7. Sale of old furniture 30.00 8. Lodge Demits 15.00 9. Other Income 1.00	$182,467.50 21,900.00 3,500.00 4,000.00 2,000.00 700.00
7. Other Income$214,321.38	$214,167.50

Estimates of income were very close to actual, being only $153.88 more than the estimated. Our expenses were over the budgeted expense by $6,029.72, which was caused by a donation to the Alaskan earthquake and several other items in the budget overspent by small amounts.

We have checked the audit of the North Carolina Masonic Foundation and find that the Foundation had an income of $45,290.05 with an expense account of only $1,057.96.

We wish to commend the Directors of the Foundation for the splendid job they are doing. We recommend that the income from the Foundation be contributed to the Orphanage, the Masonic and Eastern Star Home and to charity. After these payments have been made and a small operating fund retained, it is recommended that any surplus the Grand Lodge finds at the end of the year be transferred to the Foundation for investment.

We find a discrepancy in the Bank Balance in the Grand Treasurer's report and the Grand Auditor's report of $260.40 which is the result of two cancelled checks which the Grand Auditor placed in the report for 1964 and which will be shown in the Grand Treasurer's report for 1965.

The business of this Annual Communication of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina has been completed with the exception of the great pleasure of installing the officers who are to serve this Grand Lodge during the ensuing year. Before taking off my hat and relinquishing the jewel of my office, I desire to express my thanks to each and every member of the Grand Lodge Line, to the many, many Master Masons of North Carolina who have helped me in so many ways to discharge the burden and the duties of this office. # INSTALLATION REMARKS OF M.W.BROTHER SAMUEL ANDREW HENNIS, JR.

Grand Master of Masons in North Carolina

Governor Moore, Distinguished Guests, my Brethren and Ladies:

For the past six years I have been preparing for this moment and now that it is here, I am completely overwhelmed with the responsibility which I realize this office carries. You, the Masons of this Grand Jurisdiction, have put your confidence in me and I appreciate it more than I can express in these few words. I wish to express to Most Worshipful Brother W. Eli Hand my appreciation for appointing me in this Grand Lodge Line and I hope that I can fulfill his confidence in me. Too, I am grateful to Worshipful Brother A. Clark Lackey who appointed me in line in my own lodge, Granite No. 322. My deep appreciation to the members and officers of my lodge, Renfro Lodge No. 691, and others who have made an effort to attend this installation. To those from my district, I express my sincere thanks tonight. I feel that I have been elected to serve each subordinate lodge and each Master Mason in North Carolina, elected also to carry out the many duties of being your Grand Master. Please feel free to consult me at any time on any matter, if you feel I may be of asistance to you or your lodge. This, I am sure, also applies to your very capable Line Officers, for we are only your servants. We who are elected and appointed to this Line are but Master Masons. We wish to aid and assist in every matter and to uphold our Constitution, regulations, Masonic Usages and customs. It is my intention. God willing, to hold a district meeting in each of our fifty-seven districts. I ask for your continued and loyal support, as I will be greatly dependent on our Past Grand Masters, our Grand Secretary, his assistant, his office and each of you for advice and counsel. I wish to compliment our immediate Past Grand Master, Most Worshipful Brother G. Dudley Humphrey and the many Past Grand Masters who have served the Masons of our great state so well, along with each of you, who have made it a great Masonic state. May each of us work together as true Masonic brethren and strive to have a year that will be a credit to Masonry wherever we may be, both in and out of our lodges. Many thanks for giving me the opportunity to serve as your Grand Master and to represent you in the highest office you have to bestow.

A Joseph Montfort Medal was presented to M.'.W.'. Brother George Dudley Humphrey, P.G.M., by M.'.W.'. Brother Sam A. Hennis, Grand Master.

M. .. W. .. Brother SAM A. HENNIS, JR., GRAND MASTER:

To you, Brother Dudley, who have worked so hard for Masonry so many years: I never will forget the first time I came to Grand Lodge how much work you did in making reports and all the effort you have put forth over the many years that you have been a Mason. It is indeed a pleasure tonight that I have the privilege of presenting to you this Joseph Montfort Medal for the work that you have done for the Masons, the lodges, and the Grand Lodge of North Carolina.

(M. '.W. '.Brother Humphrey accepted the Medal with a few brief words of appreciation.)

PAST GRAND MASTER'S JEWEL PRESENTED TO M.W.GEORGE DUDLEY HUMPHREY

Past Grand Master of Masons in North Carolina A Past Grand Master's Jewel was presented to M.'.W.'. Brother George Dudley Humphrey, P.G.M., by M.'.W.'. Brother W. Eli Hand, P.G.M.:

M.'.W.'.W. ELI HAND, P.G.M.:

Most Worshipful Brother, immediately after you were installed as Grand Master one year ago, you stated, among other things, that what we needed most was not so many men in Masonry but more Masonry in the men who were members of our Fraternity. Your efforts in this behalf, I think, have been reflected this year. Of course, you have been working in Masonry in North Carolina and the Grand Lodge since 1949. You were well prepared when you took over the job as Grand Master. I can honestly say that you fought a good fight, you have kept the faith and you have also finished your course as Grand Master. Now, it is my pleasure, on behalf of the Masons in North Carolina, to present you this Past Grand Master's Jewel.

REVIEWS

— OF —

CHARLES H. PUGH, P.G.M.

CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEE ON FRATERNAL CORRESPONDENCE

FOREWORD

To The Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

We submit our fourth report as Foreign Correspondent and Grand Reviewer of the Grand Lodge of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons of North Caroling.

We want to thank Grand Master Humphrey for appointing us to this position of duty and responsibility of representing our Grand Lodge in the several Grand Jurisdictions with whom we are in Fraternal Relations. We are to investigate and decide, with the advice of our very efficient Grand Secretary, and securing such other information as may be available, to recommend the recognition of those Grand Jurisdictions who are not now so recognized, when we are satisfied that they have met all the requirements for recognition. We are also to investigate and recommend to the Grand Lodge, when we deem the conduct, beliefs and practices of those Jurisdictions who have ceased to meet the requirements for recognition, that all Fraternal Relations be withdrawn until such time as they can again meet the requirements that we deem necessary for recognition.

We are exceedingly fortunate in having as our Grand Secretary, a Mason who is probably as well informed in regard to Fraternal Relations, especially Foreign Jurisdictions, as any Mason in America. We also have access to the information given by the "Commission on Information for Recognition of the Conference of Grand Masters of Masons in North America," of which that distinguished Mason, Dr. Thomas S. Roy, Past Grand Master of Masons in Massachusetts, is the very efficient Secretary. We deeply appreciate the help and information that is available from this source. We referred to another distinct honor that has come to North Carolina in another report. At the meeting of the Grand Master's Conference in Washington in February our incoming Grand Master, Samuel A. Hennis, was elected a member of this Commission for a period of six years. This is indeed a deserving honor.

In presenting a Foreword to the Reviews, we refer to a few of the most discussed, most talked about, and probably the most inportant of any questions that have confronted Masonry in its long history. Following this, we are giving a more detailed Review of the activities of a number of individual Grand Jurisdictions. This is our fourth Review to be presented to several Grand Jerisdictions with whom we exchange Reviews, periodicals and other information. In the 1964 Proceedings and more especially in the few 1965 Proceedings that we have recieved, we are delighted at the reception that our efforts in this line have been received. To our many friends, who have made such favorable comments, we humbly say Thank You!

One Reviewer asks this question, has the "Brotherliness" of our Fraternity been overshadowed by ritualistic work and conferring degrees? Have we not buried our Brotherly Love beneath the organized efforts toward ritualistic proficiency? Do we not feel that unless we have degrees to confer there is no need of holding a meeting? He states in reply that "nothing could be further from the original purpose of our founders than this "Commercial" emphasis that has taken over. They were not interested in the number of new members they could get, but rather in how they could come to mean more to one another and develop stronger ties between the members they already had."

In concentrating on some of the proceedings, we find some addresses of Grand Masters, some orations and quite a few reports that would be both interesting and instructive to all of the Craft. In the Proceedings of the Grand Lodge of Indiana, we find in the report of the Reviewer membership statistics, what others say, and a long list of short paragraphs in topical form, most of which is very interesting. We are quoting a few: Under membership trends, he states:

Causes for Decline—"This loss of membership should be given every consideration by individual Lodges. It seems to have arisen from the following:

- "a. Undue solicitation used to enroll members during the past years. This is not truly Masonic and should be discontinued.
- "b. We provide too few opportunities for the new members to use their talents and wonder why they lose interest and drift away.
- "c. Every year we welcome into Masonic membership men of great potential for inspired dedicated leadership. Then we make certain they will have no opportunity to exercise it.
- "d. Lack of education. No attempt was made during the 'fifties, after degree work, to further enlightenment of the real meaning of Freemasonry, its aims and background."

In discussing oversize Lodges as being one of the causes of lack of interest, loss of members and other items that are detrimental to progress, he says "Georgia, after a few years' study, decided not to limit the size of Lodges by legislative action, but instead to work for a plan whereby new Lodges may be formed out of existing lodges. Kentucky-action was deferred for one year on a recommendation by the Grand Master that when a Lodge reaches a membership of 500 it be required to take a favorable action on a request to create a new lodge within its Jurisdiction. Several Grand Lodges are establishing publications especially for the Craft in general in their Jurisdiction. Alabama's newly established "Alabama Freemason" was so well liked that they requested an increase to 12 times a year and sold it for $1.00 per year. Utah has started a publication known as the "Utah Mason." Texas has started a very attractive publication known as the "Texas Freemason" which promises to be one of the best. It is being sent to all its members. The Grand Lodge increased the per capita tax 43 cents and sends it to all members. Florida has increased the size of its 'Florida Mason' and increased the number of copies printed. Pennsylvania has changed the format of the 'Pennsylvania Freemason' and is preparing a mailing list so that it might be distributed to the entire membership. Several other Grand Lodges are considering the establishment of 'Official Organs' or publications. This would be one more method of real 'Masonic Education.'

"A number of Grand Lodges are considering some method of changing the elevation of their appointive officers, especially in those who usually promote by a gradual up in line from the Stewards through the entire line, either appointive or elective.

"Masonry is facing one of the most critical periods of its history in the opinion of some of our Grand Masters. The greatest need today is consecrated, dedicated leadership,

"The Masonic Fraternity is confronted with the greatest challenge it has ever had to face on the North American continent. Our principles have and are being challenged and ridiculed. Every Grand Lodge is concerned with the condition of Freemasonry, not only in its own jurisdiction, but also with its condition in our country and in our western civilization. The conditions and problems which existed one year or more ago have not been solved.

"Freemasonry challenges no man's political creed, leaving that to his country and himself, and it does not interfere with any man's religious opinions, leaving that to a matter between his God and his conscience. It does seek to impress the power of truth, it embraces the highest moral laws, it seeks to uplift man, inculcating doctrines of patriotism and brotherly love, encouraging all that is good, and opposes all that is cruel and oppresive. It seeks to uplift everyone under its influence.

"Masonry has played an important part in the founding of our country, and in the establishment of the American way of life. Has masonry lost some of its influence, and is it failing to make its influence felt in America today? Is it failing to influence its membership and provide leadership? These are the big questions confronting and perhaps challenging the Masonic Fraternity today.

"Freemasonry does have a real job to make it stronger and greater. Freemasonry is confronted with a great challenge today. It is the job of every brother to warn the brethren of his Grand Lodge, and give them due and timely notice that they may ward off the approaching dangers to our honorable institution and to the society in which we live.

"Freedom is more than a word. It is a deeply cherished belief in the essential importance of the person and in the supremacy of a society which respects and safeguards the eminent dignity and integrity of personality.

"Freedom is a creative spirit that summons the energies of all men to the task of building the kind of community, the kind of nation, the kind of world in which they want to live. It is a dream of a world in which all men, and women, are encouraged to grow to their fullest, physically, mentally, spiritually, so that they may fulfill the great promise of their inner potential.

"But freedom is more than a belief or a dream. Freedom is also a process; as such it is concerned with means as well as ends, seeking through democratic methods to create the good society."

"History as a road in which the past has trod, reveals itself to the present in such a way that a future can be projected, and this past, this history is completely saturated and steeped with Masonic influence directing the affairs of men and nations in their political attainments wherein the desires in the hearts and minds of men have been to be free."

"In order to be sure of the context in which we are looking at Masonry as it relates itself to politics, allow me to adjust our thinking together on that which I am sure we will all agree as to what Masonry really is. Of course, Masonry is many different things to different people—its lessons, its symbols and its allegories are all subject to individual and personal interpretation, and Masonry does not attempt to encroach upon the mind of free men with dogma incapable of being believed and does not set a fear pattern compelling adherence. Affirmatively, therefore, and within the context we are considering here, we can all agree that the Masonic fraternity is an organization which has membership in every civilized country of the known world, and, that it is the belief of each individual member thereof that there is a God who is the Father of us all, and, that under Him we are all brothers, and we render this concept not limited to Masonic membership, but to all mankind."

"It cannot be too strongly stated that the world today is on the brink of disaster as the struggle continues between the Marxian view on the one hand that would destroy in order to conquer, and the capitalistic or free enterprise view on the other hand that seeks to set men and nations free. But what we Masons must understand is that the struggle or war is on, and is being conducted on our own soil. The war is principally directed at capturing the mind and will of the people. This is what we must fight with all the intelligence available to us—we must save and preserve our own nation before saving the world for posterity, or like all other nations of history that were dedicated to freedom, be crumbled from within. And to this end, politics will play a great part, and I am persuaded that the politics which is most likely to preserve our nation is that which shall be inspired by the principles of Freemasonry. Let us work together, my brethren, and not be weary in our efforts."

The individual Reviews of several Grand Jurisdictions follow.

Sincerely and Fraternally, CHAS. H. PUGH, P.G.M. Fraternal Correspondent and Grand Reviewer.

ALABAMA

144th Annual Communication, Montgomery, Alabama, Nov. 17, 1964. Bro. William Wallace, Jr., M. W. Grand Master. Members July 14, 1964, 75,124; Net Loss, 103; No. Lodges, 434; Past Grand Masters present, 14; Grand Representatives present, 114.

An Emergent Communication was called for the purpose of laying the cornerstone for the Administrative Building of the Grand Lodge of Alabama. This was at Montgomery and was attended by a large group of distinguished citizens and visitors.

At the Grand Masters banquet Monday evening, Nov. 16, the speaker of the occasion was the Honorable Geo. C. Wallace, Governor of Alabama, a Past Grand Orator of the Grand Lodge. The Proceedings state that he inspired his audience and was rewarded with generous applause. It is a good thing for Masonry to have as its patrons and supporters the heads of our government, local, state, or national. We are pleased to announce in North Carolina, that our present Governor, Hon. Dan K. Moore, is the Grand Orator of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina for the present year.

The address of the Grand Master represents a year sincerely dedicated to the responsibility before him. In all phases of his performing the duties of a Grand Master, he has demonstrated his ability to thoroughly analyze the subject before him and the fortitude to perform his duty as he saw the situation. While we cannot reconcile a net loss of 103 with such an energetic leadership, and with a time honored custom of continually making gains, yet we realize that there are certain local circumstances that cannot be analyzed by just reading the proceedings. The Grand Secretary makes an explanation that could apply to several Grand Jurisdictions. Several have had practically the same experience. They have had consistent gains for a long number of years and then for a year or two will be in the net loss column.

GRAND ORATOR

The address of the Grand Orator, who supplied on short notice was reported as awe inspiring and was received in a rapt manner. He was the R. W. and Rev. Bro. R. L. Brown, the Grand Chaplain, substituting for the Grand Orator. We quote the following paragraphs:

"Should our minds be turned to what is known to be a subject for this address it would be light. Light is no good unless it shines. Light was given to dispel darkness. As Masons we are taught the value of light. LET THERE BE LIGHT was one of the great statements of action by Our Lord in the Book of Genesis. Were it not for God then there would be no Masonry. It is a good time for each Mason in our state to think on these things and make a new examination of self in order to see where we stand as to what has made us Masons. This can be understood even in this complex society that we live in. Remember that it was Christ who said 'I am the Light of The World' and even a little later to His followers He said 'Ye are the Light of the World.' America, as well as the other nations, are in great darkness. If there could be a note sounded here now, it should be one of stepping up the Teachings of Light and all that Light will do.

"Many great and noble men in the history of our nation believed and practiced as well as belonged to the Masonic Order. They were not ashamed of their beliefs and rightly stood for all that they had been taught in the Masonic Lodge. Study the many Presidents who were Masons. George Washington will always stand out in our minds as one of our greatest Masons. Think of men like those in the Bible days like Solomon and readily you will see that all down through the centuries since the beginning of time loved Masonry. Men in our present day are also lovers of our Order. Light is being revealed in some parts of our state more than in others. The shift of population has caused much of this. Our Nation will need men today and tomorrow also that will not be hypocritical, but will be men of light that God alone is abe to give."

Evidently an excellent administration regardless of the slight loss in membership.

ARIZONA

87th Annual Communication, Holbrook, Arizona, April 27, 28, 1964.
M.:.W.:.William R. Bourdon, Grand Master. Membership Jan. 1, 1964, 13,143. Net gain. Past Grand Masters present, 23.

He held one Emergent Communication and 5 Special Communications.

The Grand Master in his address stated that he was favorably impressed with the Grand Masters Conference of North America and also the South Western Conference.

He granted dispensations in those cases that apparently came within the law.

He also made some recommendations that appeared to be constructive in nature.

Worshipful Brother Vernon D. Hegge, Grand Orator, delivered a fine Oration on: "Use your Influence." We quote from that Oration:

"We frequently read or hear of moral decay supposedly taking place in the United States. Although much of this is perhaps attributable to cynicism, exaggeration, and improved news reporting media, one has only to observe the happenings in his own neighborhood to conclude that there is much in our society which warrants improvement. Such traits as compassion, honesty, fortitude and patriotism are seemingly no longer held in the high esteem they were just a few years ago. Less and less emphasis is being placed on them in our schools and to publicly voice admiration for these traits is to risk being contemptuously labeled as a "square".

"Cheating on such things as expense accounts, insurance claims, and income tax are commonplace. It has been predicted that American employees will steal over one billion dollars this year in petty cash, and office supplies. That's more than twice as much as all the professional thieves will get.

"Even when individuals elected to high positions in government on labor unions are found guilty of flagrant abuse of authority or misuse of funds we are not particularly surprised or incensed. And conversely, the official who makes personal sacrifices and works long and hard to benefit his fellow citizens receives little credit for his efforts and is often unfairly classed as "just another politician."

"Not long ago I heard a newspaper editor ask a man who had devoted a great deal of time to fraternal and community affairs, "What are you building up to—what office are you going to run for?" I am not at all sure that the editor was even convinced that a man would willingly devote that much time and effort and not expect some personal gain in return.

"That man is a Mason and many other Masons like him generously give of their time and talents to promote the tenets of Masonry and enhance their local and national society and they do a lot of good. Most of us could do more. We hold back for such reasons as a lack of self-confidence or the belief that it really won't do much good anyway.

"Have you ever stopped to consider how much you do influence the thoughts, opinions and actions of others? A scientific firm a few years ago did just that.

"They found that the average person had a direct influence on the thoughts, opinions, and actions of 22 other people and of course those 22 people in turn influenced others, so one statement or act can ultimately influence a great many people. Just imagine the number of people whose thoughts, actions and opinions are directly influenced by the members of this Grand Lodge! And how much we could achieve if we all used our influence to its maximum advantage."

In 1962 Arizona was one of 6 states or Grand Jurisdictions which recorded a net gain in membership in Grand Lodge, Grand Chapter, Grand Council, Grand Commandery and the Scottish Rite Bodies. The six states are: Arizona, Mississippi, Nevada, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Tennessee.

Under the title "Life Membership" we find this: Honorary. To be obtained as provided for in regulation No. 11.

Purchased life membership. A Lodge, by the adoption of a standing resolution to that effect, which Resolution shall not be acted upon at the stated meeting at which it is introduced, nor until notice in writing thereof shall have been forwarded by mail to every member of the Lodge, may provide for a system of life membership, which shall forever exempt a member from dues therein, except such contributions as the Grand Lodge may levy in accordance with Article 8, Sec. 32, paragraph 5.

Said Resolution shall provide that life membership shall be granted only to those members who have continuously for ten consecutive years paid dues to said Lodge and then only upon payment of a sum of money named therein, which sum shall in the case the annual dues of $12.00 or less, be not less than the sum of $200.00 and the minimum amount to be proportionally greater as the dues are greater. Said Resolution shall take effect only after its approval by the Grand Master.

No such life membership shall be granted except upon payment by the Lodge to its Life Membership fund or a sum of money named therein. Money received for such Life Membership shall be kept deposited in a savings account in a reputable bank or invested in bonds of the U.S. or the State of Arizona, or of a County or City of Arizona until the death of the member whose account the money was received, after which the same may be used for any Masonic purpose. The interests received on deposits or investments of money from life membership may be used for any Masonic purpose.

When two or more Lodges consolidate, all money in life Membership shall be transferred to the of such consolidated Lodge.

Holders of Life Membership Certificate are subject to all the laws, rules and regulations of the Grand Lodge of Arizona and loss of membership by a suspension or expulsion shall automatically abrogate life membership and any claim to any portion of any fees paid for such life membership.

Senior Life Membership. Any Master Mason of this Jurisdiction who is the recipient of a 50 year gold award, shall be forever exempt for further payment of dues and granted a Senior Life Membership, provided that he shall have continuously been a member in good standing of a regularly Chartered Lodge of Lodges under the Jurisdiction of this Grand Lodge for not less than 25 years immediately preceding the requisition by this Lodge for a 50 year button.

A Lodge granting such Senior Life Memebrship shall not be required to pay any per capita tax or annual contribution to the Grand Lodge for any such member carried on its roll.

We recommend that this report be referred to a special committee to be reported on at the 83rd annual Communication of this Grand Lodge. Adopted, reported adopted as a whole.

COLORADO

103rd Annual Communication, Denver, Jan. 28-29, 1964. M. W. Clarence L. Bartholic, Grand Master. Membership 47,034; Net Loss 252; No. Lodges 168. 164 of the 168 Lodges were represented at this Annual Communication.

The Grand Master in his address reports the laying of 16 Cornerstones. One for a Masonic Temple, eleven for school buildings and four for other public buildings. The fraternity evidently is in good favor with the citizenship of Colorado. Fifteen Cornerstones for public and Educational Edifices, and one for Masonic purposes. He reports one which he terms "Cornerstone Ceremony in Reverse." This was the lowering of the cornerstone from the old University of Denver Manual Training School Building, which had been laid by the Grand Lodge of Colorado in 1887. One of the items listed in the contents of this was "A copper plate engraved with name of the donor of the building, one Jacob Haisch who resided in Illinois; and two eight inch pieces of barbed wire indicating Mr. Haisch's thanks for the products of his firm sold in this Western Country and his devotion to the public education needs of the West."

A few years ago the Grand Lodge created a Committee on Policy and General Purposes. At this session, the committee was discontinued. No reason is given for this action. Probably they have some duplicating Committees. We think they would need a committee on General Purposes, although it may be called by another name.

A dispensation was issued for the forming of one new Lodge during the year, and they were granted a Charter at this communication.

The Grand Master incorporated in his address the following: "I believe that one of the most outstanding visitations that I made was the one to Carbondale Lodge No. 82 at Carbondale, Colorado. As you know Carbondale is the home Lodge of Bro. L. Gordon Cooper, the world famous astronaut who has brought so much glory to our entire nation. Bro. Cooper had a flag made which he carried with him in the Orbits and which he presented to the Lodge on November 29, 1963, the evening I was present." This is indeed an historic flag, and undoubtedly prized highly by this Lodge.

The Grand Orator delivered a very inspiring message. Space forbids quoting more than one paragraph of this fine address: "The ties which unite the Masonic Brotherhood as one family are, friendship, love and charity. Friendship to each other, love to all mankind and charity toward the poor, the suffering, and the afflicted, and when these are practiced by Masons, who will say that they do not constitute ties that can never be broken and which will last until time shall be no more."

M. . W. . Charles L. Thompson was elected Grand Master, and our old friend Past Grand Master Harry W. Bundy was re-elected Grand Secretary. If all our Masonic organizations could have the privilege of having a Harry Bundy for its Grand Secretary, we would be presenting a different picture today. This Scribe has had a profound admiration for him for a number of years.

CONNECTICUTT

176th Annual Communication, Hartford, April 1-2, 1964. M. W. Frank H. Linsley, Grand Master. Membership Dec. 31, 1963, 46,397; Net Loss (taxable) 501, net 453; Chartered Lodges 134; Dual Memberships 174.

The Grand Masters address is evidence of a full years devotion to duty. In one of the first subjects he discusses "The Condition of the Order." Since the conditions in his Jurisdiction are similar to a large number of others, we quote his discussion of this subject. We hope those interested will think this subject through, and possibly some benefit can be derived from his presentation of the subject.

"In my travels about this Grand Jurisdiction the past few years, I have heard many complaints regarding the inability to plan good comprehensive programs because of the rather poor timing of the many annual events.

"The annual elections in the constituent lodges are generally held in December with the installation of the Master-elect taking place in late December or early January. The newly installed Master starts activity in connection with his developed program, which is probably planned to carry through until the end of June. "But in April comes the Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge and the election of a new Grand Master. The program and new ideas which he has to offer, if they are to be put into practice, means a revision of the programs in the constituent lodges. This can lead to confusion, readjusted plans, and possibility of ineffectual planning in the long run.

"By the time adjustments are made, the summer recess of July and August has arrived. This is a breather for the officers of the Constituent Lodges to reorganize the various programs and by mid September activities are again going forward. However in three short months the annual elections of the constituent lodges are on the calendar.

"Somewhere in the six active months from April through November the District Deputies have had to complete the official inspections.

"Believing that there might be some better arrangement that could be found, I directed the committee on the Condition of Masonry to look into the matter. You will hear their report later in this Annual Communication.

"I feel that the Committee has found a very desirable solution to this matter. Their report will recommend that the constituent lodges and the Grand Lodge close their books on May 31st, that the constituent lodges hold their election and installation in the month of June; that the Grand Lodge holds its Annual Communication in September.

"Since these changes will have to be initiated by a change in the Constitution of the Grand Lodge, no formal action can be taken at this Communication. However, what is important at this Communication is that you indicate your approval or disapproval of the Committee recommendation based upon your evaluation of whether or not such change will be beneficial to your lodge, its program and activities.

"If the indications are favorable a resolution will be presented later in this Communication to change the date of the Grand Lodge Annual Communication, which resolution must lay on the table until the next Annual Communication for action."

They have an official publication known as the Connecticut Square and Compasses. It is known as the voice of the Blue Lodge. Wor. Bro. Ora W. Furman Publisher and R.W. Bro. James R. Case, Grand Historian, are doing a wonderful piece of work in reporting activities and coming events in Connecticut Masonry together with many historical facts of great interest. It is truly unfortunate that less than 10% of Connecticut Masons subscribe to this worthy magazine. He appointed a committee to investigate more fully and ascertain if possible the reason for such a small percentage interested, and to possibly extend its field of usefulness by adding other functions to the objectives of the publication.

We like the idea of the Grand Historian being included in this enterprise. When we made our recommendations at the end of my year as Grand Master I included a recommendation that contained part of what the Grand Master had in mind. Our recommendation was:

"I recommend that the incoming Grand Master appoint a Committee to study the various angles and possibilities of a program of Masonic Education which would include the Grand Lodge Library, Lodge of Research and other activities as would be under this caption and report the results of their findings to the next Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge."

This committee for some reason was never appointed, although all our recommendations were approved and adopted by the Board of General Purposes. It was our idea to include under this head, the Grand Lodge Library, the Grand Historian, Masonic Education in its broadest sense of securing Masonic information, probably an official organ with competent and informative editorials—and make all this available to any member of the Craft in North Carolina. It was not to interfere with the present system of Masonic Education or the duties of the Board of Custodians.

M. W. Earl K. Haling, P.G.M., is the Committee on Correspondence. He has prepared an excellent number of Reviews of several of the Grand Jurisdictions. They are written in excellent style, present a very descriptive picture of the situation and should receive the commendation of all Reviewers.

North Carolina is not reviewed.

IDAHO

97th Annual Communication, McCall, Idaho, Sept. 15, 16, 17, 1964. Bro. Iver J. Longeteig, M. W. Grand Master. Membership, 14,561; Net loss 60; Lodges, 84; Emergent Communications 3; one for the funeral services for Most Worshipful Bros. Irvin Roberson, A. Edward Prince and W. Wade Wibeon at Cataldo, Idaho; one for the dedication of the New Temple of Silver City Lodge No. 13 at Homedale, Idaho, Grand Representatives present 49. Past Grand Masters present 13.

The Grand Master presented his annual report which was received with a standing ovation. He attended all the District Meetings except two, on these occasions he was unavoidably detained. He also made a large number of visits other than District Meetings. He made some other visits outside the State and attended the conference of Grand Masters of North America in Kansas City, Mo.

His dispensations granted appeared to be within the usual reasons for dispensations. He favored the idea of the Grand Lodge Bulletin to be sent to each Mason in Idaho. They began the publication of the "Idaho Masonic Beacon", which cost the Grand Lodge about $1200.00 or a little less than .09 per member.

In his conclusion he states that he visited 57 of the 84 Lodges in the State. Travel by auto has exceeded 30,000 miles, with many more by train.

Address of Grand Orator. This is one of the finest and most important Orations that we have covered this year. Quoting a few paragraphs:

"Juvenile delinquency is a public scandal, sex crimes mount, streets are unsafe at night, mugging, beating, sadism proliferate. Police authorities often handicapped by soft prosecution in high court decisions are unable to adequately cope with the problems.

"There is a growing loss of confidence in areas of government, in officials, even in the sytem itself which can prove the most critical sickness of all. Ugly lunatic fringe groups have grown up. A Neurotic cynicism has taken the place of patriotism. Optimism in the future of America and trust in its institutions of liberty are in danger of atrophy.

"Why? How can this happen when we have more than any people ever had. What are the effects of this shift in values upon our concept of government? To me they are many, dangerous and sad. In total and in the ultimate they may someday add up to a reversal of the American Revolution and return to the tyranny of government which our founding fathers worked so diligently to forestall."

Their Committee on Fraternal Relations made a very extensive report. We quote a few paragraphs:

"This year your Committee on Fraternal Relations is making no recommendations to extend Fraternal Relations to any more foreign jurisdictions. There are some Grand Lodges that are struggling along under difficult conditions and recognition might be encouraged to them, however, the political situation in these countries are in such unsettled turmoil that we think best to wait until more harmony exists among the contending factions.

"In France we must report no change. There are three Grand Lodges with only the National Grand Lodge of France considered regular. On Okinawa a dispute is going on between the Grand Lodge of the Philippines and the Grand Lodge of Japan. This island is now considered a part of Japan and under the jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge of Japan.

"Cuba remains a confusing headache and unless conditions do change we may have to withdraw recognition. One U.S. Jurisdiction withdrew recognition this last year. Communication with them is almost nil and reports are conflicting. We have taken no action against Cuba because we believe many members there are true to the principles of Freemasonry. The question is how many communists have infiltrated their membership and who controls the Grand Lodge.

"There is evidence of more Grand Lodges in foreign countries that are realizing that if they expect to receive recognition it will be necessary to comply with the universal standards of regularity. A few are almost atheistic and do not require the Volume of the Sacred Law on their altars, some say they require it but from evidence gathered they do not enforce the requirement.

"Let us hope and pray that with modern transportation shrinking the earth we may soon have peace and the Brotherhood of Freemasonry may become truly universal."

LOUISIANA

153rd Annual Communication, New Orleans, Feb. 3-4, 1964. M.'.W.'.L.
V. Noles, Grand Master. Membership 51,434; Net gain 13; City of New Orleans, No. Members in New Orleans, Dec. 31, 1962, 11,551; No. Members in New Orleans Dec. 3, 1963, 11,335; Net Loss (New Orleans) 1963, 216; No. Lodges in Louisiana, 278.

According to a statistical table on Page 65 of the Proceedings of Louisiana at their Annual Communication Feb. 3, 1964, there were 282 Lodges with a total membership of 51,434, which was the largest number of Lodges and the largest number of members from 1924 to 1963 inclusive.

Only 11 Grand Representatives answered roll call. North Carolina was not represented.

The Grand Master reported four Cornerstones laid, of which two were for Lodges, one for a church building and one for a City Hall.

Two Lodges were dedicated, one Lodge was constituted. Dispensation was issued for the forming of three New Lodges and one Lodge working under dispensation was constituted in 1962. All four of these Lodges were granted Charters at this Grand Communication.

Fraternal recognition was extended to the Grand Lodge of Turkey. The Oration was delivered by Joe D. Waggoner, Jr., member of Congress—member of Plain Dealing Lodge No. 237. His subject was "Freemasonry, Yesterday, Today, and Tomorrow." This is one of the finest Orations we have read or heard this year. I only regret that we cannot quote the entire discourse. We quote a few paragraphs:

"Freemasonry had its origin in the yesterday of time in response to a demand of human nature for a community, or fraternity, wherein the welfare of a brother was to be a moving force. Members of Freemasonry, in the beginning, gathered together to seek mastery of their task on earth. They were busy men, as we are busy men. They sought to fulfill their responsibilities as members of the Craft. They desired to create a healthy and enlightened opinion which could be applied to the affairs of their communities, their States and the National life. They came into this fellowship of their own free will and accord, professing a trust in God, love for mankind, dedication to the advancement of their fellow men and above all, service to their Maker. They did not choose an easy way. They chose a rugged road of duty, determined to make the world a better place for us and our children unto the end of time. They did not come this way because they had nothing to do-nor are we here tonight because we have found too much time on our hands.

"By choice, as did our forebears, we came freely into the Masonic orders trusting the good faith and combined wisdom of our Brothers. The glad hands of friendship and the tender hearts of sympathy are always in our midst.

"Since the inception of Freemasonry, and throughout the ages of its existence, its ideals as a free institution have met challenge after challenge. Yet under the watchful eye of the Great Architect of the Universe, Freemasonry has continued to flourish and to grow and to meet and overcome these challenges to its being.

"In reflecting upon the history of our freedom, we are compelled to recognize that it did not come to us as a gratuity. Rather, these freedoms are ours to enjoy because they were achieved with the sweat, toil, tears and, yes—even blood—of those who have gone before us—whether Masons or not—whose faith in the future of a free and upright America overcame in strength the evil forces of moral and physical lassitude which constantly assail the character of every generation of humanity.

"This blessed heritage of liberty under God is not ours to do with as we see fit. Instead, it is ours to hold in trust for the enjoyment of future generations of Americans. We must maintain and preserve that heritage untarnished; we must protect it against the onslaughts of moral decay if we are to discharge with honor the sacred trust we bear.

"Today, we are living in an expanding world which grows broader, higher, and deeper each day. The individuals and the organizations who do not or will not expand with it, will surely be pruned as one cuts off the dead branches of a once fruitful tree. This is an elemental, basic, fundamental fact which cannot be ignored.

"My Brethren, in all our highly vaunted twentieth century wisdom, which taught us to split the atom and to harness the energy of the sun, and which enables us to orbit men in space, there has yet to be found a suitable substitute for faith in the existence of a living God, and it is here that we find the Achilles Heel of Communism. We must see to it that this atheistic doctrine is destroyed in our generation; no later.

"If we are to be true to the trust of our Obligation, we, as Master Masons, must join actively in the fight to preserve the spiritual values which are the hallmark of our Order. There can be no compromise with the forces of evil, lest those who follow in generations yet unborn shall be shackled by the tentacles of Communist enslavement.

"We must search our souls and our sense of values. We must cut ourselves loose from the free floating buoy of expedience and anchor ourselves on the rock of eternal truths; the truths that are so richly a part of Freemasonry.

"It is impossible for Freemasonry, even if it wished, to remain detached, unconcerned and aloof from this course of events. Regardless of its historic position of non-interference in affairs other than its own, the great political and economic forces that are at work here at home and in the world, inevitably drag the organization into the midst of contending ideologies.

"We are living in a time when people are questioning fundamental concepts that have existed for hundreds of years.

"Our Nation was created under Divine guidance for a purpose. We are under obligation to understand and carry out that purpose. We have a heavy task of individual preparation for that mission, but we are endowed with ample capabilities for it. That endowment includes the individual liberty to take part in the mission as we choose. It is inevitable that we shall each receive the type of reward that our choice merits. Liberty and freedom carry either a reward or penalty, and, as we choose, we are responsible for the result. Let us be ever mindful of the past by taking pride in the attainment of our predecessors. Let us today meet the challenge of our times so that our successors tomorrow will find pride in us. Freemasonry and the world tomorrow will be what you and I Freemasons of today make it."

This Oration should be made available for every Lodge in the U.S.

They have no Reviews. Instead, they devote 223 pages to publishing the Roster of the Officers, Past Masters, and certain other data of all the Lodges of Louisiana.

MAINE

145th Annual Communication, Portland, May 5, 1964. M.W. Raymond M. Rideout Sr. Grand Master, Membership, Jan. 1, 1964 47,189; Net loss 285.

The Grand Master's Banquet was held on May 4, the evening before Grand Lodge was opened. The dinner speaker was M. W. W. Edward Burrier, Past Grand Master of Masons in North Carolina.

North Carolina had the pleasure of having as two of its distinguished guests in April of this year 1965 the Past Grand Master of Maine, M.W. Raymond M. Rideout, Sr., and the Most Worshipful Grand Master, Wallace H. Campbell.

The Grand Master reports the laying of one cornerstone for a new Masonic Temple, and the Dedication of three new Masonic Halls. In connection with this he says, "There can be no question in the mind of any Grand Master that our brethren love this fraternity and are proud of its accomplishments."

Their largest Lodge has a membership of 1231 and the smallest has 48 members. The average membership is 226 and 32 Lodges have less than 100 members. The Lodges reported $21,791.00 paid for relief, which does not include the amount paid by Grand Lodge.

The Swiss Grand Lodge Alpina was extended Fraternal recognition. At the same time they suspended Fraternal relations with the Grand Lodge of Cuba in Cuba untill such time as that country shall return to a State of sound government that would warrant a resumption of their former relations.

At the banquet of the Grand Master held on Monday Night, May 4, 1964, over 20 distinguished visitors from as many Grand Jurisdictions were present.

As we mentioned in the beginning of this Review the speaker of the evening was a Past Grand Master of North Carolina, M. W. W. Edward Burrier.

We quote a few paragraphs of his address.

"As Masonry regards no man for his worldly wealth or substance so does it not rely upon externals to perpetuate its existence.

"Oh, my Brethren, there is security while truth is great and mighty above all things and on these sublime tenets rests the vast structure secure, confident that at the last that glorious lesson of faith and hope and charity it teaches shall ultimately prevail.

"To attentive ears, instructive tongues and faithful breasts, its honor has been committed and not to the tender mercies of any dictator or autocrat or president however great or honored. In the hands of Brethren bound together by this cable tow it has endured and has withstood and will endure and will withstand the hour of danger and lapse of time.

"Today, Freemasonry stands proud and honored supplicating no one for favors, dreading no earthly power, extends east to west, between North and South, from surface to center, earth to Heaven, truly universal, numbering at its Altar the prince and the pauper, high and low, rich and poor, who mingle equally on the mosaic pavement without a feeling of restraint on the one hand or condescension on the other. From the lofty pinnacle of perfection which it has attained it beckons us onward. While we are led by upright regular steps, perpendicular, to mount the ladder whose highest rung if bathed in Heavenly light we are encouraged and we are warned that only those who trust in God may venture to approach fearing no danger.

"We search the wide world over but we search in vain to find a similar group that dare call itself a ritual. Lost in the ages of antiquity, no history tells the outer world where or by whom Freemasonry was first established. The Rocks of Judea, the pyramids of Egypt, resurrected cities, the old sciences of the East, only tell us that it lived with them and not until that masterpiece of beauty, that Temple of our first M. E. Grand Master in Jerusalem was built is there inferred anything regarding its origin.

"Today Masonry stands in all the splendor of an acknowledged monarch whose influence is universal and whose law is love, whose bounds is that cable tow of clasped hands that encircle the whole earth and whose points of order are those perfect points that touch every obligation of man to man and man to God.

"During the deepest part of winter a wealthy man took a poor boy from the city to his lodge. The next morning the rising sun reflecting upon the windows from the lofty pinnacles awoke the boy and he rubbed his eyes and fear seized him. He remembered a great tenement fire in which people he had known burned to death. He called out, 'Please sir, wake up, something awful is happening. The whole world is on fire.' His benefactor opened his eyes and seeing the glorious flame pictures of the Great Artist, our Maker, emblazoned on the tapestry of the skies, calmed him with, 'Don't be afraid, my boy, everything is all right. The world isn't on fire, rather it is just the dawn of a new day.'

"My brethren, the world is on fire but it need not be the holocaust or catastrophe of destruction. With your efforts as Master Masons and in propagating these Masonic traditions that have come down to you from ages past it can be, it must be, the dawn of a new day. Thank you, Brethren."

The Foreword of the Fraternal Correspondent contains these paragraphs:

"If we do not care enough about our Masonry to confer its beautiful degrees in an accurate, dignified and impressive manner, we cannot be surprised if our candidates attach little value to that which they have received at our hands. They asked us for bread, and we have given them a stone. They expected much of Masonry, but have received little. They made an honest investment of their time and money, and have been swindled. If, in their disappointment and disgust, they turn away from our lodges, we have only ourselves to blame. When candidates never return to the lodge after the night of their raising, and when men of the highest quality never advance beyond the Entered Apprentice degree, it is painfully evident that we have failed in our presentation of Masonry. This failure is the greatest Masonic tragedy of our time.

"When will our Brethren learn that a degree belongs to the candidate who has paid good money to receive it? It is conferred solely for his Masonic instruction, and not in any way for the entertainment of the brethren on the sidelines. Poor degree work, horseplay and roughness not only alienate our candidates but also drive away from our meetings those of our Brethren who really love Masonry, and who are unwilling to see its solemn ceremonies turned into a mockery and a farce. Every thinking Mason should use his influence to see that the degrees in his lodge are conferred in such a manner as to impress the candidates with the dignity and high importance of Masonry, to win his respect, and to convince him that Masonic membership is indeed an honor.

"Constant education, close supervision, and, when necessary, prompt corrective action are the best cures for this evil.

My Brethren, there is nothing wrong with Freemasonry. Its fundamental principles and teachings—belief in God, belief in the value and importance of prayer, acceptance of the Holy Bible as the rule and guide of one's faith, and belief in the Immortality of the Soulbeing of Divine origin, are immutable and eternal. Its organization, Ritual, Usages and Customs, evolved and perfected through centuries of experience and proven by the test of time, are in no need of improvement or modernization at our hands. Instead of attempting to improve Freemasonry, something which cannot be done, let us rather attempt to improve ourselves in Freemasonry, something which needs to be done very badly. No man knows all there is to know, about Freemasonry. Every Mason, from the youngest Entered Apprentice to the senior Past Grand Master, can profit by a continued study of the history, philosophy, ritual and symbolism of our Order.

LET US ALL STRIVE TO MAKE OURSELVES BETTER MASONS."

His reference to North Carolina and to this Scribe in particular is greatly appreciated.

111th Annual Communication, Saint Paul, March 11, 12, 1964. M. W. Paul M. Grand Master's Address-"State of The Craft"

This year for the third year, we show a loss in membership. That we have had more than fourteen hundred deaths is something which was not overcome by an increase in the number raised, indeed there was a drop in that number also. There was an increase in the number stricken from the rolls. It is to be hoped that a careful examination is made of the conditions which cause a Brother to fall in arrears before dropping him from the rolls. M. W. Brother Harvard Olson has said that he feels that there is nothing wrong with Masonry in Minnesota, but that there is something wrong with some of the Masons. It is to be hoped that we are motivated by a desire for quality rather than quantity in our membership."

Grand Masters Award

This year there are two Grand Masters Awards to individuals. One to Brother Chas. W. Mayo for distinguished humanitarian efforts in the field of Medicine and Surgery and also in the field of Civil and numanitarian activities.

One to Brother Victor J. Michaelson for years of devoted service to Freemasonry.

The Grand Master made a large number of official visits. He also made the following recommendations:

"The project 'Handclasp' was pursued vigorously and through the efforts of the Grand Secretary and W. Brother Seltzer more than 190 cartons of school books have left here for the Philippines."

"I recommend that the project be continued as information comes to us as to ability to transport the books."

"I recommend that the Scholarship Progam be continued and that the Appropriation Committee make sufficent funds available for that purpose." "I recommend that the 'Minnesota Mason' be continued and that we make every effort to see the several issues get into the hands of those for whom they are intended."

"I recommend that the Minnesota Masonic Memorial Fund, Inc., be given our full support until its goal is reached."

They support an institution known as the Minnesota Masonic Home. The report of the President states that at the close of 1963 they had 215 residents in the Masonic Home. Of these 171 were women, 44 were men; there were 12 married couples. According to this report about 80% were women. The average age during 1963 was 82.3. The year before it was 82.2. At the end of the year there were 32 residents over 90 years of age; 108 were between 80 and 90; 68 were between 70 and 80 and seven were under 70 years of age. Brother Thomas Yould, who is the oldest resident will be 107 years of age. He also has the distinction of being the oldest living Mason in the world.

They have a fine Infirmary. As of the 31st day of December 1963 the total assests of the Institution were $5,819,854.00. The average monthly maintenance cost per resident was $140.16 in 1963.

They are very favorable to the order of DeMolay. They also publish "The Minnesota Mason," seven issues per year with an average of 64748 and at a cost of $15,966.16.

The Committee on Foreign Correspondence does not have any information to justify making a different policy. However, they are open to new evidence and to consider any change in the attitude of the opposing parties. This was in regard to Cuba.

The Oration was given by W. Bro. Donald W. Schmidt. His subject was "Masonry and the Church." It was received with generous applause.

They have no Reviews.

MISSISSIPPI

146th Annual Communication, Meridian Feb. 11, 12, 1964, M. W. James T. Brown, Grand Master. Membership Aug. 31, 1963 50,634. Net Loss, 238; No. Lodges represented, 270; 61 Grand Representatives present. N. C. not represented.

The Grand Master gave a very interesting report of his official acts. Four cornerstones were laid, two for new Lodge buildings, one for a Church Orphanage Building and one on the Anderson Memorial Hospital. An Emergent Communication of the Grand Lodge was called for the purpose of consecrating, dedicating and constituting one new Lodge. Two new Lodge Halls were dedicated.

Fraternal recognition was extended to the Grand Lodge of Belgium. One recommendation approved by the Grand Lodge was that the Deputy Grand Master's office be made an elective instead of an appointive office.

A Dispensation was issued for the forming of a new Lodge. Four new cottages were added to their new home, one of which was paid for by the Grand York Rite Bodies of Mississippi.

The official visits of the Grand Master required 14 pages of the Proceedings to record.

The principal charities of the Grand Lodge is through their homes. They report 56 children in the home, and the per capita cost for 1963 was $1075.00. They also approved 126 worthy requests for relief at a cost of $28,821.00 of which the local lodges contributed $13,452.85.

The address of the Grand Orator was entitled: "Freemasonry and the Space Age." This is a very challenging discussion and should be available for every mason in America. We quote a few paragraphs:

"We meet here at a time when the forces that are dedicated to action under compulsion are locked in a deadly struggle, all over the world it seems, with those whose faith lies in free and voluntary action by morally responsible individuals. We meet at a time when it seems that much in which we believe is being brought into question and is being put anew to the test for truth. As we may observe some of the landmarks of our heritage swaying under attack, many of us are tempted at times to resort to the use of methods and implements that deny and suppress the very individual freedom and initiative that we seek to save. These are opportunities enough for worthwhile service in this hour to challenge true Masons everywhere. There are good and sufficient reasons, if I but had the power to tongue the world to express them as they deserve to be expressed, to this assemblage ablaze with the desire and determination to demonstrate by precept that Freemasonry's ideals still have a valuable program to offer the builders of civilization.

"Though I must confess in honesty that I lack the power of tongue and word to lift you up as we have been lifted up by talented and dedicated Grand Orators of years past, I invite you in humility to consider with me during the next few minutes the subject of "Free-masonry And The Space Age."

At the close of his address he says:

"The Order of Free and Accepted Masons has met the tests of the ages and overcome the onslaughts of formidable opposition because its 'Ancient Landmarks,' such as brotherly love, relief and truth, are the principles which would draw together in mutual forbearance, tolerance, and appreciation.

"Every Master Masons know that his real secrets are the incommunicable joy of satisfactions that come from such constructive labors as achieving his individual contribution to a way of life that is based upon peace with freedom and diginty for the individual in his Lodge, in his Community, his State, his Nation and the World.

"It is our conduct which determines whether we really deserve the title of Master Mason with which we have been invested.

"I submit, Brethren, that if our American Way of Life is to prevail in the Space Age, then the individual citizens of our Nation must of their own volition and in the spirit of Freemasonry do the things that are necessary to prevailing in a quicker and a more efficient manner than the Communists and other enemies of individual freedom acting from compulsion, ignorance and fear will do them."

"Let us return to our Lodge and challenge every member of the Craft to redouble his use of the square and compasses, of the trowel, of the twenty-four inch gauge, and common gavel, of the level, plumb and line to the end that every Mason will erect a temple within his own heart upon foundations of brotherly love, benevolence, and reverence for truth.

"In doing so, we may well translate the principles of Freemasonry into the spirit of the Space Age that lies before us, to the glory of the Supreme Grand Master and the blessing of all mankind."

The Fraternal Correspondent gives a full account of his activities.

In the discussion of Cuba, in which we are all so much interested, he is non-committal, stating that each Jurisdiction should decide for themselves suggesting a plan similar to the method being used in several Grand Lodges. Necessarily the circumstances that follow will probably decide what action all the Jurisdictions will take.

They have no Reviews. M. W. Q. C. Young was elected Grand Master and Bro. Cevil A. Thorn was re-elected Grand Secretary.

MONTANA

98th Annual Communication, Great Falls, June 22-23, 1964. M∴W∴ Grover C. Schmidt, Grand Master. Membership 12-31-63, 24,866. Net Loss, 419, 15 Past Grand Masters present.

A large number of distinguished guests including John D. Cunningham Past Executive Secretary of the Masonic Service Association and Conrad Hahn, P.G.M., Executive Secretary, Masonic Service Association.

The number of visits of the Grand Master indicated a year of devoted, consecrated service to the office he considers so honorable.

The number receiving 50 year certificates appeared to us to be unusually large. They must live longer in Montana than in some Invisitions.

The Reviews prepared by Bro. Geo. S. Sloan, P.G.M., are mostly quotations from the choicest bits of Oratory or reports of important Masonic problems.

His Review of North Carolina covers part of the address of the Grand Orator who is one of the oustanding public servants of the old South. He is Orator of unusual ability. Any quotation from any of his speeches, addresses or Orations is worth while reading for any one. We deeply appreciate the reference to North Carolina.

This Scribe is naturally interested in anything that transpires in Montana Masonry. We have been the Grand Representatives of Montana near the Grand Lodge of North Carolina for a number of years, and have enjoyed reading and observing their fortunes all these years.

NEW HAMPSHIRE

175th Annual Communication, Manchester, May 20, 1964. M. W. George B. Ward, Grand Master. Membership, 17,263. Net Loss, 124. Number Lodges 82.

The Grand Master was treated very favorably by the Jurisprudence Committee. They approved all the official acts of his administration, which is unusual.

They also held a semi-annual Communication in Manchester on Nov. 19, 1963.

Notwithstanding a definite net loss, he reported that Freemasonry was in healthy condition. One lodge has purchased a school building which they are renovating for a new Temple and which will be dedicated in the fall. A number of other lodges have purchased lots for the purpose of erecting new Temples on them.

One of the events in the celebration of their 175th anniversary, was a pilgrimage to Alexandria, Va., where they conferred the Master Mason's degree on a New Hampshire candidate in the lodge room of Alexandria-Washington Lodge No. 22 in the George Washington Masonic National Memorial. 170 of their members made the trip by air.

The Grand Master announced that at the evening meeting, the Grand Lodge officers would be installed by M.'.W.'.Bro. Harold O. Cady, who had installed the officers for the past 14 years. The installation was semiprivate in order that the ladies of the invited guests and others might be able to witness the ceremony. He stated that this was a departure from the installation ceremonies of the past.

The Grand Lodge of Santa Catarina, Brazil was extended formal Fraternal recognition.

The Grand Master and Grand Secretary were both re-elected.

OKLAHOMA

91st Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge of Indian Territory.
71st Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge of Oklahoma Territory.

56th Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge of the State of Okla. Membership Dec. 31, 1963, 83,528. Net Loss, 1,063. M.*.W.*.Robert W. Osborn, Grand Master. Number Chartered Lodges, 379. Past Grand Masters present, 20.

Ten Special Communications were held during the year as follows: One new Temple dedicated, cornerstones laid for one Church, three School buildings, and six new Masonic Temples. The Grand Master compliments the public relations committee on a job well done.

The official publication of the Grand Lodge, "The Oklahoma Mason," is being sent to all members, and the report states that each month approximately $60.00 is paid to the Postmaster at Guthrie for unclaimed magazines.

Their home, The Masonic Home, has at present 58 children and 132 adults.

The Committee on dual membership recommended that dual membership be established in the Jurisdiction. This report was adopted by vote of Grand Lodge.

Masonic Rally: "On Wednesday Oct. 9, the Grand Lodge of Oklahoma, in co-operation with the Guthrie Scottish Rite Bodies, held the annual Masonic Rally in the Scottish Rite Temple at Guthrie, Oklahoma. R.'.W.'.Carson Scott, Deputy Grand Master, presided.

This rally was the finest one that has been held in Oklahoma. The Temple was completely filled from the ground floor to the third balcony. The Guthrie Scottish Rite Bodies entertained our wives and families in a very satisfactory manner.

A picked team from North Carolina put on a full Master Mason Degree, which had never been exemplified in Oklahoma according to the North Carolina ritual. Many of the Grand Lodge Officers from North Carolina attended this rally, including the Grand Master."

Under the heading of Publicity and Advertising, they again refer to the memorable visit of a Degree team from North Carolina.

"The name of a Lodge upon a newpaper's list of advertisers, though sums involved may be small, is an advantage that Masons should not overlook. Generally, they will receive much more than they pay for. In some instances, it is possible to make one's own news. There must be a valid reason to get a name before the public. Editors must insist upon this.

Along this line, the Grand Line Officers are inviting a team from North Carolina to visit Oklahoma and confer their version of the Master Mason degree at Guthrie, Oklahoma, on October 9, 1963. The novelty of a Masonic cast from a far-off jurisdiction staging its own conception of the work, never before seen in Oklahoma, is enough upon which to build a story. Such a venture may be written so as to reach 90 per cent of the newspapers in the state. It would be news and would reach most of Oklahoma's 86,990 Masons."

OREGON

114th Annual Communication, Portland, June 10, 11, 12, 1964. M. W. Wm. D. E. Sharp, Grand Master. Membership 12-31-63, 42,724. Net Loss, 523. No. Lodges, 192. Largest Lodge, 1,155. Smallest, 27. Average, 222.

The message and report of the Grand Master covers a discussion of Masonic Blood Bank, Masonic Education, Masonic and Eastern Star Home, Public Schools, Masonic Instructions, 50 year Emblems, Finances, Physical Disabilities, Youth Organizations, and various other subjects and activities.

The Chairman of the Committee on Foriegn Correspondence in his Foreword states:

"The Masonic Fraternity is confronted with the greatest challenge it has ever had to face on the North American continent. Our principles have and are being challenged and ridiculed. Every Grand Lodge is concerned with the conditions of Freemasonry, not only in its own jurisdiction, but also with its condition in our country, in our western civilization. The conditions and problems which existed one year or more ago have not been solved.

Freemasonry challenges no man's political creed, leaving that to his country and himself, and it does not interfere with any man's religious opinions, leaving that to a matter between his God and his conscience. It does seek to impress the power of truth, it embraces the highest moral laws, it seeks to uplift man, inculcating doctrines of patriotism and brotherly love, encouraging all that is good, and opposes all that is cruel and oppressive. It seeks to uplift everyone under its influence.

Masonry has played an important part in the founding of our country and in the establishment of the American way of life. Has Masonry lost some of its influence, and is it failing to make its influence felt in America today? Is it failing to influence its membership and provide leadership? These are the big questions confronting and perhaps challenging the Masonic fraternity today.

Freemasonry does have a real job to make it stronger and greater. Freemasonry is confronted with a great challenge today. It is the job of every brother to warn the brethren of his Grand Lodge, and give them due and timely notice that they may ward off the approaching dangers to our honorable institution and to the society in which we live.

It cannot be too strongly stated that the world today is on the brink of disaster as the struggle continues between the Mexican view on the one hand that would destroy in order to conquer, and the capitalistic or free enterprise view on the other hand that seeks to set men and nations free. But what we Masons must understand is that the struggle or war is on, and is being conducted on our own soil. The war is principally directed at capturing the mind and will of the people. This is what we must fight with all the intelligence available to us. We must save and preserve our own nation before saving the world for posterity, or like all other nations of history that were dedicated to freedom, be crumpled from within. And to this end, politics will play a great part, and I am persuaded that the politics which is the most likely to preserve our nation is that which shall be inspired by the principles of Freemasonry. Let us work together, my brethren, and not be weary in our efforts."

The Grand Orator chose as his subject "The Letter G." We quote: "Claudy in his 'Introduction to Free Masonry' speaks of the letter 'G.' He remarks that 'God is always geometrizing.' I can't find this word in the dictionary; but he claims that Plato said it 23 centuries ago. We will accept his word for it. We believe that he is sufficient authority to quote. Certainly Freemasonry is dedicated to human relationships, if we could do a little bit to restore the order, unity, harmony that exists between the particles of matter within a single living cell and that we see existing in the universe around us to the affairs of men, our Fraternity would be immortal. Certainly those things which we practice ceremonially in the drama of Masonry remind us of the value of authority, industry, loyalty and morality. On the other hand, our spiritual orientation to individuality too often reflects our own petty self-interest and our lack of respect and dependence on the God who is always geometrizing.

"I believe I can say without fear of contradiction that all of us who profess a belief in God, be he the God of the Christian, the Jew, the Mohammedan, or other faith, are convinced that our understanding of this God must be much different today than it was for our forefathers. We live in a world in which the spiritual can only remain alive when men think together and live together in human relationships under the God, who is the spirit of healthy relationship. The secular materialist and the communist would make men in tools to be used for purposes that are materialistic. We would believe that our vocation is to live with our God and each other in such a way that relationships between one another can be broadened.

"Life is energy and movement. Dr. Leo Hones invited me into a darkened chamber. He had me sit through a film. He and other scientists were preparing this film for science classes in High School and College. He narrated while the 25 minute film was viewed. He called my attention to the mitochrondria as they grew longer, fuzzier, and moved more slowly. They linked together cytoplasmic river-like highway slowed likewise. The nucleus stopped dividing. Finally all ran together into a dark blur of death. The cell was no longer a healthy living cell.

"Good friends and Masons, the Great Architect, who is ever geometrizing, demands activity, change, energy. 'To stand still is death.' To do this year only what we did last year is death. To resist change, interaction, movement, is death. The letter 'G' stands for life because it stands for the study of interaction between bodies.

"If a little boy ever asks me what the letter 'G' stands for, I shall tell him, Son, I am a Mason. 'G' stands for Geometry, the first and noblest of the sciences. It also stands for God. Grow up son and wear a ring that marks you as a man of principle and faith. The world is hungry for faith in God and faithful men who live in harmony with one another.

"Of course I have not exhausted the meaning of the letter 'G' for myself or for you or for Masonry; but I hope I may have caused you to think about what this symbol could mean. Perhaps this discourse will stimulate speculations. We hope it may add systematic meaning of many other symbols too. So many haunt the memory of Masonry. They make it meaningful in the lives of men.

"Let us go in peace. Remember the poor. Be kindly, affectionate, one to another, with brotherly love. May the Great Architect bless us and keep us. May He make His face to shine upon us and be gracious unto us—this day and for evermore."

The Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Correspondence closes with the following conclusion:

"The Buddhist, under his jewelled turban of the East, may still teach the quiescent rest of Nirvana; the Muslim may still venerate the Koran and from the minaret and tower proclaim that God is God and Mohammed is His prophet; the Jew, the miracle of the ages, while maintaining his age old monotheism, may still look for the coming of the Messiah; the Roman Catholic may still revere the dignity and ceremonial of his historic Church; divers lesser sects and creeds may seek truth and teach their religious philosophies; the protestant, in conventicle and meeting house may still teach from the pages of the New Testament, the sweet and tender story of the cross; but we as Masons, rising above all creeds and dogmas, will still hold that we are made each after the image of his maker and belong to the same household whose head and father is God, and as such, we will ever meet upon the level of equality, firmly believing that "He watching over Israel, slumbers not nor sleeps," will at last separate the true from the false, and the false shall pass away; but the true will abide forever."-R. W. David M. Evans, Grand Orator, Arkansas.

"May the Great Architect of the Universe help us all, and may we all help one another to correct what may be amiss, to strengthen what stands, to raise up what has fallen back. May He, by His goodness, keep continually before our hearts and minds our sacred obligations, the thought of what He has done for us, and what He has in store for us, so that we may never lose it, but find it brightening, enlarging, becoming strange, more real, more powerful in our hearts, as we go drawing near the end, till the days of hope are over, and the treasure we have so heard of, and which we have pursued during our Masonic travels and thought so much of, is made our own for ever."

These Proceedings are full and complete and constitute a good record of the transactions of this Annual Communication. The report of the Foreign Correspondent is a departure from the usual method, but it is informative and interesting. It has been a pleasure to review these proceedings.

SOUTH CAROLINA

227th Annual Communication, Charleston, S. C., Apr. 23-24, 1964.
Bro. H. Dwight McAlister, Most Worshipful Grand Master; Members, Jan. 1, 1964, 59,676; Net Gain, 485; No. Lodges, 310; U.D., 1; Past Grand Masters present, 8; District Deputy Grand Masters present, 30; Special Communication, 13; Temples dedicated, 8; Cornerstones laid, 5; Distinguished guests present from 15 Grand Jurisdictions outside of South Carolina.

In the address of the Grand Master he states "that he was happy to report that Masonry was in a healthy condition and that peace and harmony prevails throughout the Jurisdiction. There have been no schisms or serious disputes in the ranks of Masonry. There has been an excellent fraternal spirit exhibited by the brethren and I am sure that this will mean much for the future of Masonry in this Grand Lodge."

Approximately 475 Brethren were presented 25 year lapel buttons during the year. About 104 fifty year gold emblems were awarded those loyal brethren who had served masonry 50 or more years.

Special dispensations for dual membership were issued to seven brethren, the Grand Master deeming it to be in the best interest of Masonry in South Carolina. He also issued concurrent Jurisdiction to ten Lodges in the Greenville area.

The Grand Master wrote a personal letter to more than 500 newly raised Master Masons since the last Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge. He visited 119 Lodges or other meetings of a Masonic nature. He visited Lodges in all sections of the state, from the largest to the smallest Lodge, and was cordially received in all of them. In our opinion this is one of the most rewarding efforts that a Grand Master can perform. He also made fifteen visits to out of the State Jurisdictions.

The annual communication began by having a Religious Service in the gymnasium of the College of Charleston on Apr. 23, 1964 at 10:00 A.M. The sermon was delivered by the Grand Chapalin.

The report of the Fraternal Correspondent, Bro. Hugh N. Layne, P.G.M. was a very complete analysis of the several Grand Jurisdictions whose proceedings had come to his desk. According to his report of the 1963 proceedings, he stated that there were in the United States 49 Grand Lodges, 49 Grand Chapters, 47 Councils, 48 Grand Commanderies, and 49 Grand Jurisdictions in which the Scottish Rite functions. Yet of all of these Jurisdictions there are only 6 which in 1962 recorded a net gain in membership of Lodges, all York Rite and all Scottish Rite Bodies. They are: Arizona, Mississippi, Nevada, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Tennessee. It is significant that four of these Jurisdictions are situated in the Southeastern part of the U.S. and the other two in the Southwest.

We deeply appreciate the favorable comments that he gave North Carolina and particularly to this Scribe. We only regret that space forbids us from making an extended Review of each Jurisdiction.

He refers to a ruling of the Grand Master of West Virginia (1963):

"The Grand Master ruled that: It is improper for the Grand Master to join the Imperial Potentate of the Ancient, Arabic Order of the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine as a 'co-worker' in advancement of Masonry and the Shrine in this Grand Jurisdiction.

"Ancient Craft Masonry is an exclusive organization. The Grand Master also held that Job's Daughters may not meet in the Lodge Halls without consent of the Grand Lodge and that fraternal greetings of the Grand Lodge may be extended by the Grand Master or his representative only to regularly constituted Masonic bodies. Organizations such as the Order of the Eastern Star, Rainbow, DeMolay, etc., although claiming connection with Masonry through family ties of the members, are not Masonic bodies."

Although this appears to be a little severe, but in general, we agree with most of the sentiments expressed. I firmly believe that Masonry has a definite responsibility in connection with the Order of DeMolay. It is from such young men as these from which our future Masons must come, and our future leaders in all phases of life. We must aid and assist the young men of today if we are to have a citizenship worthy of the name for the tomorrow.

This is one of our finest Grand Jurisdictions. It always has capable men to guide their destiny and the results speak for themselves. May you continue to be one of the outstanding groups of efficient Masonic leaders that you have been for many years.

TENNESSEE

On April 3, 1964, the Grand Lodge of Tennessee held a Special Sesquicentennial at Knoxville, Tenn., in the Scottish Rite Temple.

A large number of distinguished visitors from within the State as well as those from a large number of Sister Grand Jurisdictions.

An address by the M.'.W.'.Grand Master of N. C. W. Edward Burrier was presented by P.G.M. Chas. C. Ricker. The Grand Master was unavoidably detained by circumstances beyond his control.

Another address was delivered by the Grand Master of Tennessee, M : W : John Elvis Malone.

A number of paragraphs of historical importance were also presented. There is a short historical sketch in the Proceedings of Tennessee, 1964 which is very instructive.

The Grand Lodge of Tennessee was chartered by the Grand Lodge of North Carolina. In celebrating their 150th anniversary they returned to Knoxville where the first meeting of the Grand Lodge of Tennessee was called to order.

Annual Communication in compliance with the constitution. The 150th Annual Communication of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of the Ancient Honorable Fraternity of Free and Accepted Masons of the State of Tennessee was held in the Grand Lodge building in Nashville, beginning at 10:00 a.m. on March 25, 1964.

M. W. John Elvis Malone, M. W. Grand Master. Membership, 91,532; Net Gain, 395; No. Lodges, 390; Lodges present, 384; Not represented, 6.

The Grand Master attended District Meetings in all 23 of the Districts in the State. A combined attendance of all the meetings was 9,007. It was an excellent attendance for district meetings.

He made an unusually large number of visits both within the State and in Sister Grand Jurisdictions. He also presided and delivered an address at the Sesquicentennial in Knoxville. In closing his year of very extensive work he had this to say:

Looking Back 150 Years

"As we near the close of this Sesquicentennial Celebration let us look back down the long winding stairway of time one hundred fifty years ago. At the foot of this stairway we see 12 members from 8 pioneer lodges as they assemble in convention in the village of Knoxville, perhaps in a log cabin.

"They work under the Great Charter issued by Most Worshipful Robert Williams, Grand Master of North Carolina-Tennessee. They deposit those sacred treasures that Masons shall revere: love of truth, equality, fraternity, faith, hope, and courage. Up through these 150 winding steps our Grand Lodge has continued to operate with an unbroken record. It has continued to climb through the ravages of wars, plagues, strife, difficulties and depressions. These steps have been built with the cement of brotherly love. We must continue to build ever upward.

"For these many years craftsman scattered from the Smoky Mountains in the east to the Father of Waters in the west have climbed shoulder to shoulder with such great men as James Robertson, the father of Tennessee; John Sevier, first Governor of Tennessee; Thomas Claiborne, first Grand Master of Tennessee. Prominent among these many distinguished craftsmen were three Masonic Presidents: General Andrew Jackson, James K. Polk, and Andrew Johnson.

"Many changes have occurred during these passing years and many more will occur in the next generation, but it is hoped the record of these 150 years will continue to stand as a firm foundation. That the deeds of great men who have traveled these steps will serve to keep alive a high record and a deep devotion for our Fraternity. With these memories, standards and principles before us, surely the Masons of Tennessee have just cause to be proud of its long and honorable history.

"In celebrating the achievements of the past, the Grand Lodge of the State of Tennessee is strengthening its purpose for the future, confident that Freemasonry will rise above every challenge. Proclaiming our faith in God and acknowledging our obedience to His Divine Will, we shall march together into a glorious future. "May the blessings of Heaven rest upon us and all mankind everywhere. So mote it be."

Tennessee reported in 1940 a membership of 35,890 with a net loss of 201. Since that time they have not shown a net loss in the 23 years and at the end of 1963 had a membership of 91.532.

The report of the Fraternal Correspondent with the Foreword and Reviews of the several Grand Jurisdictions covers 63 pages.

They are well prepared and contain much Masonic information. We deeply appreciate his remarks concerning North Carolina and also the reference to this Scribe.

From such source as this it is all the more appreciated.

UTAH

92nd Annual Communication, Salt Lake City, Feb. 3, 1964. M∴W∴ Elmer A. Vail, Jr., Grand Master. Membership 6968; Net Loss 55; Past Grand Masters present 14; 52 Grand Representatives present; N. C. not represented.

The Grand Master visited officially all the Lodges in the Grand Jurisdictions. We would also commend him on his record of having the Jurisprudence Committee recommend and the Grand Lodge approve all the official acts of his administration.

Fraternal Recognition was extended to the Grand Lodge of Catarina, Brazil. On the recommendation of the committee on Fraternal Relations, the Grand Lodge voted to rescind its recognition of the Grand Lodge of France.

Under the heading, "State and Condition of Masonry", he reports: "During the visitations to all the Utah Lodges this year I found that a fine spirit of fraternalism prevails. Our Lodges are in a healthy condition financially. They are putting on degrees and enjoying social activities. There has been a definite absence of dissension within our lodges.

"Although our membership is not showing an increase to the extent we would like to see, we are showing an increase in our Jurisdictions, small but an increase.

"As a result of these observations I am convinced that Masonry is strong in Utah; that the membership is active; that Lodges are conducting their affairs in such a manner as will insure the steady progress of our Fraternity; that they are careful in their selection of candidates; diligent in the observance of our laws; and finally that the attitude of all our membership in regard to the future will assure continuing success throughout the coming years."

The official organ, now two years old, known as the "Utah Mason," is recognized by all Lodges of the Salt Lake Valley as an outstanding Magazine, and a most satisfactory means of communication with the brethren. He states that all Lodges in Utah are becoming increasingly aware of this magazine and hopes that the members will consider giving a subscription to the members.

The Grand Orator, Francis W. Douglas, spoke on the subject, "According to Thy Works." We quote a few paragraphs from this very fine Oration:

"Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter; fear God, and keep His Commandments; for this is the whole duty of man. For God shall bring every work into judgment with every sweet thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil." Ecclesiastes, 12:13, 14.

"If thou sayest, Behold, we knew it not: doth not He that pondereth the heart consider it? and He that keepeth the soul, doth not He know it? and shall not He render to every man according to his works?" Proverbs, 24:12

"My Brethren, across the years, it has become a tradition for the Grand Orator, at the Annual Grand Lodge Communication, to address the Brethren on matters appertaining to the Craft. In so doing, with the thoughts upon my mind, and I am sure, on the minds and hearts of many of you here today, it may appear that I am attempting to sermonize. This, I assure you, is farthest from my mind, as I would be the most unfit among the least of you, to attempt to do such. But as I have attempted to sort out and put on paper the thoughts which I wish to share with you, I can only hope that you might in some degree, receive the inspiration that has come to me from this effort.

"I must also tell you that I stand here this afternoon in deep humility; in fact, almost fear, remembering that many of the really great leaders of our Fraternity in this Grand Jurisdiction have preceded me in this Office. I am reminded of a little jingle by Augustus DeMorgan which has always amused me:

"Great fleas have little fleas
Upon their backs to bite'em,
And little fleas have lesser
Fleas, and so ad infinitum!

"Let us then consider 'The Fatherhood of God' and at the same time 'The Brotherhood of Man'—because these ideas are so closely correlated as to be one and the same. If we will reflect but a moment, we will realize that this means that we must do God's Will; not to try to please him, but because we believe in Him. 'In Thy will is our peace,' cries Dante in the Paradise, genuflecting before the Throne of God. As Joshua Loth Liebman has written in his book 'Peace of Mind;' The humble acknowledgement that all peace proceeds from God, and that to find it, we must find Him, has been the sum of Man's wisdom from time immemorial.

"This idea also means that all men are brothers—not just those who live about us today—our friends, our neighbors, our business associates, but all men of all times, everywhere. It means to the Jew that he is a brother to Abraham and Isaac, to Moses and Isaiah, and all the prophets of the Old Testament. It means to the Christian that he is a brother to Jesus Christ! What priceless examples God has set before us! What clearer patterns could be transfixed upon our minds, telling us that we should try every moment of every day to shape our lives according to God's will. It means that all of us are Sons of God, and so squarely places upon us the responsibility of emulating the virtuous life that God, the All-Father, has the right to expect from us!"

I should like to quote another Grand Orator, Judge Gerald S. Lavin, as he spoke to the Grand Lodge of California several years ago. Judge Lavin made these statements:

"Although Freemasonry is not a religion and the Craft makes no attempt to interpret the Holy Bible in a theological sense or to bind a Mason to any creed, Masons are committed to a belief in God and the immortality of the soul. The Fraternity seeks only to strengthen its members, as well as Freemasonry, by endeavoring to confirm each man in the faithful observance of whatever religious course he chooses to pursue in the light of his own conscience..

"Masons recognize that this is a time when strong religious beliefs are needed if civilization is to survive, for no civilization has outlasted the demise of religious faith. Religious conviction is a great force because it motivates a person to do the will of God. That motivating force is founded upon the Holy Bible, which represents that which is sacred in a man's spiritual life and in his relationship with God."

VERMONT

171st Annual Communication, Burlington, June 10, 11, 1964. M.: W.: Neal L. Cobb, Grand Master. Membership Apr. 30, 1964, 17,398; Net Loss 223; No. Lodges 102; Gr. Representatives present 50. N. C. was not represented.

One Special Communication at St. Johnsbury for the Masonic Funeral Service for Bro. Paul L. Laflame. R. W. District Deputy Grand Master, District No. 12. The Grand Masters Banquet was observed on the evening previous to the formal opening of Grand Lodge. Distinguished visitors were present from Quebec, Maine, District of Columbia, Delaware, Rhode Island, New Jersey, Maryland, Virginia, Scotland and the Presiding Officers of other Masonic Bodies from Vermont.

The Grand Master made a wonderful address and report of his years activities. Under "State of the Craft" he states:

"Our Grand Secretary's Report will indicate a loss of 223 Brothers. This is the summation of the situation due to the grim reaper, to demits, and to suspensions for non-payment of dues. I have already stated that in my opinion Masonry has grown in depth in this Jurisdiction. This was evidenced at the District Meetings for there we saw many younger men taking part. Many young Masters and Wardens, many younger faces. This is where our strength will lie and does lie for the future. We do not do enough in this Jurisdiction about keeping symbolic Masonry before the public eye. About the only time we are seen is at our church services and at Masonic funerals. I have made it a point to look at whatever Vermont newspapers are available to me and I find little, if anything, said about Freemasonry. I believe that we should do more to bring those things that can be made available to the public more to the fore and I suggest to my successor that he consider this matter most seriously. In other Jurisdictions a great deal is being done in this regard. Most Worshipful Brother George Ward in New Hampshire, for instance, and Most Worshipful Brother Raymond M. Rideout in Maine have done a great deal in this direction. To use the same old phrase, my Brothers, we are hiding our light under a bushel and it is about time we stopped.

"In addition to publicity we should continue our Friendship Nights. We should look for quality first and quantity second, but let there be no mistake this year with respect to my having the courage of my convictions. I say, present a strong right hand in friendship, but leave the left hand free to take any proper steps necessary. Further, I say, we do not have to go to great lengths to make membership more easily attainable. What we need to do is to be such a vital force that men will see in us what they want."

"Our forefathers at the beginning of modern speculative Freemasonry were farsighted enough to make one of the prime requisites of this great Fraternity of ours a belief in one ever-living true God by whatever name He May be called. Thus we can gather together all good men of all the great monotheistic religions around a common altar for a common purpose. Does this not give us the greatest of opportunities to use the first two attributes of man, the soul and the mind, to excite our brains and consciences to that conclusion that we, as Masons, can be a mighty force in bringing nearer that Utopia "that all men are the sons of one God and therefore Brothers?" Thus we must, and I say we will continue down through all the ages to come, yes, we must change and adapt ourselves to changing circumstances, but the fundamentals remain unaltered. If we will but accept the challenge, if we will but act, we cannot fail."

The Grand Master delivered an address at each District Meeting. With certain modifications his talk was on the line of "The Image of Masonry." We quote a number of short extracts:

"That which I am going to discuss with you tonight comes from many sources written by many Masons who have spent their lives studying and recording Masonic History. I claim no originality, but rather I have tried to put it together in a still different form, that it may be in some way appealing and perhaps in some way inspire you, my Brothers, to greater zeal in this great fraternity of ours. As I have said on many occasions, we hold wonderfully sharp tools in our hands with which we can shape the future if we will but wield them skillfully. I am now going to ask you a question. I request that you answer it aloud just as sincerely as you did when it was once before asked you in a Masonic Lodge. I W D Y P Y T?

"From whence came you, whither are you traveling, where will you be, where will you go?" This is in part a familiar phrase to all Master Masons, but what significance can we derive from this question—"From whence did we come?"

SPIRITUALLY, we are the sons of the one God by whatever name we may call Him and by His fatherhood, brothers to all men of all races and all creeds.

HISTORICALLY, we come from ages beyond the ken of manfrom beyond all historical records, always striving onward toward a better life by whatever standard we may set for ourselves; always striving so that our children may have a better life than that which we have known. MASONICALLY, we come from time immemorial, learning by "the Word" and example how best to live according to the teachings of T G A O T U.

WHITHER ARE YOU TRAVELING? We are searching for that which was lost. WHAT HAVE WE LOST? Have we lost our perspective of life? It was once said that success consisted of land, labor and capital. I do not use these words in today's parlance, I assure you. All the natural resources everywhere, at our command, upon which we depend for the maintenance of life—the air we breathe—the water we drink—the food we eat—the wood, coal and oil that keeps us warm—the metals we extract from mother earth for our benefit—these are land and they were all here when man came upon this earth. "Labor" is not a group or class, but rather all mankind. We each have a skill to contribute, be it large or small. You buy my skill—I buy your skill—and together we improve man's lot. These skills came here with us at birth; man discovered them in himself and developed them as he lived.

WHERE WILL YOU GO? WHERE WILL YOU BE? While it is pleasant to look back upon history and while it is informative to understand one's motives, the important thing to Masonry today is its future. This is what I mean by where will you go, where will you be. The battle being waged today is not a battle of arms, it is not a battle of nuclear weapons, it is not a battle for territory, but rather a battle for the control of men's minds!

WE LEARN OF TOLERATION. In a true spirit of toleration we consider other men's opinions and religion because in all things of value there is ground for individual preference. Freemasons reverently protect all monotheistic religions because they love and venerate the great principle on which they all agree "that we have one common Father."

WE LEARN OF FAITH for through all ordinary affairs of life we are governed far more by what we believe than by what we know, by faith rather than by strict reason.

WE LEARN OF TRUTH which in Freemasonry is the search for "the Word." In reality it is not a search for a Word at all, but a search for the Light that shineth from above, "For in the beginning was the Word and the Word was with God." No one knows exactly what Truth is, but it is what we search for, a divine attribute and the foundation of every virtue.

We learn of CHARITY which is not just the relief of the unfortunate but much broader in meaning—affection toward all mankind but more especially toward our Brother in Masonry. To do all the things that we are exhorted to do in the lesson of the Five Points of fellowship.

WE LEARN OF MORALITY, of the moral law the TEN COM-MANDMENTS which are just as true today as on the day they were handed among flashes of lightning and the roar of thunder on Mt. Sinai.

WE LEARN OF PATRIOTISM. For loyalty to one's county is a basic Masonic principle. No good Mason will fail to be a good citizen.

WE LEARN OF SYMBOLISM, for all our lessons are thus taught. If a Mason understands not the symbolism of Masonry, he knows nothing of Masonry at all! We spend hours memorizing the work, but how many are spent really learning what it means? We discover the truths concealed in this symbolism, but we see them not and we hear them not.

WE LEARN OF PHILOSOPHY. Each of us must fight our own battle between intellect, reason, and moral standards against our natural animal instincts and passions. The philosophy of Masonry, "the fatherhood of God and brotherhood of man" is a philosophy unexcelled!

WE LEARN OF HAPPINESS for we obtain happiness by the habit of giving something of ourselves to others. The most expressive symbol of happiness is the clasped hands. No man can find happiness in loneliness. Happiness is the labor to hold an old friend and win a new one, if possible, for in friendship is happiness.

WE LEARN THEN OF IMMORTALITY. From the darkest ages even in the most lowly forms of idolatry is an acknowledgement of the longing and need of the worshiper to throw himself upon the support of some unknown power higher than himself. In all the great religions the question has been asked, "If a man die, shall he live?" Is there an existence after what we call 'death?' The universal answer is always in the affirmative, in one form or another. When thinking men try to analyze where we came from, why we are here and where we will go, there can be but one answer. Immortality is the fundamental law—it is the eternal lesson of Freemasonry.

These then are the tenets of our Fraternity and they are the tremendous force which, if we look upon them well, we will have no need to ask the question, "Where will we go—where will we be?"

VIRGINIA

186th Annual Communication, Richmond, Feb. 11, 1964. M.:.W.:.John Powers Stokes, Grand Master. Membership 70,571; Net Gain 306; No. Lodges present 259; Grand Representatives present 48. North Carolina was represented.

We quote a few paragraphs from an address by Conrad Hahn, Executive Secretary of the Masonic Service Association:

"I yield to no man, Virginia or not, in my admiration for, respect and appreciation of what George Washington meant as a man and a Mason. He is an inspiration, not merely to Virginia, he has been an inspiration to mankind all over the globe."

"The special event which triggers this month of rededication is the fact that 211 years ago, come Monday night, George Washington was initiated in a Masonic Lodge—the Lodge at Fredericksburg—and four months later, on March 3, 1753, he took the second degree. Five months later, on August 4, 1753, he was made a Master Mason. In those days they did not hurry the degrees. Brother George Washington took nine months to become a Master Mason and he had lots of time to think over whether he would go on.

"I have often asked myself, 'Why did he become a Master Mason and why did he remain a Mason throughout his life?" My first conclusion, after thinking and reading about him, was that he became a Mason because he was a man's man. In his youth he exulted in good physical exercise and manual labor. He was a man who developed great physical prowess. In a land that has always boasted of its horsemanship, he was one of the finest horsemen it ever produced.

"He was a man who liked the company of his fellowman. Somehow the picture of a grim, a dignified and lordly George Washington has been overplayed. Brother George Washington was a man who liked to be in the company of his fellows and enjoyed the companionship of others. There were some things which he would not brook, just as any real man will not keep certain types of company.

"As he grew up he recognized that there was a part of life in Virginia, represented by the Freemasons, which brought and attracted to itself a certain amount of respect and importance. This was another reason that brought him into the company of Freemasons, for the men he had been taught to admire and respect were Freemasons. So it was natural that he should have been attracted to the company of men who were real men; men who represented that which was noble that which was ideal and progressively moral.

"As I think over the years which passed, the question, 'Why did he remain a Freemason' is perhaps the theme of my remarks this evening. Simply stated, I think George Washington remained a Mason, though not an active one, because all through his life he gave expression, as very few Masons have done, to the ideas and persuasions which had gone deeply into his soul. These convictions served to make him one and to keep him one throughout not only a useful but a noble life.

"George Washington was a man and this is the first reason I admire him. He was not a paragon, not a saint, no man is and no man can be. But throughout his life George Washington acted like a man and believed in being a man. I like him also because, manlike, he could take lightly some of the more serious things of life when they became unspeakably serious. There is a story that when he was President of the United States he visited in Pomfret, Conn. He found that the Yankees did not favor travel on Sunday. He abstained from traveling and attended one of those Yankee churches, listening to a very dull discourse!"

The Grand Master gave an interesting report of his official acts during the year. Six cornerstones were laid; three for new Temples and three for Church Buildings. Two new Temples were dedicated. Dispensations were issued for the forming of two new Lodges.

An evidence of a busy year devoted to the duties of his office is reflected in the 24 pages of the proceedings required to record the official acts and visits of the Grand Master.

Fraternal recognition was extended to the Grande Loja De Santa Catarina and the Grande Loja De Para, both of Brazil. The Grand Master was given authority to sever relations with the Grand Lodge of Cuba (in Cuba) if in his opinion such action became necessary. It appears that they cannot establish any correspondence with the Grand Lodge of Cuba in Exile in Florida any more than we can.

It appears that it requires the permission of the Grand Master for a Lodge to hold a Public Installation of its officers.

The Reviews prepared by our old friend M. W. Archer Gay, Grand Secretary are full and complete and represent many hours reading, compiling and writing.

We appreciate his reference to North Carolina and especially his reference to this Scribe. He has 91 pages of excellent excerpts and information in regard to the other Grand Jurisdictions.

The incoming Grand Master, M. W. M. R. Robbins says in conclusion:

"In a world that has largely sought to substitute mass action and mass responsibility for those of the individual we must feel a sense of pride in Freemasonry. It is one of the few organizations which recognizes the personal responsibility of each individual for his own personal conduct, for his own charitable obligations to the living, for his own privilege of citizenship. Let us continue to uphold this part of our Freemasonry and to make every man who comes among us understand that this is one of the things for which we stand.

Let us seek to build new reserves of leadership that we may go on to higher and more noble accomplishments in the world of tomorrow, ever remembering that we have but one mission; that of the brotherhood of man under the Fatherhood of God. We are builders; let us seek to build our part of the structure of Freemasonry in such a manner and with such a skill that generations which are yet unborn will place their hands upon this fabric and say with reverence and love, "See what our Fathers have builded for us."

This is the challenge of the day; this is the challenge which I place before you and ask that you carry it back to your brethren. Individually we can do little, if anything, toward accomplishing our goal, but working together and under God, there is no limit to the accomplishments we can achieve in 1964."

Our old friend Archer B. Gay was re-elected Grand Secretary.

WYOMING

90th Annual Communication, Riverton, Aug. 24, 25, 1964. M. W. Albert D. Murray, Grand Master. Membership, June 30, 1964, 12,935. Net loss 62. No. Lodges represented 50. No. Past Grand Masters present, 13. Grand Representatives present 101.

Three Special Communications were held during the year for the purpose of dedications and corner stone layings.

The Hon. Clifford P. Hansen, Governor of the State of Wyoming, and Grand Lecturer of the Grand Lodge of Wyoming, was requested to make a few remarks at this time.

The Worshipful Master and the Secretaries of the subordinate Lodges were introduced at this time. The heads of the related Bodies were also recognized and welcomed to this Annual Communication,

GRAND MASTERS ADDRESS

He incorporated in his address his appointments, attendance to Grand Masters Conferences, visits to subordinate Lodges, Special Communications, visits to outside Jurisdictions, Special Dispensations, Decisions, By-Laws, Opinions and Recommendations. He made 11 decisions.

The report of the Foreign Correspondent was very full and complete, but he does not mention Cuba, either in Cuba, or Grand Lodge of Cuba in Exile in Florida.

M. .. .. .. .. .. .. .. .. Masonic Service Association, made a wonderful address. We quote:

"Briefly, let me remind you what the Masonic Service Association is. I find that a great many people are a little vague about our purpose.

The Masonic Service Association in an association of Grand Lodges. There are no individual memberships. You can't become a member of the Masonic Service Association by applying for it. It was founded in 1919 by the Grand Lodges of this country because they had been faced with the realization that Government would not deal with Freemasons because they had no voice that could speak for all Grand Lodges.

During World War I, when the Red Cross and the YMCA and the Knights of Columbus had their organizations at work, even abroad in behalf of our soldier boys, the Masons were denied that privilege because the Federal Government would not deal with 49 different Grand Lodges, or with appendant bodies as well. And out of the feeling that there was a need for an organization that could speak for Freemasonry during a situation like that, was born the Masonic Service Association.

"But the War having ended, Masons realized that there were other needs which united Freemasonry could answer through such an organization, one being temporary distress, which needed relief on a grand scale, and the other being a need for Masonic information and Masonic tools of education. This of course, underlines the two most important areas in which we work.

"First of all, the area of education. I needn't remind the members of Wyoming lodges that the Short Talk Bulletins come monthly. Last month it was a collection of short, short talks for occasional speakers or the man faced with the sudden challenge of "Have you a few remarks?" If he doesn't want to take up too much time, he can borrow a few of those from the Short Talk Bulletin for August. In September, it was a short talk bulletin designed for the newly raised Master Mason, entitled, "A Beat Among the Brethren", explaining what that term may mean.

"Accompanying the Short Talk Bulletin every month from September through June is a supplement called "Your Masonic Hospital Visitor", which tells the story of the labors of those beloved men who are working in Veterans Hospitals and Service Hospitals to bring the right hand of brotherly love from the Masons to the bedsides of hospitalized Veterans. One thing I would say to the Masters of Wyoming lodges is this. These are sent, I believe, to the Secretaries; and if you don't get it from your Secretary, you just hound him until you get it, so that if you have a use for it in your lodge, you, as Master of the Lodge, can use it for good and wholesome instruction.

"We have a prejudice at headquarters in Washington that these are fairly good materials for Masonic Education. You must forgive us that prejudice if we feel strongly about it. "We also publish occasional digests or booklets for deeper penetration of a particular subject.

"DeMolay calls upon us from time to time for information. This summer they needed statistics on Masonic memberships in Grand Lodges of 5 or 6 of our midwestern states as well as in Grand Chapters and other appendant organizations, which we were happy to supply. But, I want to assure you, it sometimes keeps us stepping to try to answer all the requests for information which come to us, because I don't believe that you should give a quick answer to a factual question. You must go back and check your facts and be sure that you have the correct information which is being desired. In addition to this work, the supplying of Masonic information and Masonic knowledge, (which is, of course, my chief interest, since I came to the Masonic Service Association for that purpose) we never forget the second great theme or purpose of the Masonic Service Association, and that is to act as a central agency for relief when cataclysm or disaster strikes.

"This year we offered our services to the Grand Lodge of Washington when it was faced with the necessity of bringing immediate relief to the Brethren in Alaska when that earthquake struck. The Grand Master of Washington, however, had organized things so well in his own Jurisdiction that he didn't need our services. But I'm sure that our offer of help was appreciated. We have watched with admiration what the Grand Lodge of Washington has done through its own efforts. We did 'advertise' it to other Grand Lodges and, I think helped them understand what the situation was in Alaska.

"However, the thing that I have become the most deeply impressed by, in the work of the Association, and that which really has taken hold of my heart as nothing in Masonry ever did before, is the work we call the Hospital Visitation Program. I remind you that this is financed entirely by voluntary contributions, such as has been mentioned by our Grand Masters today, either by Grand Lodges or other appendant bodies or by individuals. I have visited a good many of our hospital visitors on the job. My Brethren, I never leave a Veterans Hospital or a Service Hospital after one of these visits to see what a Mason is doing to bring the right hand of fellowship and support, not only to Brother Masons, but brother human beings, throughout the hospitals, without a tear in my eye. It is not a tear of maudlin sympathy, but a tear of pride, to think that we have Brethren like our Field Agents, who go day after day to these hospitals, and in spite of the most heart-wringing experiences they face, keep going back for more, bringing the right hand of fellowship and the right hand of love to Brethren everywhere."
